Hundreds of Yards of Beautiful Fall Dress Goods and Silks

Fall fabrics shown for the first time this year. Unusually careful in selecting the dress fabrics of the season, we have aimed above all else for quality and style in the goods secured. The weaves of most all Dress Goods are quite different from those shown last season—you will like them for this reason. The colors are blue, greens, browns, reds and a big variety of high colors in both silks and wool goods. Starting at 50c a yard and up to $3.00. There is a splendid representation of all that is newest and best.

CITY NEWS

Stevens & Hullin this morning received a carload of pianos direct from the factory.

The county clerk up to noon today had issued 1918 hunters' licenses since the first of the year.

The cement curbing for the pavement on West Fifth street from Willamette to Olive is being built.

The paving dope will be laid on the park street in the rear of the Loan and Savings bank, Dunn's store and others, tomorrow.

Architect Hunkeler is drawing plans for a neat cottage to be built by Mrs. Cora B. Rhodes on East Thirtieth street near Hilyard.

Marshfield Times: S. Van Soy, who has held a position as fireman at the Porter mill, has resigned and returned to his home in Eugene.

George W. Smith, who had charge of the painting of the Eugene depot, went to Albany today with a force of men to paint the depot there.

A marriage license was issued today to William G. Zeigler and Miss Edna Horn, both residing a short distance north of Eugene on the river road.

The city council meets late this afternoon for the purpose of letting several paving contracts and to attend to various matters of minor importance.

Erickson brothers, of Mohawk, left on this morning's stage for McKenzie Bridge. From there they will set out afoot across the Cascade mountains for Eastern Oregon.

Walter Spruance, a laborer, while cutting wood over near Coburg today, accidentally cut off the end of his left thumb. He came to town and Dr. Wall dressed the wound.

The city's fire team will hereafter wear "neverslip" shoes, so they will not slip on the street pavement when running to fires. A shipment of the shoes was received by Finnegan, the blacksmith, today.

Eugene V. Debs will address the people of Eugene from his special car at the depot at 10:30 o'clock a. m., Monday, Sept. 14. The public is invited to come and hear the socialist candidate for president.

Noah Buoy, an old resident of Creswell, suffered a light stroke of paralysis a couple of days ago. His son, John Buoy, returned from there today and reports him better. His right side and his speech are affected.

J. J. Chetwood, the Goshen farmer who was injured yesterday by being thrown from his wagon on Pearl street in Eugene and taken to the Eugene hospital, is improving and his injuries are not considered dangerous.

A meeting of the ladies' auxiliary of the Commercial club will be held tonight. After the business meeting, which will end about 9 o'clock, the members of the club are invited to listen to the program to be rendered by the ladies.

B. A. Washburne, who has recently sold the Springfield flour mill to K. Noel, banquipped his old employes, most of whom have been with him for the past fifteen years, at the American hotel in Springfield last night. A very enjoyable time was had.

The address of E. J. S. McAllister, democratic candidate for presidential elector, will be delivered in the court house at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon Saturday, instead of Saturday evening, as stated in last evening's Guard.

A telegram received from Prof. Guy C. Stockton, the new superintendent of the Eugene public schools, this morning states that he will arrive in Eugene on the 6:42 o'clock train this evening. The telegram was sent from Ashland.

The chief of police yesterday afternoon ordered Ed Small to remove his portable lunch counter building from the Chambers lot on account of its being within the fire limits. Fred, the Turk, has also been ordered to take away his stand on the same lot.

Frank B. Kellocc, a magazine and newspaper writer of considerable note in the East, has located temporarily in Eugene and is residing at the corner of West Thirtieth street and Stewart avenue. He has been in California for some time until recently for the benefit of his health.

F. A. Rankin made a trip to Coburg Grove yesterday and while there sold to John M. Durham and Bert Richmond, proprietors of the electric theatre there, a Berry-Wood player piano which was installed in the theatre by J. O. Thomas, of the Eugene Electrical Co.

A lady who placed a house for rent ad in yesterday's Guard telephoned this office this morning, requesting that the ad be taken out as she is overrun with people wanting the house. This indicates two things: That The Guard is a good advertising medium and that houses to rent are very scarce.

Included in the carload shipments into Eugene last night and this morning were the following: One of morning for the Pollock Transfer Co., flour for the Bible Hall-University, one of pianos for Stevens & Hullin, two logs for the Eugene Lumber Co., one of cement for the American Paving Co., and one of stoves for the Chambers Hardware Co.

J. J. Hughes left for London, England, this morning on the 6 o'clock train. He goes to visit his brothers there, whom he has not seen for over twenty years. Jack will be greatly missed in musical circles this winter, as he is the best clarinetist in the Northwest. His address will be 58 Lee Road, Dovercourt, N. Harwich, Essex, England.

Corvallis Times: S. L. Kline, who was at Eugene Saturday, returned an enthusiastic advocate of paved streets. Eugene has several miles of the bitulitic pavement now and the people of the city say that it has already paid for itself in the increased growth of the city coming as the direct result of this great improvement.

There has been another change in the personnel of the Bangs Livery Co. C. P. Barnard has sold his interest to his partners, Eli Bangs, Earl McNutt and J. H. West. Mr. Barnard will devote his time and attention to other affairs.

In the case of M. J. Doyle vs. the Southern Pacific Co., in which the plaintiff was awarded $45,000 damages by a jury on account of the loss of both legs by being run over by a locomotive, and in which Judge Harris, a few days ago, reduced the judgment to $25,000, the attorneys for the railroad company today filed with the county clerk a notice of appeal to the supreme court.

MARKS COMPANY'S DRUG STORE OPENS

The Helen R. Marks Drug Co.'s store in the Hotel Smeede building was opened to the public this morning on the first day. The place is one of the neatest in the city and a complete line of drugs, patent medicines, toilet articles and, in fact, everything that is usually kept in a first class drug store, is found. A beautiful soda fountain has been installed and all of the latest temperance drinks will be dispensed to the thirsty public. Mrs. Marks, who is a registered pharmacist, will have charge of the prescription work for several days, but a gentleman will be here from Portland soon to assist her. The location of the new store is a good one.

INDEPENDENCE PARTY NAMES CANDIDATES

Portland, Sept. 8.—At a mass meeting of the Independence party, held here tonight, presidential electors were named, as follows: John W. Bennett, of Clackamas county, and Thomas E. Sweeney, W. R. Lake and M. J. Malley, of Multnomah county. Hugh J. McIsaac, of California, and J. I. Knight, of Washington, delivered addresses in which they arraigned the old parties and advocated the union of voters with the movement inaugurated by the Independence party.
"We will make a vigorous campaign in Oregon," declared Mr. McIsaac this afternoon.

They Take the Kinks Out

"I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for many years, with increasing satisfaction. They take the kinks out of stomach, liver and bowels, without fuss or friction," says N. H. Brown, of Pittsfield, Vt. Guaranteed satisfactory at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store. 25c
