...d but in our own ...t get busy on railroad matters. Possibly they are already at work—for such things are best done quietly, but if not, a big opportunity is being overlooked. We want the Oregon Eastern extended from Natron over the mountains, the Carver road from Corvallis, and electric lines to the northward, as well as down the Siuslaw. The future cities of Oregon depend largely upon the location of railroads that will be constructed during the next five years.

Why couldn't this entire controversy over the quantity and quality of Richey Creek water be settled by the appointment of a joint committee, selected by the city council and commercial club, who could be entrusted with the duty of making a thorough examination? The city or commercial club could well afford to pay the expense of such a proceeding in order to place the exact facts before the people upon a question so vitally affecting the welfare of the entire community.

One of the wise newspaper men of the country is responsible for the statement that John Chinaman cares nothing as to who writes the laws of the land, just so he is permitted to write the laundry checks. From the present outlook John Chinaman is not progressing very rapidly along this line, but the task of writing the laundry checks is being taken from him by his little brown brother, the industrious Japanese.

As a proof of the faith some people have in psychic power, it may be related that a medium has set a lot of believers to work trying to extract gold from the granite hills of New Hampshire. There is one thing that is as certain as death and taxes and that is that you can never find gold in a granite formation. Ask any old prospector about it.

There is a man down in Virginia who demands that the legislature enact a law making infidelity on the part of the wife a capital offense. Well, that might help some but in order to even things up a bit it would be about the right thing to include the men along with the women. They are not altogether free from vice themselves

A Pittsburg man boasts that it cost him $100,000 to get his wife. All of which may be true. It cost another Pittsburg man a much greater sum, not to get his wife, but all on account of his wife, and he is still in jail on a charge of insanity. Those Pittsburgers must be a strenuous lot of fellows.

Few persons would care to pay $1,000 for a fox terrier, one that is the amount a Washington woman is asking a railroad company to pay, for letting hers get lost from a baggage car, in which she was compelled under protest to place it.

Wonder if Senator LaFollette had anything to do with the "joker" in the emergency currency law, which is said to confer authority on the government to value all railroads? It's one of his hobbies, you know.

This news item about Fairbanks being a farmer must have been written before the Chicago convention and mislaid. He isn't a candidate for anything now, and it's too soon to begin advertising for 1912

This advice about meeting everybody with a smile may be all right, but if the smile is too expansive it's apt to be taken for advance notice of an attempted "touch," and to be met by a frown.

While hoping that they'll be happy, the chances are against any such results for the participants in a double marriage pulled off by New Jersey rattlebrains of from 15 to 21 just for "fun."

One of the significant, and disgusting, signs of the times is that as soon as a man of means commits a murder his family and friends begin to express fears for his sanity.

Hopefulness is always a specialty at political headquarters—in fact, it is largely for the propogation and dissemination of hopefulness that headquarters are maintained.

It seems hard to square the number of "fresh" youngsters hereabouts with the fact that this country produced nearly 30,000,000 barrels of salt last year.

As the Indianapolis Times sees it, publishers are more likely to get relief from the exactions of the paper trust from science than from congress.

"He's the same Bryan," shouts Nick Longworth in a near-speech. Well, Nick, old chappy, he isn't claiming to be any other Bryan, is he?

Judge Taft is industriously fishing in the Sunny South—and we should not be surprised if he caught a good many votes among the Bourbons.

Captain Congressman Hobson says prayer won our great naval victory over the Spanish, but continues to demand a bigger navy to fight Japan.

Politics and Politicians

Following his present visit to the Northwest, William J. Bryan will take a flying trip through a portion of the South, speaking at several points in Tennessee and Georgia.

W. H. Andrews, commonly known as "Bull" Andrews, has been nominated for re-election to congress by the Republicans of New Mexico.

A meeting of the national committee of the Democratic party and of all sub-committees will be held in Chicago next week, at which final plans for the presidential campaign will be adopted.

The Massachusetts League of Republican clubs, having for its purpose the success of the national and state candidates in the coming election, has been organized with John Hays Hammond as president.

Mayor James C. Dahlman, of Omaha, who is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor of Nebraska, has announced his opposition to "county option," and declares himself in favor of a law providing for a guarantee to bank depositors.

Thomas S. Tibbles, who was the vice presidential candidate of the People's party four years ago, when Tom Watson, of Georgia, was the nominee for president, has issued a statement appealing to his supporters of 1904 to vote for Bryan and Kern in the coming election.

In Georgia the electors have to get a majority and the state is said to be so split by Watson, by the Independence League and by the Prohibitionists that some persons are inclined to the belief that the Bryan electors may get a plurality, but fail of a majority.

THIS IS MY 59TH BIRTHDAY

Bishop Galloway

Bishop Charles Betts Galloway, of the Methodist Episcopal church South, was born September 1, 1849, at Kosciusco, Miss. His early education was received in the schools of his native town and in Canton, Miss., and completed at the University of Mississippi, from which institution he was graduated in 1868. He was licensed to preach the following year, and became a member of the Mississippi conference. During his early career he occupied the pulpits of a number of churches in Mississippi. He was in Vicksburg during the yellow fever epidemic of 1878. From 1882 to 1886 he was editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate. In 1886 he was elected bishop. Bishop Galloway is the author of a number of books on religious subjects, and is noted as one of the foremost pulpit orators and one of the most erudite members of the Methodist ministry. He was honored with the appointment of fraternal messenger to the general conference of the Methodists of canada, and in his official capacity he twice visited Brazil and Mexico, and Japan and China three times each, to promote the cause of Methodism in these countries.

PORTLAND SHRINERS ABOUT READY TO COME TO EUGENE

Preparations for a pilgrimage of Al Kader Temple to Eugene on next Saturday, September 5, are about completed. It will require about five or six cars and one or two baggage cars to carry the Mystic Shriners and their necessary belongings to Eugene, says the Oregonian. In addition to those whose pilgrimage begins from the Union depot, there will be large numbers of other faithful "Sons of the Desert" who will join from way points along the valley. In all, it is now believed this will be the largest gathering of shriners outside of Portland that ever invaded any place in the state at any time in the history of the shrine. The city of Eugene proposes to make this one of the most memorable events in her history. The special train will be met with a brass band and escorted to the armory, where lunch will be served. A parade that will astonish the natives is among the features of the day. The ceremonial for the benefit of those who have so often tried and who are willing to be tried again, is to begin at 7:30 p. m., and they will be given the full benefit until some time after midnight, so that none will be overlooked.

The special train is exclusively for Shriners. The fare from Portland and return is fixed at $3.75, and from all way points one and one-third fare for the round trip.

A timetable for the benefit of the Shriners between Portland and Eugene will be printed in the daily newspapers, so that all may know and "govern themselves accordingly."

A meeting of Al Kader Temple is called for next Wednesday evening, to be held at Masonic Temple, when final arrangements will be completed.

E. N. Hutchinson, of the federal bureau of animal industry, was in the city today.

Advertisements, Like Clocks, Should Keep Running

A store's advertisements tell the people what is "doing" at that store—what is new, what is inviting, why today is a good time to visit the store. People look for the ads to tell them these things just as naturally as they would look at a clock to tell the time.

Sometimes a clock does not run—sometimes a store's ad does not run. A "run-down" clock or ad are about equally unsatisfactory, unserviceable, misleading.

Curious thing about it is that a merchant who would think it absurd to have a run-down" or out-of-repair clock will, sometimes, deliberately let his ad stop running. It's not wise, nor good business, nor defensible on any known grounds—but it is sometimes done.
