

THE BON MARCHE'S

STOCK TO BE SOLD Starts Wednesday October 7th

ENTIRE stock purchased from the Bon Marche will be sold at just what it cost at the manufacturers. Having the entire stock at a large discount we will sell the entire stock less than what other merchants will have to pay, because we do not pay any freight charges. A large stock of Clothing, Hats, Womens' Skirts, Coats and Shoes. Childrens, Dresses, Coats and Hoods. Remember that every article purchased from The Bon Marche stock will be sold at a large discount. We are over stocked and must unload, new goods arriving every day, and we must have room. Come here and buy the whole year's supplies for yourself and children. We can save you from $25.00 to $50.00 on your fall and winter bill. Remember every article purchased from the Bon Marche will be sold at manufacturers' cost. That does not include the new stock bought by the Crescent. Remember that you can buy for less at this sale than merchants can buy for, because we bought the stock at a large discount and have got to have more room for our new goods which are arriving every day. Don't wait but come every day and save money.

Womens Skirts AT COST

Womens' Skirts in all styles and kinds, in all sizes, from the very best made of tailors and perfect in fit. They are the best with the Bon Marche's stock and must go at once to make room for new stock, which is arriving every day. Hundreds of styles from all colors. Skirts made full and seams all

All Children's Shoes to Go

At the time to buy your children's shoes for a whole year. Misses and Boys' in heavy and light. All sizes and the heaviest to the lightest. We are going to discontinue shoes because we have not the room to carry a full line of men's and children's, so we are going to close out all our shoes at manufacturers' cost.

Every Boys Suit to Go

We are going to close out our entire line of boys' clothing. We cannot carry a complete line of men's and boys' clothing, so we are going to close out the entire line at manufacturer's cost. This means a great saving to you of almost one-third to one-half the actual cost.

Men's Trousers at Cost

Here is where a man can save from one-half to one-third on their purchase. In all colors and sizes and lengths. In light and dark, in heavy, medium and light. Made by the best tailors and perfect in fit and workmanship. It will pay you to buy two or three pairs at this sale, because you can get them at manufacturer's cost. Let nothing keep you from this sale.

PROCLAMATION

J. J. D. Matlock, mayor of the city of Eugene, hereby notifies the people of the city of Eugene, and proclaims that the bill proposed by the common council and referred to the people, to amend Sections 108 and 112 of the Charter of the City of Eugene, as amended by the people of said city April 18, 1908, by giving the Common Council the power and authority to issue and sell five per cent negotiable water bonds of the city to a sum not exceeding $500,000 in the aggregate, failed to receive a majority of the votes cast thereon at the special election held in the city of Eugene on the first day of October, 1908, and therefore failed to become a law of the City of Eugene, the majority against the same being 158 votes.

That the bill proposed by the Common Council and referred to the people for amending Section 109 of the Charter of the City of Eugene, so as to empower the Common Council in the sale of the water bonds of the city when no bids are received for the purchase thereof at or above par at the time advertised; then the Council may negotiate and sell the said bonds or any part thereof at private sale at not less than their par value without readvertising, submitted to the vote of the people of the City of Eugene at the special election held in said city on the first day of October, 1908, received a majority of the votes cast thereon as follows: Number of voters voting in favor of said amendment, 425; voting against said amendment, 79; and thereby became a law of the city of Eugene.

Dated this 6th day of October, 1908.

J. J. D. MATLOCK, Mayor.

GOLD MEDAL CONTEST AT SPRINGFIELD

An educational contest for a gold medal was given at the M. E. church in Springfield last night under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. D. L. Morgan, of Eugene, won the medal, his subject being "The Temperance Wary." Other contestants were as follows: Mrs. B. E. Dickinson and Miss Gertrude Palmer, of Cottage Grove; Mrs. Livia Bond, of Irving; and W. A. Gressman, of Eugene. The church was well filled with an interested audience. The recitations were all good and it was hard for the judges to decide which was the best.

