TABLE SPIRIT
OF EUGENE PEOPLE
Illustration of the table spirit when the Commerce club attended meeting, without a table spirit to continue the department on a class over. The slogan of 15,000 people next Eugene have at last decided to grow up and enterprise and determined to give the state an object lessoning that will cause the great Northwest to rejoice. We have the best, the geographical advantages which will do the rest.
In full swing and our way. It will be the next five years in the past.
TEXAS WAY
Two years ago a railroad situation, unable to do anything, Lons Star state for its originality in actually doing the thing, their directions, their practical experience, A. San says:
Among the jokes handed out on the stump, Mr. Hearst's arraignment of the old parties for being boss-ridden is yet to be beaten.
Esperanto can never become popular with the "fans" of a town which has a losing baseball club. It has no cuss-words.
Good time to build a house—before the sawmills get too busy filling eastern orders.
THE LANDLORD
The landlord used to come around As regular as a clock.
Upon the door he'd hear him pound, Oh, 'twas a glad and joyful sound—
To hear that landlord knock!
He knocked upon the entry way, He knocked upon the door,
He came around the first of May,
And saw the puppies at their play,
And then he knocked some more.
The landlord used to hand us knocks Because we had a cat, A bird, a rabbit in a box,
And half a hundred Plymouth Rocks, What think you now, of that?
But when he acted meanest yet Was over Gwendolyn;
When she was born the little pet, He growled and said, "You mustn't let
This thing occur again."
We have another landlord now
And he is different, We've bought a parrot and a cow—
He doesn't holler, anyhow—Or press us for the rent.
New Gwendolyn has sisters four,
And she has brothers two;
They pound the walls and pound the floor,
And still this landlord doesn't roar Like that one used to do.
We've put that landlord man to rout,
And I will tell you how:
We have a cottage farther out,
With vines and roses 'round about,
And I'm the landlord now.
—American Lumberman.
GOOD FOR EUGENE.
(Salem Statesman.)
In what promises to be a terrific struggle for control of territory between Jim Hill and Ed. Harriman in this state, Oregon, says "the em," and may they both win. The harder these two railroad kings scrub the better it will be for Oregon. It has been evident all along that there is more in Harriman's stay at Pelican than a mere vacation. We anticipate that Hill's activity in western Oregon will make construction of the Natron branch by Harriman a necessity. That will mean much to Eugene.

of such taxes. The sheriff publishes this notice in order that no one may suffer from ignorance of the law.
The Carver railroad is headed for Eugene and its promoter wants to come here, if the people will meet him in the proper spirit. Let's do that very thing and get a road up the west side of the valley next year —it will turn a lot of new trade into the city and go a long way toward bringing that five thousand increase in population we intend to have in 1909.

Army officers who do not like General Leonard Wood, and they are numerous, fear that the United States will have to be enlarged to hold him after he returns from Germany, where he is to be the personal guest of the Kaiser during the autumn army maneuvers.

Should Chairmen Mack and Hitchcock get their heads together and arrange a joint Taft-Bryan tour by airship, with speeches by both in every town, they'd surely wake up things. The tip is gratis.

It has been said that Sepaker Cannon enjoys being abused. If true, he must be having the time of his life right now, as he is about the most abused man in the country, not excepting Rockefeller.

As we understand it, President Roosevelt's position in regard to the New York situation is very clear.
He does not care whom the republican party nominates for governor—just so it is Hughes.

A great deal is being said about the active demand for one-dollar bills, but that's nothing new in this neck of woods. We've never known a time when there was not an active demand for 'em.

It's dead easy to predict victory for either side, but it's the voters, not the predictors, who will award the flag. Just bear in mind that heavy batting wins more games than noisy coaching.

An easy way to ascertain whether your friend has faith is to try to borrow money from him, but don't make the mistake of thinking it's wise because it's easy.

Two years have witnessed a wonderful growth in Eugene; what the next two years will bring forth depends upon the efforts that we make.

Certainly Mr. Bryan's most bitter opponent can not blame him for not entering a controversy merely to advertise the Hearst newspapers.

Among the jokes handed out on
of the old parties for being boss-ridden is yet to be beaten.

Esperanto can never become popu-
no cuss-words.

Good time to build a house—before the sawmills get too busy filling eastern orders.

Politics and Politicians

South Dakota is the scene of a busy campaign at present between the local option and anti-option advocates.

Charles S. Millington of Herts, Ark., is the nominee for Congress to succeed James S. Sherman, the vice presidential candidate.

Democratic leaders in Virginia are preparing for an unusually vigorous campaign this fall, with the purpose of rolling up the strongest possible majority for Bryan and electing all their nominees for Congress.

Thomas L. Haysen of Massachusetts and John Temple Graves of Georgia, candidates, respectively, for president and vice-president of the United States on the Independence party ticket, will deliver several speeches in Texas late in September.

Herman Ridder, editor of the New York Staats Zeitung and who is believed by his intimate friends to cherish an ambition to head the Democratic national ticket at some future time, is in charge of the publicity bureau at the Democratic headquarters in the East.

If the National Farmers' Union cooperates with the American Federation of Labor in the political campaign, as is reported to be its decision, it should prove a valuable ally.
The union is believed to have a membership of about one million and is splendidly organized, especially throughout the South.

