

INSTANT RELIEF OF ITCHING HUMOR

Limbs Below the Knees Were Raw—Feet Too Swollen to Get Shoes On—Sleep Completely Broken by Intense Itching and Burning—Well in Two Days and Says That

CUTICURA IS AMONG HIS HOUSEHOLD GODS

"God bless the man who first compounded Cuticura. Some two months ago I had a humor break out on my limbs below my knees. They came to look like raw beefsteak, all red, and no one knows how they itched and burned. They were so swollen that I had to split my drawers open to get them on and could not get my shoes on for a week or more. I used five or six different remedies and got no help, only when applying them the burning was worse and the itching less. One morning I remembered that I had a bit of Cuticura and tried it. From the moment it touched me the itching was gone and I have not felt a bit of it since. The swelling went down and in two days I had my shoes on and was about as usual. I only wish I had used the Cuticura Remedies in the first of my troubles. They would have saved me two or three weeks of intense suffering. During that time I did not sleep an hour at a time, but was up applying such remedies as I had. Henceforth the Cuticura Remedies will be among my household gods, rest assured. George B. Farley, 50 South State St., Concord, N. H., May 14, 1907."

POWDER TRUST SUIT OPENS IN FEDERAL COURT

Wilmington, Del., Sept. 22.—William G. Mahaffey, the special referee appointed by Judge Gray of the United States Circuit Court of the District of Delaware, today began the taking of evidence in the suit begun by the Government against the so-called Powder trust. The principal defendant in the case is D. E. I. du Pont de Nemours Company of Delaware. Also involved are about thirty other powder concerns which are alleged to more or less controlled by the Delaware corporation.

The suit is regarded as one of the greatest that the Government has ever brought against a corporation. The capitalization of the powder concerns named in the suit is in excess of $50,000,000. The same principles are involved as in the Government's suit against the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey now in progress. The Powder Trust suit seeks to restrain the thirty or more powder companies controlled by the Du Pont de Nemours company from doing business under an alleged agreement. The suit is brought under the Sherman anti-trust law, and the Government makes the allegation that the powder companies are operating in restraint of trade.

The Government's complaint is that an association composed of practically all the manufacturers of gunpowder and other high explosives in the United States was formed in 1872, the object being the elimination of all competition between the members of the association. The only companies which did not enter the agreement were the California Powder Works, the Screamore Manufacturing Company and the Lake Superior Powder Company, but, according to the government's complaint, these three companies afterward became parties to what is termed "the combination and conspiracy in restraint of trade and commerce."

MEETING OF IRISH LEAGUE IN BOSTON

Boston, Mass., Sept. 22.—The convention of the United Irish League of America had a brilliant opening in Faneuil Hall today. President Michael J. Ryan of Philadelphia called the gathering to order and presided over the session. Archbishop O'Connell delivered the prayer, and welcomes were extended in behalf of the State of Massachusetts and the city of Boston. The honored guests of the occasion were John Redmond and Joseph Devlin, members of Parliament and leaders in the Irish movement. Taxing the capacity of the hall was an attendance of delegates who came from all parts of the United States and Canada.

The present convention will be in session three days. President Ryan, in his address, pointed out that since the last convention of the United States Irish League was held in Philadelphia, the cause of Ireland has made substantial progress in the British Parliament. Among the measures passed were bills providing comfortable cottages with one-acre allotments for 30,000 agricultural laborers, conferring marked benefits on town tenants and repealing the coercion law, known as the arms act. The constant agitation of years has resulted also in the practical settlement of the Irish University question and for the first time in three centuries the Catholic youth of Ireland are enabled to enjoy educational facilities on a basis substantially equal to that of their Protestant fellow-countrymen.

Notice to Delinquent Taxpayers

Delinquent taxpayers will take notice that delinquent taxes will not be advertised as heretofore; under a law passed by the last legislature of this state taxes that are delinquent after the expiration of six months from the first date of such delinquency may be paid by any one demanding to pay same and a certificate of delinquency will be issued to such party.

Section 27 of said law, in part, reads: "Any day after the expiration of six months after taxes charged against real property are delinquent the tax collector shall have the right, and it shall be his duty, upon demand and payment of the taxes, penalty and interest, to make out and issue a certificate or certificates of delinquency against such property." and section 28, in part reads: "Certificates of delinquency shall bear interest from the date of issuance until redeemed at the rate of 15 per cent per annum."

