CITY NEWS

The southbound afternoon passenger train was an hour late today.

Don't miss hearing Richard Jose's songs tonight at the Eugene theatre.

Brick work on the fifth story of the I. O. O. F. block will begin in a couple of days.

Don't miss seeing Richard Jose in "Don't Tell My Wife" tonight at the Eugene theatre.

A carload of sewer pipe for E. R. Mumme was among the freight arrivals this morning.

The foundation for the new Zuber block is about completed and brick-laying will begin in a few days.

Long & Hall, local plumbers, have the contract to put in the heating plant at the new school building in Junction City.

The fireplace in the lounging room of the Commercial Club is being rebuilt, the arch of the old one having fallen down.

H. Wittemberg and family, of Portland, arrived here in two large automobiles last evening and left for home this morning.

The Booth-Kelly Lumber Company has seven or eight teams constantly employed hauling lumber from the Springfield mill to Eugene.

Daniel Muth has resigned as manager of the Independence creamery in this city, and has been succeeded by E. M. Eldridge, of Independence.

Eugene W. Chaffin, prohibition candidate for president of the United States, will speak at the M. E. church in Eugene Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock.

E. M. Warren is having constructed 320 feet of cement sidewalk in front of his residence property at the corner of West Sixth and Washington streets.

There will be a regular meeting of the Evangelical Church, No. 51, O. E. S., Friday evening, September 4th, at 8 o'clock. By order of the W. M. E. M. Moran, secretary.

The lot around the Episcopal church is being filled in so that it will be even with the grade of the street. It required 200 loads of dirt to make the fill. A new cement sidewalk will be built along both sides of the property soon.

Another accident on the street railway line—Motorman Jackson reports that early this morning he ran over a jack rabbit's hind leg on the line around Judkins' Point. The last seen of the rabbit it was hobbling into the brush.

T. H. Ellis, the Eugene cement worker, has ordered a cement mixing machine, and will operate it with a ten-horse power electric motor. He will use it in the construction of the foundation of the Dunn-Wilkins three-story block.

The members of Company A who took part in the encampment at American Lake in August are receiving their state pay for the time spent here. Company C members will receive theirs as soon as Captain Willoughby returns from the mountains.

Geo. W. Taylor has just completed a well for E. K. Wheeler at his new residence at the corner of West Tenth and Jefferson streets, going down 136 feet to secure a good flow of water. He is now driving a well for J. H. Gibson, who is building a fine residence at West Twelfth and Lincoln streets.

Pendleton Tribune: F. D. Carruth, who is to teach in the business department of the high school this winter, arrived in the city recently and is preparing for the opening of school. Professor Carruth comes from Kansas to this city, but he is a graduate from the University of Oregon in the class of 1906.

Chief of Police Farrington is looking for some one to cut down the big maple trees along the Ninth street side of the Hoffman House. A new cement sidewalk has been ordered built along there, and if the trees remain they would be about in the center of the walk. They will be greatly missed.

The boxes for the three palms which will adorn the S. P. depot platform have arrived from Portland, the railroad company furnishing them. The palms have been shipped from California and are expected to arrive soon. The boxes are bigger than expected, but as the palms are also quite large the boxes will not appear out of proportion.

The sheriff's office this morning received the following telegram from Orient, Iowa: "Is G. Gilphant in Eugene, missing? Wife answers Earl Cary." It is not known by the message whether Gilphant is supposed to be a Eugene man and is missing, or that he lives in the Iowa town and is supposed to be here. Anyway, the directory gives no such name, and through inquiry it is learned that the man is not known here.

The Moving Picture Amusement Company is preparing articles of incorporation and they will be filed within a few days. The incorporators are S. S. Range, proprietor of the Electric and Dreamland theatres in this city, Mrs. Martha Watson, Morgan and Gwen Watson and Austin Farrington, all of this city. Morgan Watson and Austin Farrington will operate the two theatres as shown by the corporation, and Mrs. Watson and Gwen will operate the two others. Mr. Range will remove to Portland.

Since the train wreck near Irving a few days ago Chief of Police Farrington has received eight or more letters from persons in different parts of the country, enquiring as to the identity of the two boys who were killed in the wreck. Each person writing thought it might have been his or her boy who has wandered away from home and whose whereabouts are unknown. They had evidently read the first press dispatches which stated that two unknown boys were killed. The chief of police has answered each letter, stating that the identity of the boys was established. One of the letters was from Chicago and another from Salt Lake. The others were from coast points.

REV. D. C. WRIGHT
ON A BIG HIKE

Rev. D. C. Wright, pastor of the Baptist church at Eugene, Or., and Rev. H. B. Blood, pastor of the Baptist church at McCloud, Cal., came in on the Pacific & Eastern train yesterday, says the Medford Mail of September 2. These gentlemen came two weeks ago met at Weed, Cal., bent upon a rough and tumble outing, and they certainly have had it. They went from Weed to Klamath Lake by rail, thence by boat to Fort Klamath, then on foot to Crater Lake, then on foot or by team, as they could catch one, to Eagle Point, thence by rail to Medford.

They slept where night overtook them, and got their meals where they could. They were taken in charge on their arrival here by H. C. Garnett, and they will today go to Rogue river for a trial of their skill as fishermen. They may have a fish story on their return this evening.

MORE PRIVATE LIGHT PLANTS TO GO IN

Some time ago The Guard mentioned the fact that several business firms of Eugene were figuring on installing private electric light plants. The indications are that several others will install plants of their own soon. Today the Red Cross Drug Company ordered a dynamo from a representative of the Fairbanks-Morse Company, and will use it to furnish light for their three stores—the drug store on East Eighth street, the stationery and jewelry store and the Koolh-palors confectionery and ice cream parlors on Willamette street.

CITY COUNCIL HOLDS
ADJOURNED MEETING

An adjourned meeting of the city council was held yesterday afternoon. The matter of opening alleys through the old Osburn property in the southwestern part of town was referred to the city attorney.

It was ordered that pending the receipt of other bids, action be deferred on the proposed new street paving.

The matter of blasting at the quarry on the west end of Skinner's butte was again taken up. The committee reported they had interviewed several property owners in regard to withdrawing their remonstrances. Many had refused to do so. The matter was again referred to the health committee.

The committee on fire and water reported favorably on the bill of Civil Engineers McClain and McArthur for $1000 for surveys made on the proposed gravity water system. The report was adopted and a warrant covering the amount ordered drawn.

Extension of the Jefferson street sewer to Fourteenth street was reported favorably.

Prayer of petitioners for grading and graveling certain portions of Eleventh and Twelfth streets was ordered granted.

The matter of extra street cleaning and sweeping of principal streets on Shriners' day, Saturday, was, on motion, left to the discretion of the mayor.
