NEWS FROM LABOR WORLD

The Iron Moulders' Union of North America will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary next year.

The membership of the Cigar Makers' Union in Porto Rico, which was organized not long ago, is more than 1,000.

The Montana Federation of Labor will make an attempt to have the state law in regard to the liability of employers amended.

The Federal High Court at Sydney New South Wales, has declared that the registration of a trade union label is unconstitutional.

Mr. P. M. Draper, secretary of the Dominion Trade's Congress, has been nominated as the labor candidate for the Board of Control of Ottawa.

W. D. Mahon, president of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees, has been nominated for congress in Detroit, Mich., by the Democrats.

St. Louis, Mo., has a man named John Samuel, who is ninety-two years of age, and still takes an active interest in organization. His specialty is co-operation.

The Trade Union Congress of England has passed a resolution asking parliament to enact a law under which the organizers of strike-breaking movements, as well as the men themselves, could be prosecuted.

William D. Ryan, of Springfield, Ill., the national secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers of America, will retire on April 1 of next year, to enter a new field of work. He was secretary for twelve years.

By a referendum vote the Poster Artists' Association of America has decided to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor. The union has passed its tenth anniversary and has locals in every important labor centre in the country.

The Wisconsin supreme court has declared unconstitutional the Wisconsin eight-hour railroad telegraphers' law, which was enacted at the 1907 session of the legislature. The law is considered in conflict with the federal constitution.

The annual meeting of the Connecticut State Conference of Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers is to be held in Bridgeport, Conn., on October 26, and calls have been issued to the various unions in the state for the election of about 150 delegates.

Until 1901 the United States and Great Britain had more trade unionists than all the rest of the world taken together, but since that time the rate of growth of the unions in France and Germany has been exceptionally great, owing to the active labor campaign carried on in these countries.

School Director Dr. W. W. Weaver, of the Wilkesbarre, Pa., school board, proposes to pension the aged teachers in the employ of the city by appropriating a pension fund of $19,000, which the board saves the city annually in salaries, fees and other expenses. The teachers are to contribute their share to the fund.

Accidents in coal mines of the United States during the last calendar year resulted in the death of 3125 men, and injury to 3316 more, according to statistics just made public by the geological survey. The death record among the coal miners during the year was greater by 1033 than in 1906, and is said to have been the worst year in the history of the coal mining industry.

Gilbert, of Astoria, and routine business matters. Before the close of tonight's session a new moderator will be chosen to preside over the deliberations of the synod during the remainder of the session.

Ashtand is entertaining the visitors and extending the hospitality of its homes to them.

Several families from the valley have passed Lowell bound for the Christmas Lake country, where they say there is a large amount of government land of good agricultural nature to be taken up, and water easily obtained by digging ten feet anywhere in the valley.

Cattlemen are in the mountains now looking up their herds on the ranges. On the reserve the season has been a good one for feed and stock, and all look well.

There has been as much as four inches of snow on the mountain ranges.

Dr. Christie and Mr. Chapman, of Eugene, went to the North Fork mines last week to look after their mines. On their way up they encountered some trouble on account of a snow storm that lasted several hours, at one time losing their way for a short time, but caused by having to camp in a strange place in the woods one night.

E. W. Michael, living some twelve miles on the road from Lowell to Hazel Dell, is erecting a new house and will soon be ready to move into the same.

William Lohmer, road supervisor of Unity, has of late been making repairs on the road near Ford Rock hill, which is greatly appreciated by those living up the river east of Lowell.

Postmaster J. L. Page's quarterly report for the quarter ending September 30 shows that the stamp sales in the office for the quarter were $5491.94, as compared with $4539.66 for the corresponding quarter in 1907. This is an increase of $952.28, or about twenty per cent. This is indicative of the growth of the city during the year.

Los Angeles, Oct. 8.—The speech of William R. Hearst, delivered at the Shrine Auditorium Monday night was devoted almost entirely to an attack on John W. Kern, Democratic candidate for vice president.

He referred to the recent finding of a pass on the Big Four Railroad, made out in the name of Mr. Kern, and pointed out that the Big Four was a branch of the Vanderbilt system, which he said had been successfully prosecuted by the federal government for granting rebates to the American Refining Company and fined $116,000.

He also devoted much attention to Mr. Kern's employment by Mr. Taggart as his attorney and discussed in detail the alleged gambling at French Lick Springs, Ind.

Mr. Hearst read affidavits from two newspaper men who were in attendance at the Democratic National convention, who said that Mr. Kern said to them that he was indebted for his nomination to Mr. Taggart.

