

FORKER ADMITS HE WAS ATTORNEY FOR STANDARD OIL CO.

Sept. 18.—That he had represented the company in any way since.

Can't Find Record.

Columbus, Sept. 19.—A hasty search of the supreme court books has failed to find any record showing that Senator Foraker appeared for the Standard Oil Co. in any cases brought against that company in 1889 or 1890.

Archibold Don't Know.

New York, Sept. 12.—John D. Archibold, vice-president of the Standard Oil Co., was not in his office today. Other officials said that they knew nothing of the charges made by Hearst in his address at Columbus last night.

BRITISH GENERAL DRIVEN TO DEATH BY ACCUSATIONS

Waterbury, England, Sept. 18.—Major General Charles Edward Luard, retired, whose wife was mysteriously murdered near London August 24, committed suicide today by throwing himself in front of a railroad train. He had been accused in letters of being responsible for his wife's death, and he left a note saying he could no longer stand the strain of the awful accusations.

An expert testified that the bullets which caused the death of Mrs. Luard could not have been fired from any of General Luard's revolvers.

STEAMER COLON SUPPERS FROM STORM

Colon, Sept. 1.—The steamship Colon, half mastered and showing evidence of rough experience in the hurricane of Sunday, limped into port today. Three of the crew lost their lives while engaged in the hold repairing the water tank.

ACCIDENT TO BROTHER SHOCKS WILBUR WRIGHT

AERONAUT NOW EXPERIMENTING IN FRANCE—WILL POSTPONE FLIGHTS FOR PRESENT—INJURED MAN IS REPORTED DOING WELL AT HOSPITAL AND IS EXPECTED TO RECOVER.

Lemans, France, Sept. 18.—Wilbur Wright was shocked by the accident to his brother's aeroplane, which resulted in the death of Lieutenant Thomas Selfridge, who was sailing with him, and in the breaking of several ribs and the thigh of Wright, is doing well at the hospital today.

The propeller broke mid-air, a piece of it injuring the rudder so that the machine was unmanageable. Wright did his best to right matters but could not regain control and the machine crashed to the ground, burying the two aeronauts in the debris.

Selfridge died a few hours later from an injury to the skull and base of the brain.

When the machine fell soldiers and spectators ran across the field to where the aeroplane had fallen and assisted in lifting Mr. Wright and Lieutenant Selfridge from under the tangled mass of machinery, rods, wires and shreds of metal. Mr. Wright was conscious and said: "Oh, hurry and lift the motor."

Lieutenant Selfridge was unconscious. His head was covered with blood and he was choking when the soldiers extricated him from under machine.

Dr. Watters, a New York physician, was one of the first to reach the spot and rendered first aid to the injured men. When their wounds had been bandaged, Mr. Wright and Lieutenant Selfridge were taken to Fort Myer Hospital at the other end of the field. Mr. Wright lapsed into a state of semi-consciousness by the time he reached the hospital, but Lieutenant Selfridge did not regain consciousness at all.

FORMER JUDGE DIES PENNILESS AND ALONE

Los Angeles, Sept. 18.—Penniless and deserted by friends, Charles G. Vanfleet, former superior court judge of Colorado, at one time a candidate for congress, committed suicide last night by drinking cyanide potassium in a cheap lodging house. In one hand was found a letter from his wife dated at San Jacinto, as follows: "Dear Charles: Send us money. We are hungry and the boy has no clothes. Yesterday a friend gave me twenty-five cents and I bought bread for him. We are nearly starving; send us money; send only a dollar if you have no more."

Yesterday he received another appealing letter from his wife, but when it was handed him by the hotel clerk and he saw who it was from he handed it back unopened. He also received a discouraging letter from a law firm from whom he had asked help to secure a judicial position near San Jacinto.

He pawned his watch to secure money with which to buy poison.

TAFT WILLING TO MEET BRYAN SAYS MR. DIXON

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Taft and Bryan will meet at the Chicago Association of Commerce banquet on October 7, according to the announcement made today by Chairman Dixon of the Republican speakers' bureau and it is possible they may meet at Galesburg during same day. Taft accepted an invitation to speak there and Bryan will be invited.

"This talk that Taft does not care to meet Bryan is all twaddle," said Dixon.

"Taft's date in Chicago was canceled because of the Galesburg affair, but when he found he could reach Chicago in time for the banquet by special train, the original plan was adhered to."

BRYAN INVADERS LITTLE DELAWARE.

Wilmington, Del., Sept. 17.—Carrying his campaign into Delaware after a jump over night and today of 500 miles from Rochester, N. Y., William J. Bryan, democratic candidate for President, twice assailed the Republican party for being, as he charged, in the grasp of the corporation and more particularly the wool trust, which he for the first time said was the enemy of the people in the United States now on, and also denounced the men who he said had sold their suffrage to Delaware.

Delivers Two Speeches.

His first onslaught was delivered at Harrington, a town of 2500 people, but whose population was augmented by thousands of others who had been attracted there by the presence of the Democratic leader. Tonight he repeated his utterances at Shell Pot Park to a throng which taxed the capacity of the place.

While in the city Mr. Bryan was the guest at dinner of Judge George Gray. Mr. Bryan will leave in the morning at 6:30 a. m. on his special over the Pennsylvania Railroad for New York, starting there about midnight. He will spend the evening connecting with his party leaders, including at 8:30 with a speech at Carnegie Hall on "Republican Treachery."

No Man Deliberately Buys Poor Clothes

He thinks they're good; worth the money, or he doesn't want them. Just the same, men are paying their good money for cheap clothes—mixed goods—and they think they're being real economical because they get such clothes for little less than all-wool would cost.

This cotton mixed stuff is certainly very deceptive, even expert clothing men find it difficult at times to tell whether or not the fabric has gotten to it. We've seen clothes that looked good enough to sell at $20 which were over one-half cotton and really worth about $6 the suit.

We sell no such time-worn stuff.

You know what Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes are, so do we.

The makers say "All-wool" and live up to it.

Boys School Suits $1.50 to $6.00
