CITY NEWS

Batter 54 has jumped to 29 cents.

Five cars of logs have come in for the Eugene sawmill.

Hills' Gun Store has received a car load of holiday goods.

One rock was thrown 700 feet from the quarry by a blast yesterday.

J. Atkinson is building a bungalow at the corner of Eleventh and Jefferson streets.

H. A. Cox has sold ten acres of land on the river road to H. H. Jack, of Saffra, Kas.

S. A. D. Pater, of land fraud fame, is in the city in the interests of his famous book.

G. E. Detmering has presented to the city library a set of the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

A chimney sweep is in town. He is the one who comes along at regular intervals--the old man.

A bicycle was found yesterday in a sawdust pile at Midgeley's mill. A hobo had evidently stolen and hidden it.

A slight break of machinery and bother with electric power and gas has made The Guard late in issuing again today.

Ritchey creek, instead of lowering during the last few days, is reported to be gaining a little, probably due to heavy fogs and dew.

Elbert Beebe will preach tomorrow at Junction in the Methodist church South in the morning, and at the Wyatt schoolhouse in the afternoon.

Plank & Johnson have blackberries growing on the side of their building with no apparent connection with the earth. About a score of ripe berries are hanging to the bush.

Driver Caylor, of the fire department, has asked the council for a vacation of three days to go to the States. The request has not yet been granted.

Work was commenced this morning on Raymond Stevenson's new house in Fairmount. It is located on Moss avenue, and will be a two-story modern residence.

A lawn social will be given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church next Wednesday night at the McMurphy residence at the foot of Willamette street. a24

The old Wells-Fargo building will be abandoned tonight for the new structure east of the passenger depot. The old building would have been given up several days ago, but the granite was too heavy for the loads that have to be hauled on the trucks.

G. W. Taylor has returned from Portland. His mother, Mrs. A. Benson, was recently assaulted in her home by a drunken brute and terribly beaten. She is recovering slowly. Mr. Taylor also has the contracts for digging the wells at Dallas for the Willamette Valley Company. The wells will be five hundred feet deep and will not be completed until some time in the autumn.

A very pleasant surprise was given Alfred Dillard at his pretty home on the corner of Ninth and Patterson streets Monday evening by the Eugene Military Band, of which Mr. Dillard is a member. After the band had played an engagement down town and Mr. Dillard had returned home, the boys slipped up to his house and were playing at the front porch before he knew it. The surprise was complete, but he recovered from the shock in time to finish playing the piece with them. A most enjoyable evening was spent in music and conversation, and at a late hour a dainty luncheon was served.
