- - SPORTING NEWS - -

Pitcher Spade continues to win for the Red-leg bunch.

—o—

With Swacina, the former Pittsburger, at first base, the Louisville team looks good for the American association pennant.

—o—

The St. Louis Americans have lost a great deal of ground recently and will have to take a brace if they expect to land even with the Tigers.

—o—

The good showing of the Washington team of late makes it apparent that the New York Highlanders are doomed to stick at the bottom.

—o—

The New York Giants are getting together a lot of youngsters to try out this fall and next spring.

—o—

Manager McGraw showed his rare judgment when he held on to Larry Doyle. Larry has developed into a star in one season.

—o—

Pitcher Louis Durham, of the Indianapolis club has pitched and won four double-headers this season, allowing but four runs in the eight games.

—o—

After all, the team is the thing. Since joining Cleveland Dave Altizer, the ex-senator, has been scorching the lawn with his fast work.

—o—

The Philadelphia Nationals continue to play good ball. It's an excellent bet that the Quakers will make it interesting for the leaders from now on.

—o—

Both the Chicago Cubs and White Sox are having a hard struggle to keep within striking distance. Neither team is playing as strong as it was last season.

—o—

President Ban Johnson, of the American league, is strong for the double umpire system and doubtless he will use two officials in each game next season.

—o—

As a pinch hitter Criss, of the St. Louis Browns, has certainly made good. Criss has been used all season as an extra batter and leads the American league in hitting.

—o—

About four times a week we read "Wagner's hit won the game" or "Wagner's error lost the game." No matter how the game goes the great Dutchman is held responsible.

—o—

Storke is playing nice ball at first base for Pittsburg, and with Leach who is playing Storke's old position at third, the Pirates' infield is working great.

—o—

"Uncle Cy" Young, of the Boston Americans, received a loving cup from the American league players a loving cup and traveling bag from New England fans and $6531.30 on "Cly Young day."

—o—

Ty Cobb, of Detroit, does not strike out very often, but when he does it grates on his nerves to such an extent that he hands the pitcher a roast of some sort. Ty yelped at Cy Morgan in Boston recently, and Cy made for the great Tyrus, but was steered off by his team mates.

—o—

Grantland Rice, the Nashville sporting "screebe," switches from baseball to politics long enough to ask: "On the level, how many married guys are entitled to vote the Independence League ticket?" This full-width swipe may be accounted for in two ways. Grant notices everything in the shape of a league and is married.

FIGHTS AND FIGHTERS

Tommy Murphy is to meet Leach Cross at Jim Buckley's club in New York September 1.

—o—

"Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien and his cousin, Jack Hagan, are giving exhibitions in the Canadian provinces.

—o—

Promoter Coffroth has been granted a permit to hold boxing bouts on the "outskirts" of San Francisco for one more year.

—o—

Jimmy Britt, who is reported to be doing well in England, may be matched to meet Spike Robson in the near future.

—o—

Jim Buckley has arranged to bring together Joe Jeannette and Tony Ross in a bout at his club in New York early next week.

—o—

Charley Rochette of California who retired several years ago, is going into the ring again, and is to box in five-round bouts in Oakland.

—o—

Tommy Burns probably will return to America soon after his bout with Bill Squires next week. It is reported that he has not found the "financial fruits" of his visit to Australia up to his expectations.

—o—

Dick Fitzpatrick, the old-time Chicago welterweight who has been out of commission for a long time, has emulated the example of some of the other veterans by returning to the ring to engage in short bouts.

—o—

Promoter Coffroth of San Francisco got after Owen Moran and Abe Attell, whom he has matched for Labor Day, so hot the other day that both boxers have promised to be good till after the bout.

—o—

The new welterweight championship belt owned by Stanley Ketchel is the first prize waist band to make its appearance in several years. It is hoped that it will not go the way of the famous Sullivan belt.

—o—

While Jack Johnson is talking about fighting Sam Langford keeps busy in the ring. It's no wild-eyed gush to say that Sam, though a middleweight, will some day shine as the star dinge fighter.

—o—

Few fighters come so fast and fall so hard as did Rudolph Unholz. The erstwhile Boer champion bored his way through Battling Nelson and George Mesmic and woke up at the feet of Dick Hyland.

—o—

Willie Lewis says he did not flunk out of his match wil Billy Papke as he is supposed to have done. He declares that his manager called the bout off virtually without his knowledge or consent.

—o—

It begins to look as if Tommy Burns' string of almond fritters or easy money proposition has been cut. Perhaps Tommy will have to fight some one within the next five or six years.

—o—

Mike Donovan, the Rochester welterweight, was obliged to call off his match with Billy Papke. Donovan contracted blood poison in his right arm recently, and the doctors fear that the arm may have to be amputated.

—o—

Joe Gans has selected Frank McDonald to put him in condition for his third bout with Battling Nelson, which is to be the Labor Day attraction at Colma next month.

OREGON DEMOCRATS APPEAL FOR FUNDS

To the Supporters of Bryan and Kern of the State of Oregon:

We are on the eve of a great political battle under the leadership of Bryan and Kern. We expect to achieve a splendid victory for popular government with the best national platform written in the life of political parties. We are confident of victory.

We hope to see every follower of William Jennings Bryan and John Worth Kern in line and ready to do their part for popular government. So let us unite and fight, go in and win.

This is the People's Fight

Remember, it costs money to finance a campaign. Will you help us? We must maintain headquarters, post lithographs, hire halls, engage speakers, distribute literature, swing banners, all of which cost money. Send in your contributions to John Montag, 626 Hood street, Portland, Oregon. Books will be open for inspection before and after election.

PRUNE GROWERS PURCHASE PACKING HOUSE

Salem, Or., Aug. 20.—The Northwest association was found at this place yesterday for the purpose of packing prunes this season. It is a new factor in the Willamette valley prune market. It includes some of the largest growers of this section of the valley. Its members declare it will not join the packers' combine, which was formed here some time ago, and will be the only large packing firm outside the Packers' association. The new Growers' association has purchased the packing plant of Lesselle Bros., at Albany, and will operate it. The plant has a capacity of 150 cars for the season. The capital stock of the new concern is $10,000.

Among the growers who joined in organizing the new concern are L. M. Gilbert of Rosedale, Enos Presnall, of Salem, S. P. Kimball and M. M. Elliss, of Dallas, A. L. West and L. M. Crozier of Rosedale. L. M. Gilbert was elected president, Enos Presnall vice-president and S. A. Lesselle secretary and manager.

Why James Lee Got Well.

Everybody in Zanesville, O., knows Mrs. Mary Lee, of rural route 8. She writes: "My husband, James Lee, firmly believes he owes his life to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery. His lungs were so severely affected that consumption seemed inevitable, when a friend recommended New Discovery. We tried it, and its use has restored him to perfect health." Dr. King's New Discovery is the King of throat and lung remedies. For coughs and colds it has no equal. The first dose gives relief. Try it. Sold under guarantee at Kuykendall's drug store, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
