

Do You Want to be a United States Senator?

Up in Washington an effort is being made to defeat a U. S. Senator for re-election, one of the major charges against him being that he is non-progressive and never improved his home town by "nailing two boards together or laying one brick on another."

NOW is the time for you to remove one obstacle to your successful candidacy by building a home for yourself or some homeless would-be renter.

BRYAN CLUB MEETS FRIDAY NIGHT

A rousing meeting of the East Eugene Bryan Club will be held Friday evening September 18, at 8 o'clock at the Fairmount Hall. There will be another meeting for the purpose of comparing platforms of leading parties. Mr. Slatery will present the Republican platform, and Jerome Sweeney will present the democratic platform. If time permits open discussion will be allowed.
While this is a Bryan Club, all men of all parties are welcome. The idea is to seek information that is right and best.

MARRIED
At 5 p. m. Wednesday, Sept. 16, 1908, at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. D. E. Baker in Eugene, Willard E. Gray and Miss May Lynch, both of Junction City,

WILL CARRY "NEAR" BEER CASE TO CIRCUIT COURT

Charles Kuthe of the firm of Kuthe & Boddy, cigar dealers, who was arrested yesterday afternoon for violating the new "near" beer ordinance, appeared in the police court this morning at 10 o'clock and entered a plea of guilty. Time for sentence was fixed by Acting Police Judge Bryson at Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

It is the intention of the dealers who handle the "near" beer to carry the case up to the circuit court on a writ of review, each one sharing the expenses of the case. The several brewers who furnish the local dealers with the drink will also contribute to the fund.

AMUSEMENTS

Hooligan, made famous by the comic newspapers has been transferred to the stage and will be given a representation on September 17 at the Eugene theatre. It is a comedy drama and has been vitalized by Sam Morris in a highly satisfactory manner; in fact it is asserted that Mr. Morris' stage version of Hooligan and his adventures is one of the most able, laughable and interesting plays seen in many a day, and one that would score anywhere even if the hero of the cartoons were not the central figure. A splendid company of comedians, singers and specialties are with Hooligan, and the entire press wherever they have appeared are unanimous in declaring Hooligan, and his coterie of funmakers an emphatic hit.

A welcome announcement to local theater-goers will be the forthcoming engagement of the well-known and popular German dialect comedians, Kolb & Dill, in their New York and San Francisco success, "Lonesome Town." These clever German dialecticians will appear at the Eugene theatre tomorrow night. "Lonesome Town" was an unmistakable success not only on this coast but in New York, Chicago and all of the prominent cities of the east. It ran for four months at the Circle theatre, New York City, playing to packed houses and this has been the rule whenever Kolb & Dill have since appeared in this laugh-producer.

"Lonesome Town" is a comedy set to music and it is a distinct novelty in its particular line. The late Judson C. Brasie wrote it and the humor is as keen and pungent as the most critical playgoer could desire. The story deals with the laughable attempt on the part of several impostors to claim the town of Walnut

DIED.

William J. Kays of Granville, Pa., oldest brother of I. W. Kays, of Eugene, died at his home September 16, 1908 of paralysis. Mr. Kays was a prominent farmer and stock raiser. He was 65 years of age.

There are more than forty people in the company and the cast numbers among others the Broadway prima-donna, Maude Lambert and Billy Clifford, Charlotte Vidot, Edward Gorman, J. A. Raynes. Miss Lambert has been a Broadway idol for several years and her song-hits in "Lonesome Town" are still being whistled in the great metropolis. Messrs. Kolb & Dill promise us the New York production in every particular from principals to chorus, as well as the same elaborate scenery and gorgeous costumes which were one of the many features of the long run at the Circle theatre.

NEW HEAD OF MINING DEPARTMENT AT U. O.

F. L. Barker, A. B., E. M. has been elected as professor of mining engineering at the University of Oregon to take the place of Professor Terrill, who has gone to the University of Idaho. Professor Barker obtained his A. B. degree from Colgate University and his E. M. (Mining Engineering), degree from the Colorado School of Mines. He has had practical experience as superintendent of mines in Colorado and in experting mines in Montana. He has taught six years. He is one of the best known mining men in the Middle West.

LANE COUNTY AWARDED SECOND PLACE AT THE FAIR.

Salem, Sept. 17.—The awards in the county exhibit competition were announced late last evening, and resulted in a tie for Marion and Benton counties. But as Marion, owing to her advantage in being the home county, does not enter into competition with the others, the first premium goes to Benton. Lane takes second place on the list. The awards were made by points and the committee to decide the merits of the exhibits was composed of Chas. Cleveland, F. H. Scribner and A. L. Swartz. The points awarded for each county were as follows:
Marion, 100; Benton, 100; Lane, 84; Yamhill, 90; Multnomah, 83; Polk, 84; Columbia, 75; Clatsop, 74.
