HUNTER WANTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

Salem, Sept. 7.—R. G. Hunter, until recently local representative for the International Correspondence Schools, is being sought by the police for alleged theft and embezzlement. Hunter is charged with having bought a large bill of furniture on the installment plan and then having borrowed $150 from each of three different men on the furniture...

Hunter is well known in Eugene, where he and his wife have visited frequently.

MANY GREAT RACES AT STATE FAIR

So great have been the number of entries in the Standardbred classes of horses for the coming Oregon State Fair, at Salem, Sept. 14-19, that the board of agriculture were compelled to provide additional barn room. This has been done in the shape of a large barn 220 feet long by 42 feet wide, which will afford box stalls for 40 horses, each stall being 11 1/2 feet, and these are located on either side of a seven-foot driveway, which extends the entire length of the structure...

PULLING TEETH MAY COST HALSEY WOMAN HER LIFE

Halsey, Sept. 7.—Mrs. N. H. Cummings, an invalid, who lives near Halsey, came to town last Friday and had seven teeth extracted by a dentist from Harrisburg, who comes to Halsey each Friday. Her mouth bled so badly that night that a physician was called, who expressed fear of her bleeding to death. She was unable to go home, and is at the home of her father-in-law, Berry Cummings, where she is scarcely able to move from loss of blood. Mrs. Cummings experienced the same trouble a few years ago from the same cause.

A Sure-Enough Knocker

J. C. Goodwin, of Reidsville, N.C., says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve is a sure-though knocker for ulcers. A bad one came on my leg last summer. That wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed for piles, sores and burns, etc. 25c at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store.
