Tokio, Sept. 10.—Marquis Katsura, the new premier and minister of finance, in an address tonight outlined a rigid policy of economy for Japan. He said the patriotism of the people was as necessary now, when economy was necessary to restore credit and confidence, as it was during the Russian-Japanese war. He declared that a complete readjustment of expenditures was necessary.

WOMAN COVERED WITH JEWELS FOUND DEAD IN LAKE

Newark, N. J., Sept. 10.—The body of Mrs. Ashton Harvey, dressed in white and literally covered with a fortune in jewels, was found today in the private pleasure lake of Stewrat Hartshorn at Short Hills, N. J., by bloodhounds which had been set to work seeking her.

Mrs. Harvey was the wife of Ashton Harvey, a millionaire corporation lawyer of New York, who lived on a magnificent country estate at Short Hills. The body was found today after an all-night search. The husband believes she committed suicide, as she has long been a sufferer from headaches, and grieved deeply over the death of her oldest son.

STANDARD OIL CO. FILES ANSWER TO REHEARING TODAY

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER.

Head of the Standard Oil trust, which has successfully withstood all attempts toward legal restrictions upon its operations.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—Counsel for the Standard Oil Company of Indiana in an answer filed to the petition of the government authorities for a rehearing of the appeal from Judge Landis' judgment fining the company $29,240,000 for violation of the anti-rebate laws, filed today, upheld the decision of Judges Grosscup, Baker and Seaman, of the United States circuit court of appeals, reversing the judgment and lifting the burden of the enormous fine, as good law, amply justified by the records of the case.

Point by point the answer, which was formally placed on record by Colonel R. W. Stewart, general attorney for the Standard Oil Company in Chicago, takes up the arguments of the petition for rehearing, which sets forth alleged errors and particularly suggested that the upper court had erred in its understanding of what the trial judge had really said concerning previous offenses by the Standard Oil Company of Indiana of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

"The real point is," says the answer, "did the trial court in imposing punishment take into consideration the relations between the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, and did it base its fine upon the wealth of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and its ability to pay, instead of upon the wealth of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana and its inability to pay?"

The answer further alleges that Judge Landis referred to the New Jersey corporation as the "real defendant," and the Indiana Company as the "nominal defendant."

Under the rules of federal judiciary procedure the government attorneys have a right to file a reply to the answer to their petition if they discover in it any new matter which they consider needs a rejoinder.

Points in the Answer.

The answer of the company says: "It is urged by counsel that the court should give consideration again to the purpose which congress had in the passage of the act making it criminal for shippers in interstate commerce to accept or receive concessions from the lawful, published transportation rates, viz: to strengthen and make more effective the provisions and great purpose of the interstate commerce act, which was (as counsel quote from the rulings of the supreme court of the United States), "whilst seeking to prevent unjust and unreasonable rates, to secure equality of rates as to all and destroy favoritism, these last being accomplished by requiring the publication of tariffs and by prohibiting secret departures from such tariffs and forbidding rebates, preferences and all other forms of undue discrimination; * * * * to compel the carrier as a public agent to give equal treatment to all."

All of this was elaborately presented by counsel to this court in former arguments, and full and fair consideration was given to it by the court.

LELI ANKENY REFUSES TO DISCUSS RESULTS

WASHINGTON SENATOR WILL NOT SAY WHETHER HE WILL ACCEPT DEFEAT GRACEFULLY OR MAKE A FIGHT IN THE LEGISLATURE—COSGROVE NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR

Seattle, Sept. 10.—The close fight for the gubernatorial nomination seems finally determined in favor of Samuel Cosgrove, of Pomeroy. Henry McBride, his closest opponent, has wired congratulations and promised his support.

Partial returns compiled by the Evening Times from 36 out of 37 counties on United States senator are as follows: Jones, 32,129; Ankeny, 16,058.

Incomplete returns on governor up to 2 o'clock: First choice: Cosgrove, 21,659; Mead, 23,626; McBride, 21,430. Second choice, Cosgrove, 19,328; Mead, 10,104; McBride, 9611, giving Cosgrove a long lead on combined first and second choice.

Spokane, Sept. 10.—Senator Levi Ankeny, who appears to have been decisively beaten by Congressman Wesley Jones in Tuesday's direct primary vote for senator, was asked by the Evening Chronicle if he would abide by the result of the vote, and replied:

"I cannot state that."

"If defeated will you quit the fight?"

"I cannot say what may be the developments."

"Well, is there a possibility that you would go before the state legislature with your candidacy?"

"I do not know."

Nearly all the newly elected members of the legislature are formally pledged to the senatorial candidate receiving the highest vote in the direct primary.

NO DOUBT NOW OF ANKENY'S DEFEAT

Seattle, Sept. 10.—Incomplete returns leave no doubt of the nomination of Representative Wesley L. Jones for United States senator over Levi Ankeny, the incumbent. To succeed Jones as representative in congress from the third district Miles Poindexter, of Spokane, has been chosen. There was no opposition to William E. Humphrey, of Seattle, in the first district, and Francis W. Cushman, of Tacoma, in the second district.

Cosgrove for Governor.

The returns, although incomplete, also indicate that Samuel G. Cosgrove, of Pomeroy, a second choice selection, will receive the nomination
