The S. P. trains from the north have begun being late from the horde of hop pickers skidding from Portland up the valley.

Rev. Linden, of the First Baptist church at Oregon City, will preach in the First Baptist church at Eugene Sunday morning the 6th of September. Everybody cordially invited.

The marriage of Frank O'Connor, who was here with the Warren Construction Company last summer and fall, to Miss Iona Ward, of Prineville, is announced to take place at that city on September 16.

O. K. Bullard, who arrived here a few days ago from San Jose, Cal., has purchased a residence property from J. M. Working at the corner of West Sixth and Washington streets, paying $4500 for it.

The electric light bulbs on the street stringers have all been redipped and were replaced on Willamette street today. They will present a brilliant appearance tomorrow night with their new coat of paint.

The formal organization of a Bryan Club will be effected in the Fairmount hall tomorrow evening. All followers of the great commoner are invited to attend the meeting, which will begin at 7 o'clock.

The work of moving the old frame building on the Hovey lot at the corner of West Eighth and Olive streets to make room for a two-story brick block was begun today. E. Dodge will continue to occupy the building with his grocery store.

General Manager O'Brien, General Superintendent Buckley, Superintendent Fields and Division Engineer Bollins, of the S. P. Co., spent last night in Eugene in their private cars, going on south to meet Harriman and accompany him on his way north next week.

L. N. Roney is planning to remodel his residence at the corner of West Sixth and Jefferson. While of old-style architecture it is still one of the finest residences in the city. Mr. Roney is having Architect Hunzicker drawing plans for the work of remodeling it.

A carload of hay for the Eugene Feed Company, a carload of lumber from Cottage Grove for C. F. Working, several carloads of gravel and dirt for the S. P. Co., and several of logs for the Eugene Lumber Company were among the shipments into Eugene last night and this morning.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning some one attempted to enter the residence of Mrs. A. C. Patterson and daughters at 287 East Eleventh street, evidently for the purpose of burglary. The occupants of the house heard the noise and phoned the officers, but before they arrived the intruder had flown. The would-be burglar tried both the front and rear doors and some of the windows.

J. O. Watts leaves for San Francisco tomorrow (Saturday) morning on a business trip and while there will look up all the best and latest things in eye-fitting work. He will also bring back a fine line of auto goggles, eye shades, field glasses, and the most up-to-date eye glass mountings. Mr. Watts will be back in his office Monday, September 14, and it will pay you to wait for your eye work until he arrives.

The little son of Clarence Parker, who lives on Olive street, wandered away from home last evening about 7 o'clock and went down town. He walked about the business streets for an hour and a half before his distracted parents succeeded in finding him. He was taken to the Hoffman House by Mrs. Lester Loucky, where Mrs. Osburn took charge of him and where his father found him.

ILLEGAL BONDS DELAY PAVING IN ROSEBURG

All hopes of starting street paving work in Roseburg in the next few days were shattered today when City Recorder Orcutt received written notice from Morris Bros., of Portland, stating that, upon the advice of their attorneys, Teal & Minor, they had rejected the tender of $25,000 worth of municipal bonds, issued by the city council for the purpose of defraying 50 per cent of the cost of the street paving work, says yesterday's Roseburg Review. Teal & Minor express the opinion that the initiative proceedings governing the special election at which the flotation of the bonds was authorized was irregular. They cite a number of instances where the law was not complied with, but the one above all others that is pronounced fatal is that the election was called within ten days' less time than required by the initiative law. As a result of the action of Morris Bros. in rejecting the bonds, Mayor Hoover has not signed the paving contract with the Warren Construction company, and will not do so, of course, until the matter is straightened out. He has employed the local law firm of Coshaw & Rice to advise the city how to proceed, and has called a special meeting of the city council for tonight to act upon what is suggested by them in the way of getting out of the difficulty. Coshaw & Rice and Mayor Hoover are holding a conference on the matter this afternoon.

GRAND ARMY ELECTS ITS NEW OFFICERS

Toledo, Sept. 3.—Colonel Henry M. Nevius, of Red Bank, N. J., was today elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. The election was on the first ballot, which gave Mr. Nevius 454 votes, compared with 254 for ex-Governor Van Sant, of Minnesota, and 90 for L. T. Dickason, of Illinois. On motion of the former Minnesota executive, the election of the New Jersey man was made unanimous. Other officers were chosen as follows: Senior vice commander, J. Kent Hamilton, of Ohio; junior vice commander, C. C. Royce, of California; chaplain-in-chief, J. F. Spence, of Tennessee; surgeon-in-chief, J. Lane Tunehill, of Maryland.

J. W. Stebbins, of Alabama, made a fight for junior vice commander on the ground that the South, with 150,000 graves of Union dead to care for, still is unrepresented on the National staff.
