COTTAGE GROVE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Horn—To Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Miner, September 19, 1908, a ten pound boy.

A Taft Club is being organized in Cottage Grove. Only preliminary arrangements have as yet been made, and no regular meetings have been held, but a large number of republicans have signified their intention of joining and the first meeting will be announced next week.

The steel ceilings are now being placed in position in the lower stories of the new Phillips brick block and the outside steel cornice and decorative work has already been completed. The building when finished will make a fine showing on Main street.

Married—In Arkansas last week, Mr. Will Garrett, of Albany, Oregon, and Miss Maude Beatty of the same place. The Beatty's formerly resided in Cottage Grove where they are well known, the old gentleman, "Dummy" having conducted a shoe shop here.

Attorney Lark Blyden of Eugene, will address the citizens of Cottage Grove on the national issues of the day from a democratic standpoint at the Masonic Hall Saturday evening. At the conclusion of the address a Bryan Club will be organized.

Conditions in the industrial circles of Cottage Grove are better than they were in 1907 or for some years before. Note a concrete illustration. Last year the Cottage Grove Manufacturing Company was doing a little business with one employe. Manager Jones was rustling about making a hand part of the time, for there was not enough to keep him in the office. Now he is kept busy in the drafting room, employs a foreman in the shop and ten men to operate the various machines. Two years ago, the factory was idle part of the time—Leader and Western Oregon.

KILLED DEER WITH A ROCK

The Guard yesterday mentioned the fact that a Cottage Grove man had killed a deer with a rock. The Western Oregon of that city tells of it as follows:

In the days of long, long ago, when slings were in vogue, possibly little comment would have been made on the following stunt, but we, of later days, who are more modernly provided with hunting utensils, can truly regard this with awe:

Andrew Brand of the local grocery firm of Metcalf & Brand was hunting in the wilds around Bohemia this week. He had carried plenty of ammunition and firearms for its discharge, but somehow had failed to catch a glimpse of his four-footed game and was about to give up the hunt as a bad job. So straightway he placed his gun on the shelf and cast thoughts of nice juicy venison from his mind.

One day early this week he happened to be passing through a dense underbrush when he spied a deer, a dandy big fellow, who looked at him with aggravating eyes. With no gun at hand he thought things of the star that was guiding his luck for the day. The only available object with which he might inflict injury to the deer was a big rock close by. With no alternative, he concluded to take a chance anyway, and so let fly at his deership, striking him in a vital spot.

Whether it was from fright or the effect of the rock we are not prepared to say, but the deer succumbed on the spot. As a consequence, members of the party have had deer steaks and we learn that Mr. Brand has traded his gun for salt and rocks claiming that either has his gun faded in the Bohemia district. It is reported, not very extensively, however, that the deer was unusually large, but we shall learn more on return of the party.

A MEASURE OF MERIT. Eugene Citizens Should Weigh Well This Evidence.

Proof of merit lies in the evidence. Convincing evidence in Eugene. Is not the testimony of strangers. But the endorsement of Eugene people.

That's the kind of proof given here.

The statement of a Eugene citizen, L. Bonney, 459 Olive St., Eugene, Ore., says: "I have suffered from backache for a good many years. My trouble was severe pains in the back which caused me a great deal of suffering. My kidney secretions were irregular, unnatural in appearance and of much annoyance. At night my sleep was greatly broken on account of the frequent action of the secretions. I tried many remedies but obtained no relief until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at W. L. Delano's drug store. After I had used one box I received great relief and on continuing their use my troubles quickly disappeared. I take great pleasure in expressing my appreciation of Doan's Kidney Pills."
