

S.S.S. THE CURE FOR SCROFULA

Swollen glands about the neck, weak eyes, pale, waxy complexions, running sores and ulcers, skin diseases, and general poor health, are the usual ways in which Scrofula is manifested. The disease being deeply entrenched in the blood often attacks the bones, resulting in White Swelling, or hip disease, and the scrofulous and tubercular matter so thoroughly destroys the healthful properties of the blood that Scrofula sometimes terminates in consumption, an incurable disease. The entire circulation being contaminated, the only way to cure the trouble is to thoroughly purify the blood and restore the circulation to a strong, healthy state. S. S. S. is the very best treatment for Scrofula; it renovates the entire blood supply and drives out the scrofulous and tubercular deposits. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and it not only goes right down to the very bottom of the trouble and removes the cause, but it supplies the weak, diseased blood with the healthful properties it is in need of, and in this way builds up weak, frail, scrofulous persons and makes them strong and healthy. S. S. S. is a gentle, safe, vegetable preparation and is suited for persons of any age. Book on the blood containing information about Scrofula and any medical advice free.

AD MEN TO DEMAND A NEW LAW

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 26.—"Honest Advertising" is the keynote of the annual convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America, which began in this city today. The convention will vote upon a resolution which provides an amendment to the Aulsebrook bill, introduced last winter in congress. The bill provides penalties for any advertiser misrepresenting goods in any detail. The amendment sought would be to force every publisher in the United States who runs advertising in his periodical to publish daily on the editorial page a sworn statement of the circulation of the paper, if it is circulated through the mails.

An effort to secure a law through which the power of the Postmaster General in issuing "fraud orders" against publications may be curtailed is to be made at the convention. Delegates from the Cincinnati Advertising Club will ask the convention to resolve "That the before-mentioned power, now reposed in the Postmaster General, should be taken from him and vested in the federal courts, and that the law conferring the power on the courts be so framed as to require that neither the use of the mails nor the second-class mail privileges shall be taken away until a hearing shall have been accorded the person affected."

Numerous prominent speakers are to be heard during the three days the convention will be in session. Among the number are Charles W. Knapp, of St. Louis, Arthur Brisbane of New York, C. W. Post of Battle Creek, Truman A. DuVee of Buffalo, R. J. Gunning of Chicago, S. S. McClure, the magazine publisher, A. W. Lawbe, third assistant postmaster general, and John W. Barrett, director of the International Bureau of American Republics.

PORTLAND SHRINERS EXPECT MUCH HERE

From present indications the pilgrimage of Al Kader Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, to the Oasis of Eugene, will be a great trip, says the Oregonian. Eugene is a dry town, so a baggage car will be added to the equipment of the special train which will leave Portland at 8:30 o'clock the morning of Saturday, September 5. The pilgrims will arrive at their destination about 11 o'clock and will at once repair to the Armory, where a luncheon will be served. In the afternoon the nobles will parade through the principal streets, escorted by the Arab patrol. Captain Davis commanding. The patrol has a few new stunts for this trip. In the afternoon a business session will be held, and in the evening the candidates, about 50 in number, will be escorted toward the East with due ceremony. If the desert sands are not hot enough to suit everybody they will be steamed up with electrical equipment which has been specially ordered by John Annand.

After the ceremonial session the nobles will be entertained at a banquet, an at 2 o'clock in the morning the special will head for home. Al Kader Temple never has any money in the treasury, and following the true Arabic faith, it must not bring any sponduliks home. The temple will be joined on this trip by nobles from all neighboring cities and towns. Mr. Annand is in charge of the arrangements.

FIGHT WITH PITCH-FORKS OVER A GIRL

Halsey, Or., Aug. 24.—Two harvest hands of the Brock, Jackson & Co. crew quarreled over a girl while in the field at work. They are both sons of farmers living near Halsey. Harry Leeper, after making what he supposed to be a final retort, turned around, when Ingram felled him to the ground, with a pitchfork and then stabbed him in the chest and hand several times before other men interfered. Leeper, while badly hurt, will recover, unless blood poison sets in. Ingram has not been arrested.

JEALOUS NOBLE'S CRUEL REVENGE ON HIS WIFE

Lisbon, Aug. 26.—The Lisbon newspapers are full of a sensational scandal which has just been disclosed and which involves one of the oldest and most prominent families of Portugal. Two or three years ago a noted society beauty, daughter of a rich banker, married Count Marcalho, who belongs to the old nobility of Portugal, and held the post of lord-in-waiting to the king.

For about a year the two lived happily together, but last September the Countess and her child, aged five months, suddenly disappeared and nothing was seen or heard of them. When questioned the Count always returned an evasive answer. Eventually so many rumors became current that the police took the matter in hand. It was impossible that the matter could be kept quiet, as the parties were so well known, having frequently entertained King Carlos and Queen Amelia at their beautiful seat in the Alemeto. In addition, the Count was well known for his jealous disposition, and fears were entertained for the safety of the Countess.

Finally the police determined to break into the house. There, after a long search, they discovered the Countess and her child, imprisoned in a small garret. Brought down stairs, it was discovered she had changed into a broken down old woman. Her once beautiful features were emaciated and worn, and her hair had turned completely white. The servants, when questioned, confessed that the woman had been kept a close prisoner for eleven months. The Countess herself has been able to give no explanation of the cruel treatment of her husband, and it is feared that her mind is completely gone. The doctors hold out very little hope of her recovery, but expect the child will live.

The Count's defense is that his wife allowed a naval officer to pay too great attention to her. King Manuel, who was to have paid a visit to the Count, as soon as the court went out of mourning, has notified him that the visit will not take place, and also that he is deprived of his court appointments and emoluments. It is also probable that the Count will be prosecuted criminally for his inhuman cruelty.

CELEBRATES HIS NINTIETH BIRTHDAY

All of his children, six daughters and one son, and many grand and great grand children were present. Mr. Markee was born August 16, 1818, near Columbus, Ohio, and in 1864 crossed the plains by ox team, locating at Cedar Mills, where he engaged in farming, and lived in Washington county ever since.