CITY NEWS

The number of students registered at the University reached 488 today.

The new stone building of the Eugene Bible University will be dedicated on Sunday, October 18.

The pavement in the alley between the new Garrett & Mitchell building and Sanford lot was finished up today.

Three more carloads of logs arrived down from the Mohawk branch last night for the Eugene Lumber Company.

Ed Quinn and family have removed from rural mail route No. 1 to 150 Madison street, where they will spend the winter.

Colonel Mercer's big electric automobile truck was brought out on the streets last evening. It attracted quite a bit of attention.

A leak in the new water main on Olive street at the corner of West Ninth occurred yesterday. The pavement had to be dug up and the pipe was repaired.

F. W. Osburn, who was run over by an automobile a few evenings ago, is able to sit up, but it will be several days yet before he will be able to be at the bank.

The work of building the twelve-foot cement walk in front of H. R. Kincaid's property on East Ninth street was begun today. Two small maple trees were cut down and out of the way.

The big manure for the Fisher Laundry Company arrived today direct from the factory at Rochester, N. Y. It will be at once installed in the company's new building on South Willamette street.

The interior of The Guard's new quarters in the theatre block is being replastered. A stairway is being built to the second floor and other improvements are being made to the rooms.

J. T. Donaldson, Henry Odell and T. W. Carner, appraisers of the estate of Lovella A. Peabody, deceased, today filed their inventory with the probate court. They appraised the property at $1148.

W. G. Martin and C. H. Hays today began suit in the circuit court against L. G. Clark to recover $408 for labor and services performed by the plaintiffs for the defendant in hauling poles from the woods to Eugene during the past summer.

John Maroney was given 15 days on the streets this afternoon by Acting Police Judge Bryson for being drunk and disorderly. He was released from custody only yesterday, having completed a ten-day's sentence for the same offense.

A student body rally will be held at the high school tomorrow afternoon to create a little enthusiasm for the coming year's sports. Student representatives from the different athletic organizations will speak. Members of the faculty and board will probably be represented. This year's outlook for a championship season, as far as can be forecasted at this early date, are unusually bright.

Dr. C. H. Chapman, formerly president of the University of Oregon, is still heard from occasionally at Portland. This morning's Oregonian says: Dr. C. H. Chapman will deliver the address at the Sellwood Methodist church, East Ninth street and Tacoma avenue, tomorrow night, if being the opening meeting of the Mothers' and Teachers' Club of the Sellwood school.

The first gun in the campaign for the Bureau entertainment course will be fired tomorrow evening when all the members of the various young people's societies of the Eugene churches will gather in mass meeting at the Baptist church. The purpose of this meeting is to create enthusiasm for the entertainment course to be given this winter. A spy program, interspersed with good music, will begin at 8 o'clock, which will be followed by a social time.

The Kloda Khan Society, one of the University fraternities, filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk this morning. The officers are: Harper N. Jamison, president; Robert McKenzie, vice president; and Leon C. Parks, secretary. The objects of the society, as given in the articles of incorporation, are for the development of the physical and mental capacities of its members and their associates and to maintain a club house in Eugene. The value of the property owned by the society is $100.

The funeral of Miss Martha Bell Curtis, who died at St. Vincent's hospital Saturday as the result of cerebral hemorrhage, was held from Hoffman's undertaking parlors yesterday afternoon. The interment took place at Riverside cemetery. The young woman was a student at the University of Oregon, and had graduated from the Portland high school. She is survived by her mother, and leaves a host of friends, who mourn her untimely death.—Oregonian, October 5.

Allany Democrat: A. I. Douglas and family are in the city today preparatory to leaving for Eugene to reside. They will go by private conveyance tomorrow. Mr. Douglas has run the Crawford farm, now owned by J. H. Simpson, between this city and Talent for sixteen years, and Mrs. Douglas has resided on the place since her marriage fourteen years ago. They are excellent people and Eugene gets some good citizens. That city was Mr. Douglas' boyhood home and he is anxious to return to it.
