

SEVEN ARE KILLED IN MONTANA WRECK

Sept. 25.—A special distinct from Livingston passenger train No. 16, which left Helena at midnight with a freight train and that 25 persons and a large number injured so that the engineer could not signal the engine successfully. The engine successfully all the casualty car, with the excusive engineer. Engineer was slightly injured and the brakeman killed.

Sept. 25.—A special to
 from Park City, Mont., that seven were killed when the Burlington passenger train, which was wrecked in a freight train at Park City at 8 o'clock.

Point switch, where the trains were to pass. Snow was falling and the freight flagman failed to signal the passenger in time to prevent the smashup. The express car was raised over the platform of the smoker and swept the superstructure, seats and passengers, off. Not a passenger in this car escaped death of injury.
 Other passengers escaped with cuts and bruises. On the train was the Spokane delegation to the National Irrigation congress at Albuquerque, but none was injured.

Express Messenger Leduc, of Spokane, escaped with but a few bruises. Conductor Griffith, of the passenger, was uninjured. He resides at Billings, after setting the brakes, jumped and was not seriously injured. Fireman Ora Hancock jumped and was killed. Milo Parlowat, head brakeman of the Billings train, was killed. It is believed the rest of the passengers and crew were safe. None of the freight crew were hurt.

The scene is beyond description, heads, bodies, legs and arms are in-

YOUNG ELKINS IS SUED BY LOUIS LONSDALE

Philippi, W. Va., Sept. 25.—The filing of a suit for $100,000 damages on the allegation of a promise to marry, by Louise Lonsdale, a New York actress, against Blaine Elkins, youngest son of Senator Stephen B. Elkins, has caused a sensation.

The young man is a brother of Katherine Elkins, reported engaged to the Duke of Abruzzi.

Senator Elkins says that his son denies he promised to marry the young woman.

MUCH PROPERTY BUT FEW LIVES LOST

Newport, Sept. 25.—A wooden cof-ferdam is being constructed around the cruiser Yankee in an effort to get her off Spindle Rock, where she struck on Wednesday, and the work will take almost a week. If the sea remains calm the cruiser may be saved, but heavy seas are likely to pound her upon the rocks and force her abandonment.

SENATOR GORE STANDS BY HASKELL

Seattle, Sept. 25.—I think Governor Haskell is amply able to take care of himself.
 My opinion is the president tackled the wrong man and will get the worst of it before the controversy is ended," said United States Senator Gore, of Oklahoma, today.

The senator said that everybody in Oklahoma knew the Prairie Oil & Gas Company was a branch of the Standard Oil Company, and that the governor's action to have the injunction dismissed was sustained by the state supreme court; that the attorney general exceeded his authority in the absence of the governor and had no right to have brought the injunction proceedings.

Governor Haskell vetoed the child labor bill because it went to extremes, and his action was endorsed by all the labor unions of the state.

A company has been organized at Roseburg to purchase all available fruit lands in that county, cut them up into 10-acre tracts and dispose of them to Eastern people who are daily arriving in search of permanent homes.

HASKELL ASSAILS ROOSEVELT AND IS IN FIGHTING MOOD

Kansas City, Sept. 25.—Governor Haskell, treasurer of the Democratic National committee, passed through Kansas City today enroute to Chicago, where he will confer with Bryan and the Democratic leaders regarding the charges made against him by President Roosevelt and W. R.
 Hearst. Asked as to the report that he intended to resign the treasurership of the national committee he said:

"There is absolutely nothing in it. Of course, I will admit that recent developments necessitated a little haste in my going to Chicago, but resignation is out of the question. It is simply the Republican press that is roaring, and well they might when they hold a special cabinet session at the White House about me."

Haskell denied the story of Edward L. Oppenheim, the New York banker, that he occupied a box with Oppenheim at the gold Democratic meeting in Madison Square garden in 1906, and that Haskell waved his hat every time Bryan was attacked at the meeting. He said he was never in Madison Square garden.

"I notice," said Haskell, "that Secretary Garfield has taken the matter in hand with the Prairie Oil Company. He ought to know the matter very well, for I took occasion to call him down last summer when he tried to give the oil company special privileges in laying an interstate gas line. It is getting to be an edifying example when the president mixes in personalities. Early in the summer we were to have a ladylike campaign. The president is the biggest four-flusher in the political business today. You ought to hear what they think of the rascol down in Oklahoma."

HASKELL EXPLAINS TO ASSOCIATED PRESS

Guthrie, Sept. 25.—Governor Haskell gave out the following statement last night:

"To the Associated Press: President Roosevelt's letter is before me, and while this is the first time in my life I have been made the subject of a cabinet meeting, I am thankful for the distinction and wish to express my high regard for the office

 SOCIATION

The most successful reunion ever held by the Lane County Veterans' Association, in point of attendance, closed this forenoon with the business meeting. One hundred and forty-old soldiers registered their names with the secretary of the association during the three days' reunion. A good many have died during the year but others have come from the East and some who have not attended the previous reunions were here this time.

The election of officers for the ensuing year took place at the business vice president; J. H. Pratt, third tary; L. Gilstrap, treasurer.

Eugene was chosen as the next meeting place of the reunion, the exact date to be fixed later, although it will be in September.

Last Night's Campfire

A large crowd attended the exercises at the courthouse last evening.
 Addresses and music prevailed, May-

 Mercer and L. M. Travis being the principal speakers. There were sessions by a quartet and songs of a patriotic nature by the audience. The evening was well spent and enjoyed by all in attendance.

FRANKLIN UNION IS DEDICATED IN BOSTON

Boston, Mass., Sept. 25.—One hundred and eighteen years after the death of Benjamin Franklin, the city of Boston today came into possession of a handsome bequest left by that far-sighted statesman-philosopher in loving remembrance of the city of his birth. After the lapse of more than a century, during which time the modest bequest of Franklin had grown to large proportions, the Franklin Union has become an accomplished fact. The handsome building erected at the corner of Berkeley and Appleton streets, and which will stand for years to come as a permanent memorial to the practical wisdom of the donor, was dedicated this afternoon with interesting exercises.

The clause in Benjamin Franklin's will which resulted in the erection of the Franklin Union was as follows:

"I was born in Boston, New England, and owe my first instructions in literature to the Free Grammar Schools established there. I have therefore already considered these schools in my will. But I am also under obligations to the state of Massachusetts for having unasked appointed me formerly their Agent in England with a handsome salary, which continued some years. I have considered that among Artisans good Apprentices are most likely to make good Citizens, and having myself been bred to a manual Art Printing, in my native Town, and afterward assisted to set up my business in Philadelphia by kind loan of money from two Friends there, which was the foundation of my Fortune, and of all the utility in life that may be ascribed to me, I wish to be useful even after my Death, if possible, in forming and advancing other young men that may be serviceable to their Country in both those Towns. To this End I devote Two Thousand Pounds Sterling, which I give, one thousand thereof to the Inhabitants of the Town of Boston, in Massachusetts, and the other thousand to the Inhabitants of the City of Phila.—a, in Trust to and for the Uses, Interest and Purposes hereinafter mentioned and declared."

MAY POSTPONE RECEPTION TO ATLANTIC FLEET

Manila, Sept. 25.—Following the receipt of advices from Washington that the visit of the battleship fleet will be made under restricted conditions should the city be continued to be affected with cholera, a movement is on foot to postpone the reception until after the fleet returns from Japan.

The number of cases of cholera is diminishing, but it is feared it will be impossible to thoroughly cleanse the city in the short time available.
