Man Separated From His Wife

Who Is Responsible?

We refer to a man who lives here and keeps his family in Portland because he cannot find house for them in Eugene. This is bad for him and bad for Eugene.

The real estate men tell us they cannot supply half the demand for houses.

We will furnish the Lumber, Lath and Shingles if some one will get busy and build a few more houses to rent.

SPRINGFIELD NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST

Two young men working for the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company were arrested by Marshal Shaban last Friday night for riding their horses faster than a six-mile gait through Main street. They were caused to appear before the mayor in the absence of the recorder, who assessed them the minimum fine of $1 on the promise that they would be good in the future. The boys were only enjoying a little wild west sport and perhaps did not consider the danger to pedestrians and small children by their fast riding. However, the marshal did his duty in enforcing the ordinance, and this will probably be a lesson to others.

The wheels and running gears for a new hook and ladder cart for the fire company have arrived and are now at the blacksmith shop, Luther & Son having taken the contract to build the cart. The new ladders have also arrived and add greatly to the equipment of the department.

S. W. Upton, who has been yard foreman at the Booth-Kelly mill for the past three years, handed in his resignation to the company last Monday, which took effect Wednesday. He expects to leave Springfield as soon as he can dispose of his property.

John Thomsett, from Spokane, the new superintendent at the Booth-Kelly mill, who succeeds G. O. Bassett, has arrived and took charge of the mill Monday. He has a wife and four children, but will not move his family to Springfield for possibly two months.

Professor and Mrs. Baughman returned last Friday evening from their trip to California, where they went some time ago in response to a message announcing the serious illness of Mrs. Baughman's sister. The professor reports that at the time of their departure she was slowly convalescing.

Dr. J. Rudolph Barr, successor to Dr. R. A. Jayne, has rented office rooms in the I. O. O. F. building, where he will move in the near future.—News.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON EXPECTS SPLENDID YEAR

The work of the University of Oregon during the coming year will be the strongest in the history of the institution, due to the fact that the working tools of the University, books, apparatus, etc., have been much bettered during the summer. The library has been greatly strengthened by the addition of $10,000 worth of new books and much apparatus has been ordered for all departments. The biological laboratory has been almost completely remodeled, and many improvements have been made in the physics laboratory. Many of the buildings have been renovated and the new library building, which was wholly without lights, is being completely equipped with electric lights and new furniture. Hereafter the general reading rooms and the stack rooms will be kept open until 9 o'clock in the evening.

A number of new instructors have been added, notably a professor of geology, a chair that has been vacant since the death of Professor Condon, a professor of political science, and an assistant professor of psychology, a new head librarian and a number of instructors in department that have been badly crowded.

Work on a new recitation building to relieve the over-crowded condition of the other buildings is being pushed, and it is hoped to have it ready for use soon after the opening session. The girls' dormitory has been completed and furnished. A number of new student clubhouses have been erected during the summer. The work of improving the campus is being pushed as rapidly as possible.

The number of students will probably be from a third to a half greater than that of last year, which was the record attendance for the University.

seems to be Mrs. Genevieve Longfield, of Illinois, who for many years has been one of the most prominent members of the order. With the Daughters of Veterans it has been the custom to advance the national senior vice president to the presidency, but Mrs. Nettie Fox, of Ohio, who holds that office, died recently, and it is expected that the junior vice president, Miss Clara Hoover, of Chicago, will be made the new national president.

The big event of the encampment week will be the parade of the Grand Army men on Wednesday. It is expected that some twenty thousand veterans will be in line. Out of consideration for the age of the marchers the route of the parade will be but little over a mile long. Occupying seats on the reviewing stand will be the governors of four or five states and a number of other notables.

On Tuesday evening the mammoth campfire of the Grand Army will be held in the Valentine theatre. Governor Harris, of Ohio, Mayor Whitlock of Toledo, Department Commander Shearer, of the Ohio G. A. R., and J. Kent Hamilton, chairman of the executive committee, will extend greetings, and the invocation will be by Bishop Fallows, chaplain-in-chief. Judge Charles G. Burton, of Missouri, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., will respond, after which Mrs. Kate E. Jones, of Ilion, N. Y., national president of the W. R. C., will extend greetings for the order. One of the impressive features of the campfire will be the flag presentation to the Army Nurses. The demonstration when these heroic women are presented to the old veterans it is expected will be unparalleled.

Other features of the encampment will be the unveiling of the Meigs monument at Petersburg, the excursions to Sandusky, Cedar Point, Put-in-Bay and other points of interest along Lake Erie. The dedication of the Meigs monument, marking the place where General William Henry Harrison defeated Proctor, the British General, and Tecumseh, his Indian ally, in 1813, will be attended by the governors of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky and Virginia.

Much interest centres in the choice of the new commander-in-chief of the G. A. R. For this office there are already several prominent candidates, among them Judge Henry N. Nevins of New Jersey, former Governor S. R. Van Sant, of Minnesota, and former Attorney-General W. A. Ketchum, of Indiana.

OTHER NATIONS WILL SUPPORT ANTI-CASTRO MOVE

Paris, Aug. 29.—The Netherlands government has asked France to co-operate with her in the present difficulties with Venezuela. France is considering the matter.

London, Aug. 29.—A foreign office official stated today that it was not unlikely that Great Britain would assist Holland in her dispute with Venezuela. He said Great Britain is in the same position as the United States and has many grievances against Castro, but is reluctant to take action. However, England feels that she can support Holland without being accused of bullying a little state.

TOLEDO IS READY FOR GRIZZLED VETERANS

For many years the W. R. C. has taken care of it, but the organization feels now that the large sum of money required could be expended more wisely for the care of old soldiers, and they will ask the government to take over the property. For national president of the Woman's Relief Corps the candidates this year include Mrs. Mary Gillman, of Boston; Mrs. Davis, of California; Mrs. Belle Harris, of Kansas; and Mrs. Jennie Berry, of Iowa.
