CITY NEWS

The plate glass for the front of the new Mitchell & Garrett block has arrived and will be put in at once.

Murphy's Racket Store at 39 East Ninth street was opened today. Large crowds kept the full force of clerks busy.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Marshall left this forenoon to run a cook wagon for William Humphrey's threshing crew below Irving.

The second advertising car for the Barnum & Bailey circus, which will appear in Eugene on Saturday, August 29th, arrived last evening.

The employees of the Eugene Steam Laundry were the guests of Mr. Burns, proprietor of the Grand, last night. All report a pleasant evening spent.

The paving crew is now spreading dope on Oak street between East Seventh and East Eighth street. The park streets will be the next to be worked upon.

Five carloads of logs arrived for the Eugene Lumber Company from the Mohawk branch last night and the company is shipping one carload of lumber out today.

The funeral of Mack Somerville, who died in Los Angeles Thursday, will be held in Eugene Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, according to present plans and arrangements.

W. F. Hart, John Allen and N. P. Christman, appraisers of the property of the estate of Nathaniel Martin, deceased, today filed their inventory with the probate court. They appraised the property at $1500.

Harvey Somerville is home from Odell Lake, where he went recently in company with Clifford Carroll in hopes of benefiting his health, but he is no better. Upon his return to Eugene he was shocked to hear of the death of his brother, Mac, in Los Angeles.

Miss Marguerite Emerson, step-daughter of J. V. Reed, the capitalist, who has just sold his fine residence on East Eleventh street to Lee Wallis for over $13,000, will attend St. Helen's hall, a boarding school for girls, at Portland, Mr. Reed having taken her down this morning.

Attorney L. M. Travis mails to The Guard from Omaha a post card with the picture of W. J. Bryan surmounting a bundle of ears of corn and containing the inscription, "Two of America's great essentials to Peace and Prosperity. Known the World Over." He writes: "A great notification meeting."

The following recent graduates from the Normal school are taking examinations this week for state certificates: Misses Ella Dickerson, Ione Applegate, Meda Tracey, Cora Tarridge, Lillian and Marlon Ramsey at Roseburg, and Gertie Moon, Pearl Powrie and Rollien Dickerson at Eugene.—Drain Nonpareil.

The street cars are now making regular trips to Judkins' Point, as far as the rails are laid. Many of the citizens have ridden to the new end of the line the past two evenings just for the pleasure of the trip. The cars stop a couple of hundred yards west of the new trestle across the Campbell-Walker hop yard.

Professor Straub, an instructor in the U. of O. for many years, accompanied by Mrs. Straub, returned last evening from Newport, where they spent three weeks in an enjoyable manner. They have a fine cottage of their own, and have been going to the bay annually for ten or fifteen years, genial people whom it is always a pleasure to meet.—Albany Democrat.

Dr. Wall returned last night from his trip East. For two weeks he took advanced work under the famous Mayo brothers, the surgeons at Rochester, Minn. He also visited other Eastern cities and points. The heat in the East was something terrible, he says. The thermometer does not range so high, but the humidity draws the perspiration from every pore.

The many poultry fanciers about Eugene held a meeting last Monday in that city and decided to hold the biggest poultry show in the county since December ever held in the county. They will have to go some if they beat the Cottage Grove poultry show of last winter. However, they may look for Cottage Grove fanciers to a man, who will endeavor to bring back some of the many trophies carried away from Cottage Grove last winter by Brown, Koeney, Watts, et al.—Cottage Grove Leader.

W. H. Harrington and Edward McGary, of Oakland, Cal., arrived in Eugene last evening in their Matheson auto car. They are on their way to Portland, Seattle, Spokane and the Yellowstone Park, and have been about nine days from Oakland so far, coming by way of the water route. They say the road to the lake from the Klamath side is not bad, but the snow down the Rogue River to Medford, is in very bad shape and should have the attention that a highway to such a well-known attraction as the lakes should have. They state that there were with relatives.—Corvallis Gazette.
