SPORTING NOTES

The Wascana team was an easy winner in the Wascana-Willamette League.

The Williamsport team has won the Tri-State League pennant three times in the last five years.

Jesse Burkett's Worcester team is a three-time pennant winner in the New England League.

All the teams that make up the Eastern League have won a pennant with the exception of Newark.

American Association teams played before the largest crowds this season in the history of the organization.

The South Michigan League race was a hummer, the Saginaw team having to play every minute to cop the pennant.

Jack Sullivan, the star pitcher of Kansas City, refused to work for the Pittsburgh club the last month of the season without pay.

Jack McCarthy and Bill Bernhard, both former big league players, made good as minor league managers this season.

As manager at Montreal last year Malachi Kittredge was a "downer," but this season as pilot of the champion Scranton team, "Kitt" is of the latest pattern and full width.

Burlington and Quincy made a good try for the Central Association pennant, but the two-venue champion Waterloo team proved too strong for them.

Ladies of the G. A. R. are requested to meet at W. O. W. Hall Thursday at 9 a. m., and each bring a pie, a cake, and salad, to assist the corps in entertaining. MARY SMALL, President.

Whereas, my wife, Nellie Gosser, has left my bed and board, I hereby give notice I will not be responsible for any bills incurred by her. FRID P. GOSSER,

J. S. Day returned last week from Eugene, where he had been taking medical treatment. He is much improved in health.

Heard are infesting orchards in this neighborhood, so look out for a scud-like bear story from Ivison soon.

The peach and prune crops at Ivison this season are very light, but the quality is good.

A. Worden and family are moving to a ranch near Halsey, where they will engage in farming. Mr. Worden has lived here 22 years.

W. L. Chastain and family, who reside near Halsey, were up last week visiting relatives at this place.

Mrs. Guard Huston, of Madison, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Owen, for a few days.

Miss Effie Day and Mrs. G. C. Vaugan, who went from here to pick roses in the Edmondson yard, bear Goshen, report a fine time and good wages.

Mrs. Ole Kayser and little daughter, Norma, of Saginaw, are visiting Mrs. Kayser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Owen, for a few days.

A. Posten has a crew of men at work on Notli putting in logs for the Elmira Mill Company.

J. C. Pettit, of Noti, was peddling beef in this neighborhood yesterday.

W. S. Barrow, our road supervisor, will begin the construction of a covered bridge across the Noti creek near his place in a few days.

We understand that Mr. Worden has rented his ranch near here to Mr. Christon, of Elmira, who will move in as soon as Mr. Worden vacates.

W. J. Harrison and family, of Brownsville, are rustivating for a few days in this vicinity. They are very much pleased with the country.

CROW NOTES

(Special Correspondence.) Crow, Sept. 22.—Married, at the home of the bride at Hadleyville, Or., September 22, James Haskins and Miss Cora McDaniel. They have the best wishes of many friends.

Perkins & Son have a crew at work clearing the channel of Coyote creek from the farm of W. J. Canady to their sawmill at the end of the long bridge, preparatory to floating several million feet of logs to it this winter.

John Jenkins has sunk a well 26 feet near his house, finding an abundance of good water. He is now putting in the casing.

Mrs. W. L. Ford and children are expected out from Eugene soon. She will make preparations for the erection of a dwelling on her farm here.

Mr. Sears, who bought the Iuxham farm, raised the frame of his large barn Monday.

Miss Belle Truesdale will teach the Hadleyville school this fall. We are to have rural free delivery beginning with November. A much-needed and long-wished-for improvement.

John Moss has returned from Harney county, where he has been working on a stock ranch. His many friends are glad to greet him again.
