Dance at Armory Saturday night.
Medford Mail: The marriage of Mr. Volney Dixon and Miss Helen Wait took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wait, on Wednesday evening, September 30. Only a few invited friends were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Shields, and after the wedding dinner the happy couple were driven to Ashland, at which place they took a train for Southern California, to be absent a couple of weeks.
One of The Guard's carrier boys, serving subscribers on East Eleventh and other streets in that vicinity, did not deliver his papers until this morning, telling some of the people that it was because the press broke down and that the paper was not issued last night. We have more trouble with our carrier service than any branch of the business and subscribers will always do the office a favor by reporting any instances of poor or irregular delivery. By being informed of the facts is the only way we are enabled to correct abuses.
