by the attendants for conveying the body to the morgue, when the house surgeon happened to pass through the ward and the nurse informed him of the death of his patient. After a few moments the doctor resolved to try an experiment for resuscitation and accordingly injected one tenth of a grain of strychnia in his veins, enough to kill four men. Then he began the work of artificial respiration, moving the arms up and down and chafing the sides, and was gratified a few moments later to notice a slight return of the pulse and then a faint flush to the cheeks—the man had literally returned from the dead and while he only lived for another twelve hours, the bringing to life of a man that was to all intents and purposes dead is gratifying and goes to prove that there is yet a limit to be established in the science of medicine.

Quite a number of men seem obsessed with the idea that the votes of a class, a profession, or a church can be delivered in bulk. A Cincinnati doctor is the latest to step into the limelight with the claim that the doctors are all for Taft. Inasmuch as such a stunt has never been pulled off, we are among those who will have to be shown.

Railroad managers are supposed to be very shrewd men, but they are not showing their wisdom in forcing the freight rate issue to the front at this time, notwithstanding their attempt to couple it with the question of providing work for unemployed men.

And now a writer is daring enough to assert that nature is a bigger faker than any man has ever been, and cites instances to prove it. If this sort of thig keeps up, it may be necessary to lay aside the study of African hunting for a time and take up the big stick.

John D. Rockefeller ought to and probably does thank those Ohio brewers who are abusing him for contributing to the Anti-Saloon League, even if they do charge that league members of the legislature are owned by the Standard Oil.

All we have to say of this story alleging that lightning photographed a woman on the skin of a man's back is that if he is married and the picture doesn't look like his wife, he's got a job of explaining that will never be finished.

In asking for their coin, Mr. Bryan showed that he was not afraid to put his popularity with farmers to a severe test, and if he gets it he'll have a double satisfaction—the money and the laugh on those who said he wouldn't.

Why announce that the Philippines will become independent as soon as they are "ripe for self-government," when it is obvious that a country "ripe for self-government" always gets it, even if it has to take it by force?

Tom Watson needs the advertising in his business, and what is more important—to him—he's getting it right along. This is only a little one, but you are welcome to it, Tommy, and "every litle bit helps," you know.

An epidemic of race trouble seems to be sweeping over a large area. In a single newspaper serious trouble of the kind was reported from New York, New Jersey, Illinois, Indiana, Arkansas and Oklahoma.

Hon. Carroll D. Wright says: "It is the easiest thing in the world to arraign society." Wrong, Mr. Wright; it is much easier for society to do fool things to be arraigned for.

This news note that says an English nobleman arrived in New York as a steerage passenger is, we take it, merely a sly way of advertising a title for sale at bargain prices.

This menagerie man who claims to have a method of making wild animals harmless is making a noise like trying to get a piece of that African hunting money.

If "rest is a beautifier," we pronounce that the reverse also holds good, and that accounts for the ugliness of the men who lead the strenuous life.

Instead of sneering at "Oklahoma nerve," some of the citizens of older states would better be trying to ascertain how to acquire some of it.

AMUSEMENTS

Dainty Grace Cameron will be the welcome attraction at the Eugene theatre on August 27 and 28 in C. Herbert Kerr's great musical success, "Little Dollie Dimples." The play was written especially to exploit the versatile talents of the charming actress and she is seen to better advantage in it than in any of her former successes, not excepting "Piff, Paff Pouf," the play in which she appeared at the New York Casino for two seasons. The manager of the company has surrounded Miss Cameron with a brilliant company of forty people, mony of whom are well known to the theatregoers of this city. Mr. Kerr has written some very catchy songs for Miss Cameron, the most conspicuous success being "Goodbye Dear Old Home," "I'm So Very Shy" and "In Days Gone By."

of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

Fat All My Life and How I Got Rid of It

First a captivating plumpness begins to steal upon a woman in her twenties. Plumpness is followed by—oh, horrors—fatness. Then, alas, comes the chin that is double and the comical lumbering waddle of the over fat. Fine sarcasm to tell such a woman to exercise. Why not counsel flying? She is as able to do the one as the other. It's another keen cut to suggest dieting. When ladies are just so fat they haven't an ounce of will power or energy to spare for extras—just living is hard enough work for them.

What then? Are these unfortunates condemned to be fat for life? No, believe it or not; a simple home remedy, easy to get at a drug store, will take that fat off and keep it off. Listen: ½ ounce Marmola, ½ ounce Fluid Extract of Cascara Aromatic and 3½ ounces Syrup Simplex mixed at home and taken in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime will take off as much as a pound a day in some cases. Get the Marmola in sealed packages—you are sure it is fresh in that way—take the mixture a month and you'll see. The fat seems to drop off and leave nice, smooth, firm flesh, while the health and complexion improve wonderfully.

Advertisements, Like Clocks, Should Keep Running

A store's advertisements tell the people what is "doing" at that store—what is new, what is inviting, why today is a good time to visit the store. People look for the ads to tell them these things just as naturally as they would look at a clock to tell the time.

Sometimes a clock does not run—sometimes a store's ad does not run. A "run-down" clock or ad are about equally unsatisfactory, unserviceable, misleading.

Curious thing about it is that a merchant who would think it absurd to have a run-down" or out-of-repair clock will, sometimes, deliberately let his ad stop running. It's not wise, nor good business, nor defensible on any known grounds—but it is sometimes done.
