

Do You Want to be a United States Senator?

Up in Washington an effort is being made to defeat a U. S. Senator for re-election, one of the major charges against him being that he is non-progressive and never improved his home town by "nailing two boards together or laying one brick on another."

NOW is the time for you to remove one obstacle to your successful candidacy by building a home for yourself or some homeless would-be renter.

SUPERINTENDENT STOCKTON ARRIVES

Professor Guy C. Stockton, the new superintendent of Eugene's public schools, arrived in Eugene from Victor, Colo., last night and will at once prepare for the opening of the schools on Monday, September 21. Mr. Stockton intended coming sooner, but was detained by the illness of his wife, who will be here just as soon as her condition improves sufficiently to permit of her making the trip. The new superintendent is a young man, active and full of energy and has the appearance of thoroughly understanding the work in which he is engaged.

BOY ACCUSED OF THEFT ARRESTED

CHARLES MCCOY, ALIAS J. B. TROY, TAKEN INTO CUSTODY LAST NIGHT AND RETURNED TO JUNCTION CITY

A young man registering at the Hotel Smoode as J. B. Troy, from Spokane, was arrested at the hotel last night by Policeman Purdy, charged with the theft of the sum of $13 from a woman at the Junction City Hotel. He was placed in the city jail over night and Nightwatchman Meats, of Junction, came up and took him back there for examination before the justice of the peace. The boy, who says he is 17 years of age, went under the name of Charles McCoy at Junction. While there he told a hard luck story and succeeded in working on the sympathies of the citizens to the extent that a purse of several dollars was made up for him. Yesterday $12 belonging to a woman employed at the hotel and which she kept in a sewing machine drawer, was missing, and as this boy was the only person seen around there, he was suspected. When arrested last night he had most of the money on his person.

choice. This provision of the law does not apply to judicial county or local offices.

The early returns indicated an extremely close contest between McBride and Mead, but later reports dispelled whatever hope the Mead men had and the governor announced that he was prepared to take the stump for Cosgrove and would gladly do so. The liquor element backed McBride and fought Governor Mead, so that they now hope to defeat the enactment of a local option law.

CALIFORNIA CAPITALIST WILL VISIT EUGENE

Charles S. Neal of Alameda, Cal., wired to Manager Hartorn, of the Commercial Club, this morning from Ashtland that he was on his way to Portland and had decided to accept the repeated invitation to stop off at Eugene to investigate the described possibilities for profitable investments.

Mr. Neal was manager for the Jas. Fair estate at San Francisco, and joint owner of the estate's property in Alameda with Mrs. Herman Oelrichs. As the most prominent citizen of Alameda, he was made president of the Alameda Advancement Association, of which Mr. Hartorn was manager. Recently he sold his share of the holdings to Mrs. Oelrichs for $300,000 cash, and has not been in active business since. Having been continually written to and urged to investigate conditions in Eugene, he has decided to spend a day here and will be the guest of the manager of the promotion department of the club and shown around town by him tomorrow.
