

Shriners, deal gently with the candidates---They are friends of ours.

Do You Want to be a United States Senator?

Up in Washington an effort is being made to defeat a U. S. Senator for re-election, one of the major charges against him being that he is non-progressive and never improved his home town by "nailing two boards together or laying one brick on another."

NOW is the time for you to remove one obstacle to your successful candidacy by building a home for yourself or some homeless would-be renter.

DEAF MUTE JUMPED HIS BOARD BILL

YOUNG BILK WHO SOLICITED SUBSCRIPTIONS TO MAGAZINES HAS DISAPPEARED.

A deaf mute giving his name as J. R. Boyd, is wanted by W. Waddle, of the Hotel Gross, and the officers here for jumping a board bill at the hotel. The bill amounts to $23.80. Constable Plank went to Albany yesterday in answer to a telephone message from there stating that the man had been arrested, but when he got there he found that the officers of the Linn county city had gotten the wrong man.

Boyd, who is quite young, perhaps not more than twenty years old, was here for several days soliciting subscriptions for a number of magazines. He was successful in collecting a considerable sum, but it is probable that those who subscribed will never see the magazines. The Guard's Creswell correspondent writes that Boyd collected all the way from $1.50 to $7.00 each from a number of people of that place and that they all believe they have been fleeced, as no magazines have shown up, and it has been more than time for them to begin to arrive if he was acting on the square.

Organization and Tactics," says that the term was used extensively among the men of the Confederate army in the civil war.

The term, however, is of provincial origin, having been first used by the original settlers of Tennessee and Kentucky, and as used by them it meant a long journey on foot through the country for any purpose. Therefore, while the term used in connection with Mr. Wright's tramp into the mountains of Northern California, while not pure literary English, is used correctly.

In this connection I wish to say that while I am bitterly opposed to the vulgar slang phrases in general use, such as "Come off of the roof," "Go take a jump at yourself" and kindred phrases, we have got to use common sense about the matter. American slang is here to stay and the so-called purists may as well face the inevitable. There are many slang words that are more expressive and picturesque than any literary or colloquial ones, and are used by such popular writers as Jack London, Maurice Thompson, Owen Wister, President Roosevelt and several others.

ONE OF MEMBERS OF THE CAST AT PLAY LAST NIGHT WORE ONE AND MADE THE AUDIENCE GASP

Eugene has been able to gather in many features belonging to up-to-dateness, but it looked for the past several months as if the much-gossiped-about director's garment, which created a small-sized panic upon its first appearance on the streets of gay Paris, then London, New York, Chicago and the West, would be killed off before it arrived in Eugene.

It dropped in last night when Miss Lillian Haywood appeared in such a garment in various stages of the character of "Angelina McKeage, late of comic opera." This being its first burst in Eugene, the audience conducted itself as best it could. The appearance being a surprise, there were few stop watches in the house to exactly gauge the length of time the audience held its breath. Miss Haywood bore up well under the equipment and both in personality and acting gracefully carried out her part in presenting the latest note of Dame Fashion.
