COUNCIL MEETS IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE AND AGREES TO TEST BONDS—WILLAMETTE VALLEY COMPANY AGREES TO REFUSE TENDER

The city council met this morning and agreed with the Willamette Valley Company to a friendly suit to settle the validity of the $300,000 issue of bonds, the company agreeing not to throw any hindrances in the way of immediate trial before the tribunals of the state.

The city council met this morning and agreed with the Willamette Valley Company to a friendly suit to settle the validity of the $300,000 issue of bonds, the company agreeing not to throw any hindrances in the way of immediate trial before the tribunals of the state.

The matter will probably come up tomorrow night at the meeting of the council, when the city attorney will be directed to file a complaint against the Willamette Valley Company to force them to take the bonds and turn their plant over to the city.

New Location for City Hall A rumor was prevalent today that the county had ordered the city to remove the city hall from its present location the ground of which belongs to the county.

Mayor Matlock hopes to see a favorable report soon, and the city hall on ground that belongs to the city. He has urged the move for twelve years.
