

Do You Want to be a United States Senator?

Up in Washington an effort is being made to defeat a U. S. Senator for re-election, one of the major charges against him being that he is non-progressive and never improved his home town by "nailing two boards together or laying one brick on another."

NOW is the time for you to remove one obstacle to your successful candidacy by building a home for yourself or some homeless would-be renter.

EUGENE, OREGON

FOR SALE, EXCHANGE OR LEASE

Having concluded to retire from the lumber business I offer for sale, lease or will exchange for Eugene or Portland income property, my saw-mill, sawmill site, booms, lumber sheds, office, planer, dry kilns and all tools connected with the business. Mill located at river bridge in the centre of Eugene city, east and west, and only three blocks from the S. P. R. R.

This is a fine opportunity for some one to go into the lumber business, as there is always a big local demand for all slabwood, sawdust, shavings, cull lumber, as well as the better grades of lumber. Logs are cheap, labor cheap, lumber high.

A good millman can make this property pay for itself in two years, and if he will operate day and night in one year. Greatest opportunity in this part of Oregon for a mill man; best located mill in the state. Capacity, 20,000 feet in ten hours.

When you have this mill you are at the market. Planer and dry kiln —everything needed to make lots of lumber and lots of money. Give this your early attention if interested in a lumber proposition. I am sure you cannot beat it in the state. The quicker you act the surer you are of making your fortune, for this is a chance in a lifetime.

GOVERNOR HASKELL DENIES CONNECTION

Archbold letter, made public last night in St. Louis by Hearst, was received by Senator Foraker, and on the failure of the attempt to buy that paper the draft was returned and the incident forgotten, according to a statement made to the Associated Press by the Senator here today.

Taft Will Keep Out.
Cincinnati, Sept. 18.—Judge Taft maintains his determination not to be drawn into the Hearst-Foraker controversy.

Taft To Break With Machine.
W. R. Hearst's exposure of Mr. Foraker's connection with the Standard Oil trust, it is said by those on the inside, will result in Mr. Taft's again breaking with the Hamilton County machine, headed by George B. Cox. Just the other day Mr. Taft agreed to meet Messrs. Cox, Hynicka and Hermann and confer regarding the campaign in Hamilton County. It is now believed that Mr. Taft and his advisers say that the candidates will repudiate Mr. Cox, cutting loose from the machine.

Mr. Foraker sent word to the headquarters tonight that he would willingly stay away from the meeting of the League of Republican Clubs if his presence in any way would embarrass the candidate. Mr. Taft has not replied to this statement but it is expected that a statement will be issued tomorrow declaring that the Republican candidate has repudiated Mr. Foraker, Mr. Cox and the machine that he denounced in his speech at Akron a few years ago.

LETTERS WHICH WERE READ BY MR. HEARST.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 18.—Letters from John A. Archbold, of the Standard Oil Company, to Senator Joseph B. Foraker, two of them enclosing drafts for large sums of money, and all urging the senator to oppose certain objectionable legislation, were read by W. R. Hearst at a meeting in support of the candidacy of Thomas L. Hisgen, independent party candidate for president, last night. The letters were all dated in 1900, and speak of a certain clause of a bill as "very objectionable," and of another bill as "so outrageous as to be ridiculous."

Another letter read by Mr. Hearst was from Representative Joseph C. Sibley, of Pennsylvania, to Mr. Archbold and speaks of an interview he had with President Roosevelt in which he advised the president not to offend the Standard Oil Company, and said no man should win who depended upon "the rabble."

demonstration against the whole bill, but certainly the ninth clause, to which Mr. Elliot refers, should be stricken out, and the same is true of House Bill No. 500, also introduced by Mr. Price, in relation to foreign corporations, in which the same objectionable clause occurs.

"I am glad to hear that you think that the situation is fairly well in hand. Very truly yours,
"JOHN D. ARCHBOLD."
"Hon. Joseph B. Foraker, Washington, D. C."

$15,000 To Foraker.
"26 Broadway, New York, March 26, 1900.—Hon. Joseph B. Foraker, 1500 Sixteenth Street, Washington, D. C.—Dear Senator—In accordance with our understanding, I now beg to inclose you a certificate of deposit to your favor for $15,000. Kindly acknowledge by the receipt and oblige, Yours Very Truly,
"JOHN D. ARCHBOLD."

"26 Broadway, New York, February 15, 1900.—My Dear Senator—Here is another very objectionable bill. It is so outrageous as to be ridiculous, but it needs to be looked after and I hope there will be no difficulty in killing it.

"Am anxious to hear from you as to the situation as a whole. Yours very truly,
"JOHN D. ARCHBOLD."
"Hon. J. B. Foraker, 1500 Sixteenth street, Washington, D. C."

"You will see, gentlemen, that these letters are not read at random, but they have a natural sequence. Here is the next:

"26 Broadway, New York, April 17, 1900.—My Dear Senator—I inclose you a certificate of deposit to your favor of $14,500. We are greatly at a loss in this matter, but I send you this and will be glad to have a very frank talk with you when the opportunity offers, if you so desire.

"I need scarcely again express our great gratification over the favorable outcome of affairs. Very truly yours,
"JOHN D. ARCHBOLD."

STATEMENT FROM JOHN D. ARCHBOLD.

New York, Sept. 18.—John D. Archbold, of the Standard Oil Company, made the following statement today:

"Such correspondence and relations as I have had years ago with Senator Foraker were entirely proper and legitimate.

"I Mr. Hearst had come to me direct, it would probably have cost him less to secure copies of my correspondence than for Mr. Hearst to have either employed or dealt with thieves."

Mr. Archbold characterizes Mr. Hearst's statements regarding an alleged attempt to bribe ex-Attorney-General Monnett of Ohio as pure fiction, and says they were answered and exploded long ago.

"As to the statements alleging relations between Governor Haskell of Oklahoma and the Standard Oil Company and contributions through him or anyone else to the Demo-
