MOVEMENT AND
ARTS OF SPECIAL
TO OREGON ARE
BY COLONEL HO-ST AND STATE EX-
NS

California and Oregon Central railroad, 4,500,000 acres; Oregon Central Military Road Company, 800,000 acres; Corvallis & Yaquina Bay Was-ton Road Company, 90,000; Williamette Valley and Cascade Mountain Wagon Road Company, 850,000 acres; Coos Bay Wagon Road Company, 115,000 acres; The Dalles Military Road Company, 685,000 acres.
Total, 7,069,000 acres.

These grants are based upon the mileage of the several roads, but are not exact, as some of the lands were lost to the companies on account of overlaps, adverse decisions, etc.

result is that it becomes unprofitable to hold these large tracts of land from settlers who would build homes and improve the land, and take their places in the great army of homebuilders that is making this state the garden spot of the earth.

case. It was not decided by the supreme court, however, because it was involved, but was left open.

That it was overruled, however, by the facts and circumstances of the case, and that the evidence as an entirety was sufficient to show actual knowledge, or what in law was equivalent.
