CHARLES H. BAKER DIES SUDDENLY FROM APOPLEXY

WELL-KNOWN CIVIL WAR VETERAN AND FORMER LANE COUNTY LEGISLATOR, EXPIRES THIS MORNING—SUFFERED STROKE OF APOPLEXY

Charles H. Baker, the well-known civil war veteran and former Lane county legislator, died suddenly at his home on West Eighth street, just outside the city limits, this morning about 10 o'clock. Last Saturday he suffered a slight stroke of apoplexy, but had partially recovered from it, being able to be up and around the house, although he was not well enough to go out. This morning he felt the attack coming on again and lay down on the bed, but before assistance could be secured he passed away. A physician was immediately sent for, but when he arrived it was found that life was extinct.

Mr. Baker was one of the best known and most popular civil war veterans in Lane county. He was a member of J. W. Geary post, G. A. R., of this city, and always took a prominent part in its affairs. He was especially active in the reunions of the Lane County Veterans' Association, and was noticeably prominent in the reunion held here only last week. He was a former member of the Oregon legislature from Lane county, and during his term of office he did splendid work for the county, as well as for the state at large. Before coming to Oregon he was a conductor on one of the Eastern railways.

Mr. Baker was aged 64 years, having been born in Pennsylvania in 1844. He entered the army service on August 20, 1861, and enlisted in Company I, Fifth Pennsylvania cavalry. He was mustered out on August 20, 1865. He joined J. W. Geary Post, G. A. R., of this city, on November 25, 1898.

Funeral arrangements will be made in tomorrow's Guard.

Dance at Armory Saturday night.

Registration of students at the University reached 482 this afternoon.

The Eugene Lumber Company's sawmill is in operation again after a few weeks' shutdown.

The enrollment at the high school is now 369 and that at the grammar schools 1158, making a total of 1527.

The pond in the northwest corner of the University campus has been cleaned out and will be still further improved.

Friday night there will be a joint reception in the University dormitory for the college students. The reception is under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

A few slight snows this morning varied the monotony. September was "shy" on rain and perhaps October will even up.

The University baseball field will be built on the tract recently bought in the Gros addition, the present practice grounds being abandoned to the lawn-makers.

At a student body meeting at the high school yesterday afternoon Harold Bean was unanimously elected alumni member of the executive board of the student body association.

Henry Chezem has begun action in the circuit court against J. P. and Nancy M. Frye, to recover $265 as commission on the sale of land. L. M. Travis is attorney for the plaintiff.

Dance at Armory Saturday night.

The University Y. M. C. A. has invited the men of the college to a walking trip to Spencer's butte Saturday afternoon. The crowd will start from the campus at 12:30 o'clock.

J. W. Kays has begun suit in the circuit court against Mrs. Jessie Boughton and the Eugene Loan & Savings Bank to recover $503.50, with interest at 10 per cent, from June 16, 1908.

A car of oil for the Standard Oil Company and a car of feed for the Williams Transfer Company were among the freight shipments into Eugene this morning.

E. E. Hyland brought a bunch of fine steers down from Lowell today and loaded them for shipment to Portland. There were 25 of them and they averaged 1275 pounds each in weight.

Attorney Ralph Fisher, of Portland, visited today at the home of his aunt, Mrs. J. M. Shelley, on his way home from Douglas county, where he purchased some land on which to set out walnut trees.

The Willamette Valley Fruit Company, of this city, was awarded a diploma for its exhibit of fruit in jars at the state fair, Percival Rust, who is at the head of the company, receiving the diploma this morning.

Hon. J. J. Walton is remodeling a small warehouse which stands on his property on East Eighth street opposite the old electric light plant and will make a residence of it. He will build a new residence on the lot adjoining it.

Dance at Armory Saturday night.

The members of St. Mary's Episcopal church will give a reception for the students of the University at the parish house, corner West Seventh and Olive streets, on Friday evening, October 9th.

S. D. Judd, special solicitor for the Guard for the past two or three weeks, has finished his work in this city and leaves for Salem tonight. He has done excellent work for the Guard, having added many new names to the subscription list.

