SOMMERVILLE MAY HAVE BEEN FOULLY DEALT WITH

NEPHEW RETURNS FROM LOS ANGELES WHERE HE FINDS SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES—TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS NOT ACCOUNTED FOR AND IS MISSING

(Special Correspondence.)

Harrisburg, Sept. 1.—T. W. Sommerville, nephew of the late Mac Sommerville, who went to Los Angeles to look after his uncle's business in that city, has returned. His report seems to be of a very grave character. He says that a large block of the estate is missing. There is, he says, $10,000, the disbursement of which is not accounted for on the books of the business; also the circumstances of his sickness and death are of a nature to arouse suspicion. The man employed to attend his case had no license or standing as a physician, but when the case was beyond medical relief a regular doctor was called. In the meantime a second cousin of the deceased called to visit Mr. Sommerville and was not informed of his sickness, nor allowed to go to his room. He was told that Mr. Sommerville was taking his afternoon nap and had left special orders that he must not be disturbed under any pretext. Taking these suspicious circumstances and the missing money into consideration, Mr. Sommerville is deeply impressed with the idea that his uncle has been foully dealt with. In the meantime he has placed the affair in the most expert hands to be found, and will follow it up, without respect to cost, until the facts in the case are laid bare.

GUARD'S FINE PREMIUM MAPS HAVE ARRIVED

The Guard has received by express samples of its fine premium wall charts, consisting of the latest map of Oregon, of the United States and foreign countries. These charts are nicely mounted, lithographed on heavy varnished paper, and contain as much valuable information as an ordinary atlas.

All subscribers of the Daily Guard, served by carrier, who pay $2.50 for six months in advance, get one of these map-charts free.

All mail subscribers of the Daily Guard who pay $3.00 (special offer), for one year in advance, are entitled to the premium as well as Weekly Guard subscribers who pay a year in advance.

Call and see them.

AMUSEMENTS

The visits of Richard J. Jose, the celebrated contra-tenor, have been likened by many of his admirers to angel's visits—few and far between—not that "Dick" particularly resembles an angel, nor that he has wings, but no angel could be more welcome than the popular tenor, whether he comes in opera, in vaudeville, or in minstrelsy. It is "Dick" Jose they want to see, and "Dick" Jose's sweet tenor voice they want to listen to.

He comes this time at the head of the Richard J. Jose Company—a host in himself—with new selections including the beautiful song, "Too Late," written especially for Mme. Melba, and sung by Jose for the first time by any one save Melba herself.

Another vocal gem to be sung by the tenor is "Time and Tide," and still another is "Rose of My Life."

Never has Jose been in such perfect voice as he is at present, and never has he been accorded a more enthusiastic welcome than in his present tour, accompanied by a company of note and reputation and giving a program of rare excellence and choice selections, and the present engagement marks an epoch in the advent of musicdom which all should take advantage of.

The tour thus far has proven one of the crowning successes of Jose's career before the public and the demand for seats has everywhere been very brisk.

MEDFORD REJECTS STREET RAILWAY FRANCHISE

Medford, Aug. 31.—For the second time within the year Medford citizens today at the polls turned down the proposition to grant a street railway franchise by a vote of 99 to 216. But little electioneering was done and the conflicting election slogans were: "Grant a 50-year franchise and have one mile of road in operation within a year" and "A city franchise will cut out immediate chances for an interurban line."

Rapidly increasing population and the volume of business within a radius of 20 miles from Medford indicate that the day will soon come when a line must encircle the valley, and the amount of business in Medford alone will justify the building of such a line, but for the time being, at least, the majority saw fit to vote according to today's showing.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup does not constipate like most of the old-fashioned cough cures, but on the other hand it gently moves the bowels and at the same time heals the irritation and allays inflammation of the throat. Sold by all druggists.

A Paying Investment

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland avenue, Houlton, Me., says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50-cent bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. Before that was half gone the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.