Henry C. Bell, who is the Democratic nominee against Speaker Cannon in the Eighteenth Illinois district, is sixty years old and a war veteran. For many years he has been prominent in politics, serving in the Pension Bureau at Washington under Presidents Cleveland and Harrison. He is mayor of the town of Marshall.

P. H. Morrissey, grand master of the Brotherhood of Railroad Train-men, is among the labor leaders who have endorsed the attitude of the American Federation of Labor in regard to the presidential campaign.
Mr. Morrissey has issued a political statement to the 100,000 members of the organization which he heads asking them to stand by their friends in the November election.

Irvine L. Lenroot, who has defeated John J. Jenkins for the Republican nomination for Congressman in the Eleventh Wisconsin district, while Mr. Jenkins has represented for fourteen years, comes of Swedish stock, and was born in Superior, Wis., in 1869. Active in politics for many years, he was one of the leaders of the Wisconsin legislature in 1901 and was elected speaker. He is a strong supporter of Senator La Follette.

A unique platform has been issued by Dr. Moss Stearn, who is a candidate for the nomination for Congressman from the Third district of Pennsylvania. Among other things Dr.
Stearn believes that women should be prohibited from wearing earrings and compelled to wear skirts at least six inches from the ground, that every man and woman at the age of 50 should be pensioned by the government, and that the Senate should be abolished and likewise the veto power of the President. Dr. Stearn also proclaims his belief in affluence.

FIFTY-FIRST BIRTHDAY OF WILLIAM H. TAFT.
William H. Taft, Republican candidate for President, is 51 years old today. Following is a rapid glance at his notable career:
Born at Auburn, a suburb of Cincinnati, Sept. 15, 1857.
At 17, graduated from Cincinnati high school.
At 21, graduated from Yale; second in the class and class orator.
At 22, studying law in Cincinnati and working as a newspaper reporter.
At 23, graduated at the Cincinnati Law School, dividing first honors.
At 24, assistant prosecuting attorney for Hamilton County, Ohio.
At 25, Collector of Internal Revenue.
At 26, resigned to enter private practice.
At 28, appointed assistant county clerk.
At 29, Judge of the Superior Court of Cincinnati.
At 33, Solicitor General at Washington, under President Harrison.
At 35, United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth District.
At 41, First civil governor of the Philippines.
At 47, Secretary of War in President Roosevelt's cabinet.
At 48, visited Philippines with congressional party and suggested improvements.
At 49, restored order in Cuba as Provisional Governor.
At 50, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.
At 51, republican candidate for President of the United States.

How to Get Strong
P. J. Daly, of 1247 West Congress street, Chicago, tells of a way to become strong. He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Rhodele Bitters that I feel it is my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in fresh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Rhodele Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at W. A. Foye's drug store, 230

Oregon Daily Express, late into-date, President P. L. Kelly, of the Oregon State Dairy Association, has just returned from New York, where he has been in attendance upon the National Convention of the Dairy Instructors, under the sponsorship of the United States government.

THIS IS MY 73D BIRTHDAY

Richard Olney
Richard Olney, eminent as a lawyer and statesman, was born September 15, 1835, in Worcester county, Massachusetts. He was graduated from Brown University in 1856 and from the Harvard Law School in 1858. A year later he was admitted to the bar and began the practice of law in Boston. He became prominent in the Democratic party in Massachusetts early in his career, although he held no public office for many years with the exception of serving one term in the Massachusetts legislature. In 1893 he accepted from President Cleveland the appointment of attorney-general of the United States. He continued to fill that position until June, 1895, when he was made secretary of state.
Since his retirement from the cabinet in 1897, Mr. Olney has taken no active part in politics. In 1904 he was mentioned as a possible candidate for the presidential nomination.
As a lawyer Mr. Olney's success has been that of a counselor rather than as an advocate. He is regarded as a masterly exponent of the law, relying more upon conciseness of expression and clearness of statement rather than upon purely rhetorical effect for the success of his efforts.

They Take the Kinks Out

"I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for many years, with increasing satisfaction. They take the kinks out of stomach, liver and bowels, without fuss or friction," says N. H.
Brown, of Pittsfield, Vt. Guaranteed satisfactory at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store. 25c

The Managers of the Golden West and American Industries Exposition, to be opened at Earl's Court, London, May 1st, 1909, and continue for six months, have asked the co-operation of Oregon through Governor Chamberlain. It is the first industrial exposition of this kind held since 1887. The business carried on between the United States and the United Kingdom comprises one-fifth of the entire commerce of the world, and it is constantly increasing. It is expected that this exhibit will bring together all the present-day achievements in science, invention, handicrafts and trades in the United States.

Advertisements, Like Clocks, Should Keep Running

A store's advertisements tell the people what is "doing" at that store—what is new, what is inviting, why today is a good time to visit the store. People look for the ads to tell them those things just as naturally as they would look at a clock to tell the time.
Sometimes a clock does not run—sometimes a store's ad-does not run. A "run-down" clock or ad are about equally unsatisfactory, unserviceable, misleading.
Curious thing about it is that a merchant who would think it absurd to have a run-down" or out-of-repair clock will, sometimes, deliberately let his ad step running. It's not wise, nor good business, nor defensible on any known grounds—but it is sometimes done.