Fred Moulton was not out in a suit last night on Kincaid Field. The University gridiron captain has a sore hand, which was cut some time ago. Clarke also is troubled with a sore shoulder, and Main, the likely California halfback, by a lame ankle.

The funeral of Mrs. J. N. B. Fuller was held this afternoon at the family residence at the corner of East Eleventh and Mill streets. The services, which were conducted by Rev. D. H. Trimble, were largely attended. The remains were interred in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

In the suit of Edna Comegys vs. T. G. Handricks, executor of the last will and testament of Arthur Comegys, deceased, in which the plaintiff won in the circuit court, the decision giving her the timber claim owned by her husband, a notice of appeal to the supreme court was filed with the county clerk yesterday by the plaintiff.

Next Sunday at the Congregational church it is expected to bring in every old and new pupil and the day will be marked by special features in the Sunday school. The pastor will preach at the morning service on the theme, "The Word of Power." If your place is there don't fail to be on hand.

Today was the opening day of the pheasant hunting season. The weather was good for the sport and a number of good bags are reported. A number of business men and clerks who could not get away during business hours went out before breakfast and most of them are well satisfied with the hour's sport. A large number of men are still out in the country with their dogs and guns and reports from the scene of carnage indicate that some of them will have killed the limit. All the automobiles in the city and a great many rigs are in commission, having been hired for the occasion by the hunters.

EPISCOPAL BISHOP TO BE ELECTED

Washington, Oct. 1.—Bishop Brent of the Philippines, having declined twice election as the successor of the late Bishop Satterlee, the convention of the Episcopal diocese of Washington reconvened in St. Thomas' church today for the purpose of making another selection for the vacant see. The result is awaited with much interest in Episcopal circles. While Washington is one of the newest of Episcopal dioceses it is one of the most important because its see city is the National capital.

Numerous candidates are mentioned for the vacant bishopric. One of the most prominent seems to be Dean Matthews, of the Cincinnati cathedral. He declined election to the diocese of Milwaukee not long ago. He is a son of former Associate Judge Matthews, of Ohio. Other prominent churchmen who are talked about in connection with the honor are: Rev. Sheldon Munson Griswold, missionary bishop of Salina, Kas.; Rt. Rev. Lucien Lee Kinsolving, missionary bishop of Brazil; Rev. Dr. Randolph H. McKim, president of the convention of the diocese of Washington and rector of Epiphany church; Rev. Dr. Alfred Harding, rector of St. Paul's church in Washington; Rev. Dr. Alexander Mann, rector of Trinity church, Boston; Rev. Frank DuMontin, dean of the cathedral, Cleveland, Ohio; Rev. W. D. Maxon, of Detroit; Rev. Edgar Cope, rector of St. Simeon's church, Philadelphia; Rev. Floyd Thompson, rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia; Rev. Endicott Peabody, head master of the Groton school; Dr. W. M. Groton, dean of the Divinity School, Philadelphia, and Rev. Dr. Philip Rhineland, professor in the Cambridge Divinity School.

WHITNEY BOISE IS NOT INDICTED

Portland, Oct. 1.—The grand jury returned but a true bill against Whitney L. Boise, clubman and politician, accused some time ago of wrongfully using the funds of the late Hawthorne estate. The charges were preferred by Mrs. Catherine H. Collins, sister-in-law of Boise, who married one of the Hawthorne girls.

Saturday night at the Armory Company C. will give another dance. There was a large attendance last Saturday and a larger one is expected next Saturday. Music will be by Svarverud's orchestra.

Large shipment of rockers and dining chairs just received. See us for new, up-to-date furniture at right prices.

More proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saves woman from surgical operations. Mrs. S. A. Williams, of Gardiner, Maine, writes: "I was a great sufferer from female troubles, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to health in three months, after my physician declared that an operation was absolutely necessary."

Mrs. Alvina Sperling, of 154 Cleybourne Ave., Chicago, Ill., writes: "I suffered from female troubles, a tumor and much inflammation. Two of the best doctors in Chicago decided that an operation was necessary to save my life. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound entirely cured me without an operation."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulence, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it? Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.
