The Portland Wire and Iron Works has been let the contract for furnishing and putting up the fire escapes on the new I. O. O. F. block in this city. G. W. Hill is building a $3500 house at West Fifth and Lincoln streets. Lew Kester, the architect, drew the plans and has the contract for the building. A valuable Shire stallion belonging to a company of farmers died at the Burns stables Sunday evening. The company paid $4000 for the animal. Sam Carmichael and Fred Barnard returned this morning from a short hunting trip to Douglas county. Each brought back a fine buck which they had killed. Fred M. DeNeffe, of this city, pitched a game of baseball for the Chehalis, Wash., team yesterday against St. Johns, the Chehalis team winning by the score of 4 to 3. Among the freight shipments into Eugene this morning were the following: One car of flour for the Eugene Transfer Company, two cars of cement for T. H. Ellis, one car of plaster for A. Lombard and several cars of sawlogs for the Eugene Lumber Company. Captain George Willoughby and family and Orlo Hendershot have gone to the state fair in the captain's auto, which will be placed there for the use of the general public during the fair. The funeral of Mrs. Claude Broders was held at the Catholic church Sunday afternoon and the remains interred in the Catholic cemetery south of the city. The services were largely attended. Quite a number of Eugene people went to Newport yesterday, the occasion being the last day of the season upon which the low excursion rates prevailed. The weather at the coast is said to be excellent now. The East Eugene Bryan Club held a large and enthusiastic meeting in the Fairmount hall Saturday night. The meeting was addressed by Hon. L. Bilyeu and Mayor J. D. Matlock. The monthly meeting of the Commercial Club will be held tonight, at which time the matter of whether or not the promotion work is to be continued for another year will be taken up. Dr. Christie has sold out his veterinary practice to Drs. Hansen and Weller. Dr. Christie will hereafter devote most of his attention to his mining properties, but will retain the office of county stock inspector. The motion for a new trial in the circuit court case of H. C. Mason vs. M. B. Rankin, in which a jury awarded the plaintiff a verdict of $35,000 as a commission upon a timber sale, was argued today before Judge Harris. The old board walk in front of T. T. Nicklin's store at the corner of East Ninth and Oak streets and in front of the Chinese store and soap works adjoining was torn up today preparatory to building a 12-foot cement walk. A Bucks Junior Range will be given by the Campbell-Fellman Co., the housefurnishers on West Eighth street, to the girl 14 years or under that bakes the best pan of biscuits. The contest takes place at the store on Wednesday afternoon of this week. Three disinterested ladies will act as patronesses and as each pan of biscuits will be numbered the judges will not know who has baked the biscuits, so no partiality can be shown. In addition to the Bucks Range given, which is not a toy but a genuine range in miniature that cooks and bakes, there will be two other nice prizes given to the second and third prize winners. Any little housewife that wants to enter the contest should call at the Campbell-Fellman Co.'s store and get their number before Wednesday noon.
