There was a dramatic scene in St. Louis when a 20-year-old girl laid a baby on the altar at a revival in charge of Rev. John Hutchinson and remarked: "Here is your little burden of sin," and then fled. He admitmitted his guilt, but declared the woman tempted him. Down on such hypocrites.

AUGUSTA RECOVERING FROM WORST FLOOD IN ITS HISTORY

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 27.—Augusta is today rapidly recovering from the worst flood in its history, the water in the streets this afternoon having fallen so that the sidewalks are practically clear. Considering the fact that eight feet of water ran through the main business and residence districts, telephone and telegraph communication cut off and no trains within a mile of Augusta for forty-eight hours, it is remarkable that there has not been greater financial damage and loss of life.

The Associated Press established headquarters eight miles from the city while the water was pouring through the streets, preventing the publication of newspapers.

At noon dispatches from Augusta state that the water is falling at the rate of an inch an hour and all danger is past. So far as known three persons were drowned, though reports of numberous boats capsizing have been received, but not verified.

Two fires occurred in the flooded district, destroying two warehouses.

Cabmen and those who possessed boats quickly seized the opportunity to charge exorbitant prices for moving unfortunates caught in perilous positions.

There were three deaths in Augusta yesterday, two white people and one negro. No names could be secured.

The damage, it is estimated, will reach $500,000.

At 8:30 last night it was learned through the single wire of the Georgia Railroad Company, working partially into Augusta, that the large cotton warehouse and the wholesale grocery warehouses of the Nixon Company were burning.

The Union depot is under ten feet of water and in the best residence district the water stands six feet deep and is slowly rising.

The Sacred Heart church is in six feet of water.

The report of the fires in the Nixon warehouses cannot be confirmed. A telegraph operator said he could not get near enough on account of water, but that the fires were burning in the vicinity of the big warehouses.

Reported Dozen Deaths

It is reporter that there were a dozen deaths from drowning during the night, but only one has been confirmed up to 2 o'clock today.

MELBOURNE AWAITS THE BIG FLEET

AUSTRALIAN CITY EXPECTING ARRIVAL OF UNCLE SAM'S SHIPS WITH FEVERISH INTEREST—STRAGGLERS LEFT BEHIND AT SYDNEY BUT WILL REJOIN SHIPS AT MELBOURNE

Melbourne, Aug. 27.—Melbourne is awaiting with feverish interest the arrival of the American battleship fleet. The fleet is expected to enter Port Phillips head early Saturday morning, and it will be met down the bay by ministers, members of parliament and a reception committee of prominent citizens.

For ten days a small army of workmen have been engaged in decorating the principal buildings of the city and preparing for a gorgeous illumination of the leading streets and public squares. The decorations of the government buildings are especially elaborate. Everywhere are intertwined flags of the United States and England, and pictures of King Edward, President Roosevelt and Admiral Sperry are conspicuous features of the adornments.

The arrangements for the entertainment of the officers and men of the fleet are practically complete. The week's program will comprise a dinner to the fleet's senior officers by the governor, Carmichael, a dinner at Parliament House by the commonwealth government, and a reception to the officers by the state department. There will be 7000 guests at the last-named function, which will be held in the mammoth Exhibition building. At the noted Flemington race course a special meet will be held and will carry such events as the Stars and Stripes handicap, the Roosevelt handicap, etc., in honor of the visitors. The men of the fleet will be taken to Ballarat, the golden city, where the miners are preparing a unique demonstration.

Other features of the program of entertainment will include military and naval reviews, processions, luncheons in honor of the officers, theatre parties and athletic sports for the sailors, and a number of railway excursions and motor car trips for both officers and men.

Sydney, Aug. 27.—Before the departure of the fleet at 8 o'clock today for Melbourne, Admiral Sperry sent a letter to Premier Wade, of New South Wales, thanking him for the cordial reception and magnificent hospitality shown the officers and men of the fleet, and saying the welcome would draw into closer friendship the United States and the Australian commonwealth. After the vessels had cleared it was found that 50 stragglers had failed to join their ships. Fifty of these have embarked on the Yarraton and will rejoin their ships at Melbourne.

ITALIAN WORKMAN AFTER PRESIDENT

New York, Aug. 27.—President Roosevelt and party arrived at Hoboken early today, where they boarded the yacht Sylph and at once started for Oyster Bay. While the president was walking through the transfer, an Italian workman attempted to accost the party, but was interrupted by a policeman. He declared he wanted to speak to the president, but abandoned the attempt and disappeared in the crowd.

LANE, IDAHO, HAS DESTRUCTIVE CONFLAGRATION

At 11 o'clock this morning it is believed the fire has been checked and the danger is over. The damage is estimated at $100,000, fully insured. The Lane Lumber Company is the heaviest loser.

TWENTY-NINE BODIES REMOVED FROM MINE

McAlester, Okla., Aug. 27.—When the rescuers completed the work at the Haley coal mine 29 bodies had been removed. It is believed the last man has been accounted for. When the mine was cleared of smoke 19 dead miners were found huddled together with five mules a mile from the opening entrance. They had started toward the fire instead of making a detour.
