FATHER'S NAMESAKE ON ELECTORAL TICKET
Oakland, Aug. 28.—The Republican state convention completed its work of nominating presidential electors and adjourned today. U. S. Grant, Jr., of San Diego, and Samuel M. Shortridge, of San Francisco, were selected as electors at large.

ANNUAL BABY SHOW AT ASBURY PARK
Asbury Park, N. J., Aug. 28.—This was the day of the annual baby parade, the day when visitors come from far and near to enjoy a gorgeous pageant of life and color that has been an established institution in connection with the summer festivities at this noted resort. This year the spectacle of marching infancy afforded several new and extremely novel features.

The parade was composed of ten divisions. More than five hundred children between the ages of three months and fifteen years were to be seen in the divisions allotted to doll coaches, go-carts, baby carriages, express wagons, bicycles, floats, costume and fancy dress, burlesque, college colors and pony carts. Each division was headed by a company of boys in Rough Rider costume.

Formed in the Arcade, the parade passed down Ocean avenue, which was carpeted for an entire mile, and counter-marched to the Court of Honor, where Queen Titania sat on her throne surrounded by her maids, ladies in waiting, pages and others of the royal household. The court was located in the open air amphitheatre seating 15,000 persons. The crowd that lined Ocean avenue to witness the pageant was estimated at not less than 200,000.

ROBERTS AFFAIR STILL SHROUDED IN MYSTERY

Atlantic City, Aug. 28.—Though Charles B. Roberts, financier and clubman of Baltimore, the victim of the mysterious shooting of Wednesday night, is still in a critical condition, strong hopes are entertained that he will recover. He has sufficiently revived to tell the police something of the man who shot him. Mrs. Williams, who was in a rolling chair with Roberts at the time of the shooting, emphatically denies the man might have been her husband.

Husband Is Surprised
Baltimore, Aug. 28.—The attempt on the life of Charles B. Roberts, of this city, created a tremendous sensation in Baltimore society. The report that Mrs. Williams, also of this city, was in a rolling chair with Roberts, added interest to the case. For a number of years the two families have been on intimate terms, the husband of Mrs. Williams having just returned from a trip to Europe. He expressed surprise when told that the woman with Roberts was his wife, saying when he had last heard from her she was in Boston.

E. H. HARRIMAN WILL PAY VISIT TO EUGENE SOON

GREAT RAILROAD MAGNATE ACCEPTS COMMERCIAL CLUB'S INVITATION TO STOP

WIRES MANAGER HARTOG THAT HE WILL BE HERE, BUT DATE IS NOT DEFINITELY FIXED—OFFICERS AND BOARD OF GOVERNORS MEET TO ARRANGE RECEPTION

E. H. Harriman, the great railroad magnate, who is now taking his annual outing at Pelican Bay, on Klamath Lake, Oregon, will visit Eugene in the near future. Such was the information contained in a dispatch from him to John H. Hartog, manager of the Eugene Commercial Club, received this morning.

A meeting of the president, vice president and treasurer of the club and the entire board of managers has been called to be held at the club rooms this evening at 5 o'clock to start arrangements for entertaining the distinguished visitor while here. It goes without saying that his reception in Eugene will exceed any reception given him anywhere in the state. This city is noted for its originality and completeness in this line, and it is certain that his reputation will not suffer in this instance.

The exact date of the visit of Mr. Harriman is not fixed, but it will be soon, as he is due to start from Pelican Bay within a few days. Eugene was the first city in the state to extend to the "Wizard of Wall street" an invitation to stop on his way through the state. It has been noticed that since the invitation went out from here that the Salem, Albany and Portland clubs have followed suit. Mr. Harriman will probably stop at each of the places named.

MANY LIVES LOST IN COLORADO FLOOD

Trinidad, Colo., Aug. 28.—The heaviest rain ever known here, covering a wide scope of country, fell last night and in consequence the town is practically cut off from communication by railroad, and the railroads are heavy sufferers from track washouts. The streets of Trinidad are flooded and the foundations of a few buildings are weakened.

A flood on the Cimarron river followed a cloudburst which washed away a number of dwellings at Folsom, N. M., last night, and fifteen are reported drowned. Already twelve bodies have been recovered. Two miles of track and twelve bridges of the Colorado Southern Railroad have been washed out.

One undertaking firm has received in order for six coffins from Folsom, a hundred miles south of here. Dan B. Wenger and two children are reported drowned there, and it is reported that the town is badly damaged by the flood, but details are lacking.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE AND PROPERTY

Atlanta, Aug. 28.—A call for assistance, due to a loss of $1,500,000 in Augusta alone, and $1,000,000 in other cities of South Carolina and parts of Georgia, and fourteen lives lost in Augusta summarize the flood conditions of the South today. There the many rumors of others killed, and in South Carolina the loss of life may reach 20.

North Carolina will probably have a dozen fatalities.

Great Loss in Augusta

Augusta, Aug. 28.—The flood apparently damaged the foundations of a great many buildings in the lower part of the city. Today the central grammar school collapsed and the walls of the National Biscuit Company have fallen, as well as the underpinning of the Port Royal bridge, which was washed away.

WHERE CASH BEATS CREDIT

FAMOUS RUSSIAN AUTHOR IS EIGHTY YEARS OLD

St. Petersburg, Aug. 28.—Notwithstanding the browns of the government officials, the protests of the reactionary bureaucratic element and the prevalence of a cholera epidemic in the Tula province, where Count Leo Tolstoy lives, all Russians belonging to the educated and progressive class are today joined in celebrating the eightieth birthday of the great "Apocalypse of Liberty." It is true some of the features of the proposed constitution were reluctantly accepted, but the greater part of the program was carried out with energy and vigor.

The most popular character of Tolstoy's most important admires to his home in Tula had to be abandoned, as it was not considered safe to permit thousands to congregate in a district where several hundred persons have died from cholera during the past week. The pilgrims had intended to march to Tula on foot and live the "simple life" on the way, and upon reaching Tula proposed to form a big camp near Tolstoy's home, to exemplify the Utopian theories of simplicity and close communion with nature, as advanced by the great "Beard."

The national committee in charge of the information celebration included nearly every writer, artist and public figure of the day.
