BON MARCHE STORE

CHANGES HANDS

W. L. SOUDERS SELLS OUT TO CAMPBELL AND WOLFE AND
NAME OF PLACE WILL BE CHANGED TO THE CRESCENT

W. L. Souder, proprietor of the Bon Marche store, announces that on Wednesday of this week Oscar Campbell and O. C. Wolfe will take possession of the store, they having purchased the stock and fixtures. They will close the store until Friday, September 18, when it will be reopened under the name of The Crescent. They will rearrange the interior of the store and make a number of improvements.

As announced by The Guard some time ago, Mr. Souder inaugurated a sale to close out his stock, as he has a business proposition at Seattle that requires his time and attention.

Mr. Campbell is a well-known Lane county citizen, having resided on the McKenzie for many years. Mr. Wolfe knows the dry goods business thoroughly, coming here from Kansas City, where he was in business for years. He has recently been at Springfield.

visit their old home in New York state.

Otto's grill will open about the 15th of the present month. The dishes have arrived from Portland and the fixtures will be here within a few days. The work of tinsmithing the walls has been completed. Fritz, the well-known painter, did the work which is a credit to any place of its kind.

George Burbach, son of Gregory Burbach, the blacksmith, brought to this office today a branch from a pear tree growing in their yard at 925 South Willamette street which contained 48 winter pears. The branch is only two feet long. The whole tree is covered with the fruit as thickly as this branch is.

The Lane County Horticultural Society held a meeting Saturday afternoon. The matter of a display of Lane county fruit at the Seattle exposition next year was brought up and a committee consisting of J. Beebe, Geo. A. Dorris and M. H. Harlow was appointed to confer with the Commercial Club and the county commissioners' court in regard to the matter.

A walk about the city reveals the fact that there is more building going on at present than at any one period for years. Especially in the suburbs are the residences springing up on all sides. Probably the section in which the most are being built in is the southwestern part of the city, although in the extreme western portion and in East Eugene there is great activity.

As the local Shriners were too busy entertaining to see their stereopticon pictures at the Orpheum theatre, the management has decided to show the pictures again this evening, tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow night. D. O. Woodworth and son Marshall returned last evening from their McKenzie outing, having had a splendid time hunting and fishing. Marshall made a remarkable record for a fourteen-year old boy, killing three deer on Wednesday within twenty minutes and holding his nerve, which some say he inherited from his father, during the exciting time. He also shot a cougar, wounding it. They shot a bear gave it another shot and the fellow crawled off into the jungle, where no one cared to follow it and the dogs refused to enter, fearful lest the animal might not be quite dead. —Albany Democrat.
