

CLASSIFIED COLUMNS

EUGENE DAILY GUARD. PUBLISHING CO., INC. Charles H. Fisher. Address all communications to The Eugene Daily Guard, Eugene, Oregon.

Subscription Rates—Daily... 15 cents per week... 1.00 per month... 3.00 per quarter... 10.00 per year... 1.50 per copy.

Agents for the Guard... are authorized to receive for subscriptions or to receive for other business for The Eugene Daily Guard.

SECTION OF BATTLESHIP MAINE... The interesting matters of the Maine... by Commodore W. H. Beecher... in the October Century...

Maybe those letters were stolen... and then again maybe not... we haven't heard that the Standard Oil company has asked to have Hearst pinched for purchasing stolen goods.

Poor human nature is so constituted... that the man who gets the Jonah tag fastened on him... need expect no mercy from his shipmates.

It's all right to talk about driving... all the rascals to the woods... but have the would-be drivers considered that the woods may not be big enough to hold them all?

We have no hesitation whatever... in asserting that "26 Broadway" is the most widely advertised business address in the United States; also the most "cussed."

And still the pot continues to call... the pot black, and those who live in glass houses to throw stones. Solomons are scarce, you know.

THIS DATE IN HISTORY... October 3rd... 1800—George Bancroft, the historian, was born in Worcester, Mass. Died in Washington, D. C., January 17, 1891.

"THIS IS MY 54TH BIRTHDAY." William Crawford Corgan, the distinguished soldier and physician, was born at Mobile, Ala., on October 3, 1854.

Madame Bean's French Pills... A safe, certain, and effective remedy for all ailments of the bowels and stomach.

Any way, the dyspepsia, and its accompanying grouch, like the poor, is always "in our midst," more's the pity.

Bingo, Okla., claims to be the biggest of the biggest man on earth—an Indian named Seckonsito, who is 26 years old and weighs 696 pounds.

Those Bowlings and Bushes, of Breathet county, Kentucky, chose a mighty bad time to start a new blood feud, if they expect to get the country's attention.

The rapid growth of Oregon is largely explained by the growth in its export products. The most reliable estimates for the current year fixes the gross total of crops raised for export at $100,000,000.

Do you want a straight tip on the presidential election? Well, here it is: Bryan and Taft will both be elected—we have this positive information direct from the gentlemen themselves.

H. M. Moore, the oldest man in Leavenworth, Kansas, and one of the town's founders, must have been the original rubber-neck.

Maybe those letters were stolen, and then again maybe not. At any rate, we haven't heard that the Standard Oil company has asked to have Hearst pinched for purchasing stolen goods.

Poor human nature is so constituted that the man who gets the Jonah tag fastened on him, whether justly or unjustly, need expect no mercy from his shipmates.

It's all right to talk about driving all the rascals to the woods, but have the would-be drivers considered that the woods may not be big enough to hold them all?

Madame Bean's French Pills... A safe, certain, and effective remedy for all ailments of the bowels and stomach.

Blood Humors... Commonly cause pimples, boils, bites, eczema or salt rheum, or some other form of eruption; but sometimes they exist in the system, indicated by feelings of weakness, languor, loss of appetite, or general debility, without causing any breaking out.

Hood's Sarsaparilla... In neutral liquid form or in chocolate tablets known as Sarsats. 100 Doses 25.

For a Warm Bath Room. A bath in a cold room is a "shivery" operation and is extremely liable to cause colds. The bathroom above all should be kept warm. This is easy and the bath is a comfort if you have a PERFECTION Oil Heater. (Equipped with Smokeless Device) It may be carried from any other room to the bath room, which it will heat while you are preparing for the bath. Impossible to turn it too high or too low. The most economical heater you can buy—intense heat for 9 hours with one filling. The Rayo Lamp is the best lamp for all-round household purposes. Gives a clear, steady light. Made of brass throughout and nickel plated. Equipped with the latest improved central draft burner. Handsome—simple—satisfactory. Every lamp guaranteed. If you cannot get heater or lamp at your dealer's, write our nearest agency for descriptive circular. STANDARD OIL COMPANY (Incorporated)

ROOSTER MEETING IN ROSEBURG THIS MONTH

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Roseburg Commercial Club Thursday evening it was practically decided to hold a meeting of the Oregon-Idaho Development Congress in this city on Thursday, October 15. In connection therewith will also probably be held the good roads meeting, which was deferred from last month. In attendance at the development congress will be Judge S. A. Lowell, of Pendleton; Colonel E. Hofer, of Salem; Judge John H. Scott, the good roads booster, a delegation of Coos Bay citizens and other visitors. Including, perhaps, Tom Richardson, the well-known Oregon booster, from Portland.—Review.

BUYS INTEREST IN ABSTRACT BUSINESS

John M. Throne has sold his one-fourth interest in the Douglas County Abstract Company, in this city, to Robert E. Smith, a brother-in-law of E. W. Kuykendall, who also owns a one-fourth interest in the business. Mr. Smith is from Minneapolis, where he was formerly manager of the timber department of the Brooks-Scanlon Timber Company, which has extensive holdings in the United States and Canada. Mr. Throne will remain in the employ of the company until the end of the year.—Roseburg Review.

FORESTRY POLICY ENDORSED BY IRRIGATORS

Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 2.—The struggle in the National Irrigation Congress between the supporters and opponents of the present government forestry policy resulted in a sweeping victory for the friends of Chief Forester Pinchot today. With a few recommendations for change in the forest regulations the congress adopted resolutions endorsing the forest service as well as other government bureaus concerned in the work of development and reclamation. It also took advanced ground in favor of conservation of natural resources in general.

RAILROAD ASSESSMENT RAISED IN DOUGLAS

$44,250 per mile. This is the valuation placed by County Assessor George W. Staley this year upon the Southern Pacific Company's 116.15 miles of roadbed, together with rolling stock, in Douglas county. It is an increase of $14,250 per mile over the assessment of 1907. Mr. Staley explains that the increase is made to meet the proportionate raise in the value of other classes of property.—Roseburg Review.

WOULD YOU FORGET TO OPEN A REGISTERED LETTER IF YOU RECEIVED ONE

You would open a registered letter or a telegram, of course! But are you not, just the same, somewhat careless about other things that should have almost equal interest to you? Perhaps once a week—perhaps once a day—a classified ad is printed that touches your personal interest as surely and as keenly as the letter or telegram would—but, are you SURE to see it, to consider it, to answer it, to profit by it? Of course the Want Ad is delivered to you as one of a bunch—and you have to pick out the one that is "FOR YOU."
