WILL TEST NEAR BEER ORDINANCE IN THE COURTS

DEALERS MEET AND AGREE TO INVITE ARREST SO THAT TEST MAY BE MADE—THEY EMPLOY J. M. PIPES AND A. C. WOODCOCK AS ATTORNEYS.

Jos. Miceoli, the Roseburg brewer, who has been doing a big business in Eugene with his near beer, arrived here last evening and after an interview with the several dealers here he met them collectively during the evening. After a thorough discussion of the matter it was decided to employ attorneys and to keep on selling the drink so an arrest would be made with a view of testing the validity of the ordinance in the courts. It is said that two of the dealers began selling the drink this morning, as usual, but others were willing that someone else should be the one to go into court.

Attorneys A. C. Woodcock and J. M. Pipes were retained to defend those arrested. As the city attorney is out of town no arrests were made today, but Chief of Police Farrington says he will probably attend to the matter tomorrow.

SECOND DAY OF STATE FAIR GREAT SUCCESS

Salem, Sept. 16.—Notwithstanding indications of unfavorable weather yesterday, the attendance at the State Fair exceeded that of the same date last year, and every department was traversed by a throng of interested and highly pleased visitors. The present assurance of clear weather, and it is certain that the remaining days of the fair, Wednesday being Salem day, Thursday Portland day and Friday Agricultural College day, the crowds will tax the capacity of the fair buildings.

All day yesterday judges were busy awarding premiums in the livestock department, but this work will not be completed until today. The work of judging the dairy exhibits and country exhibits has not been commenced. Among the important awards made today were the grand championships in the Shorthorn and Holstein breeds. W. O. Minor's Golden Goods won the championship among the Shorthorn bulls, and his Unwood Lass the same position among females. John L. Smith, proprietor of the Hazelwood herd, won the Holstein grand championship for his bull, Posh Gerben and cow Wanita Mercedes. The Jersey awards will be made tomorrow.

Yesterday's Races. California horses again carried off the honors in the second day's racing of the Oregon State Fair meet yesterday, and again straight-heat victories were the rule.

Showing a wonderful burst of speed at the finish of each heat, Emly W., the fast trotting mare owned and driven by E. E. Ward of Los Angeles, California, easily won the Farmer's stake of $1000 for 2:16 trotters, the main event on yesterday's program. The time of the three heats was excellent, and that of the second, 2:12 1-2 was within less than a second of the track record for trotters.
The 2:20 pace furnished another victory for the California contingent and this time it was S'ara, the brown gelding owned by C. J. Uhl, of Vacaville, California, that showed his heels to the field. The time made in the race was fast for the 2:20 class, 2:03 1-2 having been hung up in the first heat.
