CITY NEWS

There will be an informal meeting of the Forthnightly Club at S. H. Friendly's residence at 7:30 tonight.

W. C. Washburns, of Junction City, filed his commission as notary public with the county clerk today.

The Brownsville woolen mill store has secured a two-years' lease on the Berger building now occupied by the company's store.

The paving crew is spreading the dope on West Eighth street beyond Charnelton. This is the biggest stretch of paving since the East Eleventh street contract was finished.

Fred C. Bean, of the Berger-Bean Hardware Company, is having Architect Hensell draw plans for a 12-room residence to be built on High street between East Tenth and East Eleventh.

A reception will be given on Friday evening, October 9th, at 8 o'clock at the parish house, corner Seventh and Olive streets, to the students of the University by the members of St. Mary's Episcopal church.

The new platform for the freight depot is being built and the company is moving its material from the old Smith warehouse to the remodeled freight house. The work of moving the warehouse to the north side of the tracks will at once commence.

Dr. Geo. Wall, assisted by Dr. F. W. Prentice and Dr. J. W. Harris, this morning amputated one of William Rennie's legs above the knee on account of gangrene. The operation was very successful and Mr. Rennie is getting along very well.

The Chambers barber shop, which recently moved to the Rankin building on West Sixth street, has again moved, this time it being located in the small building two doors south of the White grocery at the corner of Fifth and Willamette streets.

T. G. Hendricks has commenced to fence in a part of Jefferson street south from West Eighth street, thus carrying out his threat, as told about in The Guard a few days ago. He is acting as trustee for the Stewart heirs, who own a portion of the street.

Jay McCormick, C. O. Peterson and Frank Armitage, accompanied by Ed McPherson, of Portland, leave in the morning on a deer hunt on the South Fork of the McKenzie. The deer are said to be running well now and the boys expect to have some good sport.

A hobo who had been selling shoe laces became drunk yesterday and tried to swindle the keeper of one of the refreshment stands near the depot out of some goods last night. He was jailed and this morning ordered out of town. He made swift tracks for the suburbs.

A car of salt and one of sugar for the Pollock Transfer Company, a car of cement each for T. H. Ellis and the American Paving Company were among the carload freight shipments into Eugene today. The excelsior mill is shipping out a car of excelsior and the telephone company a car of material to Portland.

A dividend of 40 per cent has been declared in the J. B. McFarland bankrupt case. Referee Wintermeier thinks a total dividend of 55 per cent will be declared before the case is closed. McFarland is the Junction City hardware dealer who "skipped out" some time ago.

The Pacific Telephone Company is doing much new work on its long distance lines in the valley. Cottage Grove will soon have two more lines into Portland, Eugene will have four, Albany has six, Salem thirteen and Oregon City twenty-five new lines. There are four crews working between Albany and Eugene now on this work.

The Lane County Fruit and Vegetable Growers' Association will begin packing a carload of apples at Irving and will ship them to Los Angeles some time next week. The price of apples is low at present, but Manager Holt thinks there will be several carloads shipped out of Eugene and vicinity by the association this fall.

Mrs. J. J. Hughes this morning received a letter from her husband, who started from her a short time ago for his old home in England. He arrived there on September 24, after a very rough sea trip. The sea was so rough, he writes, that the steamer was one day behind time in reaching its destination. It was the

of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success. That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the one—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

roughest he ever saw. Jack was well and having a good time.

The forms for the concrete work on the second story of the new Cherry block are being erected.

Nobody's Magazine for October is just out. This number is devoted, pictorially, to the Commercial Club, giving views of the exterior and interior of the building. There is also a picture of the new passenger depot, a view on East Eleventh street and the frontispiece is a glimpse of Eugene from Hendricks' park, a beautiful picture.

Notice of appeal to the supreme court were made today by the plaintiffs in the following cases: Ulysses B. Sutherland, insane, by J. U. Sutherland, his guardian, vs. A. M. and Mary Richardson; Charles H. Chick, Constantine Morton and Everett P. Lewis vs. J. T. Bridges, the Security Savings and Trust Company, T. W. Harris and L. E. Bean. The circuit court decided in favor of the plaintiffs in each case, and made an order dismissing the cases.

The Eugene Poultry Farm, Elbert K. Brown, manager, with an exhibit of fine chickens at the Portland stock show, won 34 regular prizes and 16 specials. At North Yakima Mr. Brown was not allowed to compete in three classes on account of his entries being too late, but in the two entered he won 16 prizes. At Spokane in two classes judged he won 10 prizes in not competition.

Dr. Homer E. Keeney, of Portland, has closed a deal for a large tract of water front on Bakers Bay, Wash. The purchase includes about 350 acres and fronts on Bakers Bay for a distance of a mile and a half. It includes a tract of tide lands as well and was purchased direct from the state of Washington. Dr. Keeney represents a syndicate that already owns property adjoining the tract just purchased. The land extends from Chinook to within two miles of the city of Ilwaco. The owners of the property will hold it for speculative purposes, it is said.—Oregonian.

Driven from Portland by the recent crusade of the civic authorities, it is said that the "scarlet" women