Mr. Hearst read only one Standard Oil Company letter during his address tonight. This was addressed to United States Senator Chauncey M. Depew by John D. Archbold, and was as follows:

29 Broadway, New York, February 10, 1902.—My Dear Senator:—Permit me to thank you most cordially for your kind note of the 5th with the accompanying complimentary pass. Believe me that I appreciate your kind expression in connection with this courtesy very highly indeed and only hope that opportunities may offer for such reciprocation as will give evidence to you and your great corporation of the friendly sentiments I entertain. Yours very truly, JOHN D. ARCHBOLD.

To the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, Grand Central Depot, New York.

The railroad pass, receipt of which the letter purported to acknowledge, Mr. Hearst stated was over the New York Central Lines, of which system, he said, Mr. Depew was "the representative in the United States senate."

On account of the Trans-Mississippi congress to be held at San Francisco October 6th to 10th, special round-trip tickets will be sold on October 6 and 4 at the rate of $25, final return limit 29 days from date of sale.

MANY ACRES OF LAKE LAND OPEN TO ENTRY

Roseburg, Oct. 8.—Orders received at the United States land office in Roseburg from the interior department at Washington announce the restoration to settlement and entry of 91,480 acres of public land in the Umpqua National forest. Of the total acreage to be thrown open, however, it is estimated that not more than one-fourth will be available for appropriation, the larger part of the land being covered by fillings, made before its inclusion in the reserve by President Roosevelt's sleeping order of March 2, 1907. Most of the land lies in Lane county. The remainder is situated in Northern Douglas county and Southern Benton county.

SNOW IN MOUNTAINS UP WILLAMETTE

Lowell, Oct. 7.—David Wilhelm, who has resided at the big prairie near Hazel Dell, on the James Sanford place, for some time, is moving to Cloverdale, having rented a farm there.

The rains have not been sufficient to keep the plows going, and most of the ranchers are idle at present.

The Rush Island school started the first session was held this afternoon in the main auditorium of the First Presbyterian church of this city, and was marked by the address of the retiring moderator, Rev. W. S.

Notice to Delinquent Taxpayers

Delinquent taxpayers will take notice that delinquent taxes will not be advertised as heretofore; under a law passed by the last legislature of this state taxes that are delinquent after the expiration of six months from the first date of such delinquency may be paid by any one demanding to pay same and a certificate of delinquency will be issued to such party.

Section 37 of said law, in part, reads:

"Any day after the expiration of six months after taxes charged against real property are delinquent the tax collector shall have the right, and it shall be his duty, upon demand and payment of the taxes, penalty and interest, to make out and issue a certificate or certificate of delinquency against such property;" and section 28 in part reads: "Certificates of delinquency shall bear interest from the date of issuance until redeemed at the rate of 15 per cent per annum.

Delinquent taxpayers are therefore advised that if they have not paid at least one-half of their taxes on or before the first Monday in April that the same are delinquent and have been delinquent since said first Monday in April, and those who have paid one-half of their taxes as above the remaining one-half will become delinquent after the first Monday in October, and six months from such dates a certificate of delinquency bearing fifteen per cent interest per annum may be issued against your property.

To save further costs, penalties and interest you are earnestly requested to settle the same at once.

H. L. BOWN, Sheriff and Tax Collector.

PROCLAMATION

I, J. D. Matlock, mayor of the city of Eugene, hereby notify the people of the city of Eugene, and proclaim that the bill proposed by the common council and referred to the people, to amend Sections 108 and 112 of the Charter of the City of Eugene, as amended by the people of said city April 18, 1908, by giving the Common Council the power and authority to issue and sell five per cent negotiable water bonds of the city to a sum not exceeding $500,000 in the aggregate, failed to receive a majority of the votes cast thereon at the special election held in the city of Eugene on the first day of October, 1908, and therefore failed to become a law of the City of Eugene, the majority against the same being 153 votes.

That the bill proposed by the Common Council and referred to the people for amending Section 109 of the Charter of the City of Eugene, so as to empower the Common Council in the sale of the water bonds of the city when no bids are received for the purchase thereof at or above par at the time advertised; then the Council may negotiate and sell the said bonds or any part thereof at private sale at not less than their par value without re-advertising, submitted to the vote of the people of the City of Eugene at the special election held in said city on the first day of October, 1908, received a majority of the votes cast thereon as follows: Number of voters voting in favor of said amendment, 425; voting against said amendment, 246; majority in favor of said amendment, 79, and thereby became a law of the city of Eugene.

Dated this 6th day of October, 1908.
