

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.
Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.
It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.
Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

KILLED TWO BEARS WITH ONE SHOT

G. L. STIDMAN, OF COTTAGE GROVE, HOLDS THE RECORD—GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF SOUTHERN LAKE CITY AND VICINITY

This is no fairy tale, but a true story from real life, and happened near Bohemia last week. G. L. Stidman, the noted bear hunter of that district, was out looking for a shot when he spied two bears playing in the brush. They were indulging in a sort of boxing match, and Mr. Stidman stood and watched the game for several minutes, when he concluded to take a shot, waiting, however, until they stood in line. His opportunity came and he let drive. They both scampered down the hill and the hunter thought for an instant that his shot had gone wild. But seeing one of them stagger and fall, he hastened down and found both lying dead, side by side, the bullet from his rifle having passed through the heads of each.

Mr. Stidman does not claim to be more than an ordinary hunter, but he thinks that up to date he has the best and securely fastened about his person, and is willing to pass it up to any man who can make a better showing. His neighbors claim for him, however, that he is a dead shot, and the killing of both bears at one shot is nothing extraordinary for him. They simply got in line and he did the rest. This makes nine bears Mr. Stidman has killed in the Bohemia district. One of the bears killed last week was brown and the other black.

Stage Runaway
Last Saturday the stage from the Vesuvius mines ran away and a dangerous accident was averted by a small margin. The stage horses became frightened on a long grade and began to plunge madly down the hill, which was very steep. In spite of the efforts of the driver and the brake they could not be stopped, and coming to a turn the horses ran off the road, overturning the rig and throwing the occupants to the ground with great force. Only two passengers happened to be riding that morning, and fortunately neither was very badly injured, aside from numerous bruises. Miss Maggie Brund was returning to her home, and C. T. Long, of the Graham hotel, was returning from a few days' outing up on the Hard property. One of the horses was badly cut, but on the whole it was a very fortunate accident.

News Notes
Rev. A. J. Armstrong and family arrived in this city Saturday from Lakeview, where Mr. Armstrong has been pastor of the M. E. church for several years. The family returned to Cottage Grove by their own private conveyance, coming leisurely over the road, making the trip very pleasant and enjoyable. Owing to Mrs. Armstrong's poor health Rev. Armstrong found it necessary to resign his pastorate in Lakeview and return to this place to reside, which is Mrs. Armstrong's old home, she being a daughter of our pioneer townsman, O. P. Adams.
Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Rees will go to Portland tomorrow, where Mrs. Rees has a damage case pending in the circuit court against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company for severe injuries which she received in a railroad wreck in front of Edgar King's residence north of Cottage Grove almost a year ago. The case has been delayed by legal technicalities from time to time, but it is announced it will be called for final hearing on Thursday of this week.
A number of local Democrats have organized a Bryan club, their first meeting taking place last Saturday evening. About 25 names are on the list of members and it is said they will work along lines to best promote the interests of their selected party. The club has for officers: George Atkinson, president; V. R. Veatch, vice president; W. W. Oglesby, sec. and vice president; H. King, secretary; and D. J. DuBrouille, treasurer. They will go to Eugene this evening to hear speaker Bell from California, on the doctrines of their party.
Doollittle brothers have purchased the donkey logging engine of Jones brothers, and it will be taken to the Cerro-Gordo mill this week. It is a 9x10, and will replace a bull team. The deal included the equipment of line used with the engine.
Miss Lottie Veatch, of Eugene, is in town visiting her sister, Miss Maggie Veatch—Leader and West, on Oregon.

HORRIBLE TALES OF MURDER COME FROM OLD MADRID

Madrid, Sept. 23.—The horrible murders laid at the door of Dr. Agostino Tortosa, Mayor of Alarcon, is charged with killing several persons who have died under extraordinary circumstances. His brother-in-law and mother-in-law perished by suffocation, and it is declared that he placed them in an unventilated room and caused it to be filled with dangerous gases. Three other persons are alleged to have been suffocated by the doctor in his fatal chamber. A young and handsome patient who consulted him was murdered; the body cut to pieces, and thrown into a torrent and the mayor is further said to have killed his landlord by piercing his skull with a pin.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Little Prospector."
It is a pleasing thing to watch the development of a rose-bud from the time when it first bursts its tiny petals, until it reaches maturity, and is transformed by the magic touch of time into a full bloom flower, delighting the eye with its queenly beauty and diffusing ambrosial fragrance around. It is also pleasant to watch the progressive career of a favorite actress from her debut on the stage until she attains assured recognition in the ranks of the profession. "Chic" Perkins who is starring this season in "The Little Prospector," comes of an old theatrical family. Her mother was a valued member of McVickers' famous stock company in the palmy days of the drama in Chicago. "Chic" herself, was the dramatic leader, until she has reached at least the topmost rung and stands securely upon the dizzy heights of popular favor. People who have learned to associate her name with everything fresh, pleasing and breezy and when her coming is announced it always awakens a lively anticipation of enjoyment in the hearts of her friends. In "The Little Prospector" she has found a fitting vehicle for the display of her genius. She will present it at the Eugene Theatre, Thursday, Sept. 24.
