TODAY'S REPORT OF CAMPAIGN EVENTS

to the doors, with several thousands on the outside unable to gain admittance. Mr. Bryan was accorded a great demonstration.

Plays Roosevelt and Taft.

Mr. Bryan's journey through the Empire State was a triumphant one. Everywhere along the lines of the West Shore and New York Central roads immense crowds turned out and greeted him with cheers, hand-clapping and the waving of flags and banners. At each place a speech was insisted on and when he had got through for the day he had spoken 17 times.

He never lost an opportunity to flay both Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft. Mr. Taft, he characterized as "President Roosevelt's appointee," and declared that Mr. Roosevelt's endorsement of Mr. Taft was "the endorsement of the bankrupt against whom one could not collect."

Utica, the home town of Representative James S. Sherman, Republican nominee for Vice-President, vied with the other places in the greeting of Mr. Bryan and he made a short speech to a crowd at the depot.

Ovation at Syracuse.

The passage of the train through Washington Street, in Syracuse, a distance of over a mile, was memorable. Bryan and Kern pictures were everywhere displayed, cannon booming and a surging mass of humanity followed the car until it stopped in the downtown section of the city.

Mr. Chamber, who was in an automobile, was wedged in by the crowd, but seeing him, Mr. Bryan and several others reached out and held him onto the train. Mr. Bryan graciously put the gubernatorial nominee in the front and announced that before he himself would speak, he wanted to "give the house and pleasure of introducing to you the next Governor of the State of New York."

Mr. Chamber bowed to the throngs and great applause and then Mr. Bryan said a glowing tribute to the city.

In addition to the plaudits of the throngs during the day, the Democratic candidates were showered with bouquets and several campaign contributions of considerable size were handed to him.
