'VARSITY SQUAD
GETTING EDUCATION IN RUDIMENTS

TWO WEEKS BEFORE HARD
FOOTBALL BUCKING—TALK OF ALUMNI GAME OCTOBER
17—REGISTRATION 465.

Two weeks more of preliminary practice is the schedule of the Oregon football squad, from what Coach Forbes said last night after practice. Then hard bucking will begin. Forbes, like most Yale men, evidently believes that thorough work in preliminary training is one of the most essential qualities in the production of a good team.

The men so far, have been running in punts, rudimentary tactics, and learning to handle the ball and themselves properly. The squad which is doing this, is very large, averaging nearly fifty every night, and from this number Forbes is gradually sifting the most likely candidates for the team.

The scramble for the position of ends, half back, and quarter, seems to be particularly lively. So far the most careful observers have had difficulty to see much difference in the aptness and cleverness of the candidates.

Alumni Game.
Talk is being indulged in of an Alumni game to be played on October 17. Formerly the first regular game of the year was played with the old graduates, but last year the plan was abandoned, and no place is made on the schedule this season. The reason such a contest will be advisable next month, is that the first game of the regular schedule is with Willamette. In the past the scores with the Methodist college have not been large, and while prospects at the Salem institution do not seem bright now, it may be that a strong aggregation will be turned out. In case a team of fair strength should come against the untried Oregon eleven, there is always the possibility of being beaten in the initiative contest.

Registration 465.
Registration at the University yesterday, not counting in the music students, or any side issues, was 475. The total registration last year was 436, and the prophecy is made at the University office that the total for the first and second semester will be about 525.

College News
Don Stephenson and Walter Moore, two engineering graduates of last June, who are in the employ of the Pacific Bridge Company, visited friends in Eugene over Sunday, returning to Portland last night.

"Pat" McArthur has been visiting in the city for a few days. As well as a newspaper writer and football authority, McArthur is becoming a politician of some note in the ingredients which make the Multnomah pot ball.

Dan Kelly did not come to Eugene last week to visit friends, but went from Portland to his home in Baker city.

The gymnasium at the University has received some new apparatus for class work.

"Lee" Hurd, half-back of the 'Varsity three years ago, is out in a suit, and is making a good showing. McIntire, the star guard of last year, is trying for end, and with his weight and accustomed speed, is making things interesting for the younger men.

AMERICAN BANKERS STILL IN SESSION

Denver, Colo., Sept. 30.—With an attendance of prominent financiers and business men from practically every State and Territory in the Union, the thirty-fourth annual convention of the American Bankers' Association was called to order in the Auditorium this morning by President J. D. Powers. Bishop Olmsted delivered the invocation and Governor Butcher and Mayor Speer made addresses of welcome.

The initial session, following the welcomes and responses, was given over wholly to the reports of the officers and standing committees of the association. Included among the reports were those of Secretary P. E. Farnsworth and Treasurer A. A. Crane.

Several other committee reports were presented when the convention reassembled after luncheon and the association then took up the program of addresses and discussions on practical banking questions. The two important addresses of the day were presented by B. K. Walker, president of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, and Dr. Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton University. The address of Mr. Walker dealt with the "Abnormal Features of American Banking." President Wilson of Princeton took as his subject, "The Banker and the Nation."

BAY STATE DEMOCRATS MEET IN BOSTON

Boston, Mass., Sept. 30.—Every thing is in readiness for the Democratic State Convention which will assemble in this city tomorrow for the nomination of candidates for governor and lieutenant governor. All indications point to the selection of State Senator James H. Vahey of Watertown, as the candidate for governor. No other name is mentioned for first place on the ticket.

With the nomination of Mr. Vahey for governor the Democrats will make the proposed abolition of the death penalty in Massachusetts one of the chief issues of their campaign. During the years that Mr. Vahey has been in the State senate, following the sensational trial, conviction and execution of Charles L. Tucker, whose counsel he was, Mr. Vahey has had in the legislature a bill to wipe out the death penalty. He has always been convinced of Tucker's innocence of the murder of Mabel Page and holds that the present form of punishment is likely to work horrible injustice. It is an issue that will command some attention, coming upon the heels of the monster petition for Tucker and the big fight year after year to change the death penalty to imprisonment for life.

FOR SALE, EXCHANGE OR LEASE

Having concluded to retire from the lumber business I offer for sale, lease or will exchange for Eugene or Portland income property, my sawmill, sawmill site, booms, lumber sheds, office, planers, dry kilns and all tools connected with the business. Mill located at river bridge in the centre of Eugene city, east and west, and only three blocks from the S. P. R. R.

This is a fine opportunity for some one to go into the lumber business, as there is always a big local demand for all slabwood, sawdust, shavings, culm lumber, as well as the better grades of lumber. Logs are cheap, labor cheap, lumber high.

A good millman can make this property pay for itself in two years, and if he will operate day and night in one year. Greatest opportunity in this part of Oregon for a mill man; best located mill in the state. Capacity, 20,000 feet in ten hours.

When you have the mill you are at the market. Planer and dry kiln—everything needed to make lots of lumber and lots of money. Give this your early attention if interested in a lumber proposition. I am sure you cannot beat it in the state. The quicker you act the surer you are of making your fortune, for this is a chance in a lifetime.

CLERICAL TRAGEDY ENACTED IN ROME

Rome, Sept. 30.—The mysterious and brutal murder of Don Castagna, a secular cleric of seventy, has greatly excited the people of Rome, as it is the third crime of the kind that has occurred here within a few months. The murdered cleric was found in his bedroom at his lodgings with his head battered in by a hammer.

The poor old priest had evidently been dead several days when the discovery was made, and the bedroom presented a ghastly spectacle. The corpse had been thrown on the floor, and over it was placed a mattress on which were neatly arranged a rosary and crucifix. Near the mattress, which was soaked with blood, lay a gory hammer, which had been handled with such ferocity that the victim's head was reduced to a pulp. There were no signs of a struggle, and although the murdered priest was fairly well off, his bankbooks, money and watch were left untouched.

The police, who believe the crime was dictated by private revenge, have arrested an Oratorian priest living in an adjoining oratory. He was a constant visitor, and the neighbors declare that he entered the place twice on the morning of the murder, and on quitting the chamber the last time had changed from a priestly cassock into elegant lay attire.

NEWS NOTES FROM COTTAGE GROVE

Mrs. Hamilton Wallace, more familiarly known as "Aunt Ann," fell while pursuing her kitchen work on Monday morning and sustained a badly sprained hip. It was at first feared that the hip was dislocated, but Dr. J. O. Van Winkle, after making an examination, reported that it was only severely sprained, but that Mrs. Wallace, owing to her advanced age—76 years—will naturally be confined to her bed several days as a result of her severe injury. She is reported as resting easy.

A potato vine nearly seven feet in length, which produced six potatoes averaging two pounds each, or a total of twelve pounds, was presented to the Veatch Real Estate Company Saturday by H. D. Russell, who resides on a farm near Lorane, west of Cottage Grove. This yield is at the rate of 800 bushels to the acre.

The Booth-Kelly logging camp has started up at the Saguinaw mills. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miller, of this city, will go into the camp this week to take charge of the cook house.

Billie Veatch, wife and family, after a two-years' residence in Coos county, have returned to Cottage Grove and on October 1st he will again take charge of his little farm one mile west of this city, which he has been renting.

Mrs. Fred Herren, who submitted to a severe operation at the Eugene hospital, has so far recovered as to be able to return to her home at Cottage Grove Saturday.

Mrs. Alonzo Willard returned to her home in Eugene after a two weeks' visit with relatives in this city.—Leader.
