Advertisements, Like Clocks, Should Keep Running

A store's advertisements tell the people what is "doing" at that store—what is new, what is inviting, why today is a good time to visit the store. People look for the ads to tell them those things just as naturally as they would look at a clock to tell the time. Sometimes a clock does not run—sometimes a store's ad does not run. A "run-down" clock or ad are about equally unsatisfactory, unserviceable, misleading. Curious thing about it is that a merchant who would think it absurd to have a run-down or out-of-repair clock will, sometimes, deliberately let his ad stop running. It's not wise, nor good business, nor defensible on any known grounds—but it is sometimes done.

The General Demand of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

WILL BEGIN DRYING PRUNES NEXT MONDAY

The Allen cannery is again a busy scene, about fifty women and girls being employed there at present peeling and cutting pears for canning. The usual force of men is also at work. The pears are coming in at a good rate now and they are just about ripe enough for canning. They are not as large, as a rule, as they were last year, but the crop is thought to be about as large.

The prune evaporator will probably be started up next Monday. Manager Allen says the prunes are about ripe enough to dry, but the crop this year is only about half what it was last year. Over across the river there seems to be a very heavy crop, as the orchards there seem to be sheltered more than they are out on the prairie, but throughout the county as a whole there is a short crop.

GOOD ENTERTAINMENT! COURSE FOR WINTER

A course of entertainments will be given during the winter by the united Young Peoples' Societies of the city comprising the Christian Endeavor, the Baptist Young Peoples' Union and the Epworth League.

There will be six entertainments in the course, as follows: November (1)—Concert composed of Forrest Dabney Carr, Basso Cantante, formerly with the Grand Opera Co.

Florence Gertrude Smith, Soprano. A thousand concerts during the last three years.

Earl J. Pfouts, Violinist. Played in Duss Festival concerts, orchestral concerts at Madison Square Garden.

Edward M. Shonert, Pianist, who has appeared in this city before, and after having rendered one of his solos was compelled to give three encores.

(2)—The Artist Trio: Mary Agnes Doyle, Reader; Blanche Deering, Piano and Violin; Flora McGill, Contralto.

January (3)—Russell H. Conwell, Preacher, Author, Orator. Subject, "Acres of Diamonds." Forty-seventh year on the platform. Has no superior as a lecturer today.

March (4)—Alton Packard, Cartoonist. He peoples the stage with sketches; he impersonates; depicts the humorous, the picturesque, the beautiful; plays the piano, sings, introduces comedy and sentiment; holds the attention of the audience to the end—then stops.

April (5)—The Iowa College Glee Club. Twenty men. One of the best drilled glee clubs in the country.

(6)—Hon Joseph W. Folk, governor of Missouri. Subject: "Soldiers of Peace."

The societies at the back of this course represent in the aggregate about five hundred of Eugene's young people and the purpose is to make it a permanent thing from year to year.

THIRD DIVIDEND FOR BANK DEPOSITORS

New York, Sept. 10.—Receiver Charles A. Hanna today paid the third dividend to depositors of the failed National Bank of North America. This dividend makes 75 per cent paid in all since the bank closed its doors, on January 29 last. The receiver expects to pay the final 25 per cent dividend before the end of the year, and, according to National bank regulations, if the assets are sufficient, of which there seems no doubt, the depositors will then receive interest at the rate of 6 per cent on their money for the time it was tied up.

for the pennants in the big baseball leagues. As to the matter of electing a president—well, there will be time to settle that just before the football season opens.

Here's better news, if true, than the best spellbinder has in stock. Dr. L. F. Flick, head of a Philadelphia institution for poor consumptives, announces that the dread disease will be eradicated in fifteen years by the spread of preventative knowledge.

A lot of men are discussing legal injunctions who wouldn't recognize one if they met it in the middle of the road at mid-day. However, much fun would be lost if men only discussed things they know. So on with the dance—beg pardon, the discussion.

It really seems a pity that cool weather should have put a crimp in the advertising the Atlantic City hotel keepers expected to prove a gold mine. Next year they will see that the wickedness is exploited earlier.

While on the subject of guarantee laws, what's the matter with one requiring the political prophet to guarantee his predictions, with a jail sentence for failure to make good?

Though some men are so constituted that they refuse to believe it, we are convinced that most voters can and do make up their minds without being attacked by hysteria.

As is usually the case when the people vote, there were many surprises in the Washington primary and not a few slates were smashed.

Before proceeding further with the scolding contest, Venezuela and Holland should hire two American pugilists to do the talking.

This thing of educating the people to demanding guarantees will get some of the spellbinders in bad, if it takes in speeches.

All Eugene has to do now is to "keep a-going."

THIS IS MY 53RD BIRTHDAY

Poultney Bigelow, well-known author and journalist, was born in New York city September 10, 1855. He is the son of John Bigelow, who served as United States minister to France for some years, and who is now in his 84 year. Poultney Bigelow graduated from Yale and later attended the Columbia law school. He was admitted to the bar in 1882, but has never practiced law. Much of his time has been spent in foreign travel. He resided in Germany for some years and was known as an intimate friend of the German emperor. Mr. Bigelow has made a special study of modern history and colonial administration and has lectured on those subjects before several leading American universities. During the Spanish-American war he represented the London Times in Cuba. In 1906 he attracted attention to himself by several articles he wrote in criticism of the policy of the administration in the construction of the Panama canal.