Delinquent taxpayers are therefore advised that if they have not paid at least one-half of their taxes on or before the first Monday in April that the same are delinquent and have been delinquent since said first Monday in April, and those who have paid one-half of their taxes as above the remaining one-half will become delinquent after the first Monday in October, and six months from such date a certificate of delinquency bearing fifteen per cent interest per annum may be issued against your property.

To save further costs, penalties and interest you are earnestly requested to settle the same at once. H. L. BOWN, Sheriff and Tax Collector.

ROOSEVELT TELLS RAYNER FAULTS OF COL. STEWART

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 21.—In a letter dated May 6, sent to Senator Rayner, of Maryland, in reply to an inquiry, President Roosevelt gives at length the reasons of the war department and himself for the exile of Colonel Stewart to an abandoned fort in Arizona. This letter has been given the senator with permission to publish. In part it says:

"My Dear Senator Rayner: I have received your letter of May 3, and also the letter you wrote to the secretary of war in reference to the case of Colonel W. F. Stewart. The facts are as follows:

Wants to Be General
"I made a careful investigation of the case of Colonel Stewart. I have before me the report of the judge advocate general upon it and full report by Major-General Duvall, and have looked at the original reports of Generals Grant, Murray and others. It appears that Colonel Stewart has been 41 years in the army, having entered it when very young, so he is now entitled to retire, having served 40 years. He refuses to retire unless he is made a brigadier-general.

"Nuisance in Service"
"I shall certainly not make him a brigadier-general because he is grossly unfit, not merely to be a brigadier-general, but to hold his present rank in the army. His career has not been distinguished for a number of years; his usefulness has been diminishing. Indeed, it has not only irrevocably passed, but he is a nuisance in the service, being both incompetent and temperamentally unfit to exercise command over enlisted men, or to control other officers, or to behave with propriety when brought in contact with civilians.

Known as "Impossible"
"As General Duvall reports, it is well known throughout the artillery service that Colonel Stewart is an 'impossible' commanding officer, and he is a man who in civil life under no circumstances could have risen to any position of influence or authority over his fellows. During the last three years the trouble with Colonel Stewart has reached a climax.

Failed to Detect Graft
"In 1906, when he was in command at Fort Williams, Maine, an officer of his command, a quartermaster, was court-martialed, dismissed from the army and sentenced to the penitentiary for the perpetration of most outrageous frauds upon the government, which had extended over a considerable period of time. Apparently all this went on almost under the very eyes of Colonel Stewart, but he failed to detect the crimes of the officer, in so doing being culpably remiss in exercising supervision over his subordinates.

Wrangled With Civilians
"At the same place he became embroiled with a civilian, Mr. Cushing, a resident of the neighborhood of the military reservation, and the war department was obliged to interfere and stop his wrangling with Mr. Cushing.

"These were only some among the instances of incompetency and temperamental shortcomings which were brought to the attention of the department."

Colonel Stewart's conduct toward enlisted men has been so tyrannical and unjust that the department could not consent to subjecting them to his exclusive control, and therefore Fort Keogh was excluded.

Fort Grant is Healthy
"Fort Brown, at Brownsville, Texas, has been left without a garrison, as Colonel Stewart has been continually embroiled with civilians, it was deemed inadvisable that he should be sent to this particular post. There remained only Fort Grant. It is an entirely healthy post, and the question of its employment as a light artillery post is now under consideration.

In conclusion the president says: Deserves No Consideration

"The facts above given show that Colonel Stewart is entitled to no consideration whatever; that he ought to be retired from the army forthwith and that to adopt any other disposition of the case than that which has actually been adopted would be unfair to the interests of the army, and particularly unfair to the interests of the enlisted men and unjust to the civilians at any post to which he might be assigned.

Opposes Military Trial
"Now, as to your suggestion as to a trial for the reasons given above, and also the memorandum which I herewith forward, there is no point in having a court-martial. At present I do not see how any court of inquiry would express an opinion to which I should give more heed than to the judgment of Generals Wade, Grant, Murray, Duvall and Davis, in accordance with whose recommendations I have acted."
