TEA

The cost of good tea is so very little: only a third of a cent a cup! a cent-and-a-half or two cents for the family breakfast!

Your grocer returns your money if you don't like Schilling's Best, we pay him.

YOUR EYES

Dr. Franc Lucille Hard, the Eugene optician and refractionist, is permanently located in the new Christian block, corner of Ninth and Willamette streets, where she can be consulted at any time.
She is prepared to examine eyes and treat them according to the latest and best scientific methods.
After a two-years residence in Eugene Dr. Hard has several hundred well satisfied patients who can testify as to her ability to correct all errors of refraction, or eye defects, as well as all muscular anomalies with properly fitted glasses.

CITY NEWS

Dance tonight at armory.
There are rumors of establishing a swimming tank in Eugene for next summer. The proposition may come to a head in a short time.
The rain of last night has not inconvenienced the hop pickers. If it will stop now it will have done good in laying the dust and clearing the vines.

Abe Gilbert, who was injured yesterday at the street car barns by a current of electricity passing through him, is able to be out again and to work.

Fred, the Turk, had to abandon his tamale wagon on account of having to move it out of the fire limits, and will hereafter conduct his business in the rear portion of the Opera House cigar store.

A good many Eugene people are attending the state fair, but it has been generally remarked that not as many are going as in former years. It appears that the fair has not been as extensively advertised as usual.

Charles O. Hudson, E. M. Cooper, Billy Welch and Thos. Welch returned Sunday from their hunt on Warner mountain on the upper Willamette. They killed three deer and two bear and report having a splendid time.

The semaphore at the depot which has been down since the work of building the new depot commenced in April will be put up again at once. It will be located between the main track and the passing track directly opposite the operator's window.

The reception to be given by the promotion department of the Commercial Club tomorrow night will be only for the members of the club and their wives, contributors to the promotion work and the members of the ladies' auxiliary. Jack Rodman and Dr. Whitson have charge of the affair.

Mrs. Geo. H. Smith received a letter from her husband this morning stating that the party which he is with on a hunt on the south fork of the McKenzie had just arrived in camp with four deer which they had killed. They expect to arrive home in about a week. The other members of the party are William Renshaw, Harry Dunbar and Fred Ware.

The city council last night granted permission for the stringing of electric light wires from the Campbell-Fellman housefurnishing store to Julius Goldsmith's cigar store. This is for the private electric light plant to be installed by the Campbell-Fellman Company, as mentioned by The Guard some time ago. The plant will be put in within a week or so and will cost in the neighborhood of $1000.

The seven-year-old son of William Kloster, of Dexter, was thrown from a horse at his home yesterday evening and suffered a very bad fracture of the forearm. He was brought to Eugene and Dr. F. E. Selover attended the injury. The boy had to be placed under the influence of an anesthetic while the bones were being set, the break was so severe. The maple trees on Oak street at the Davies building are being cut down so a cement walk can be laid there.

A Paying Investment

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland avenue, Houlton, Me., says: "I have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50-cent bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. Before that was half gone the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store, 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

TEACHERS' MEETING

A general meeting of all teachers of the Eugene public schools is hereby called for Saturday, September 19, at 2 p. m., in the high school assembly room.
Following the general meeting the principals will meet with the teachers of their respective buildings.
GUY C. STOCKTON, Superintendent.
