A Careful Man Protects His Family

By carrying a Life Insurance Policy. This is a wise plan and we have no criticism to offer.

The first necessity for a family however is a HOME. If you have gone this long without one, you should not delay another day. MATERIAL of all kinds is advancing, but is still reasonable. If you need a home and don't take advantage of this opportune time to build then get the insurance anyway for you surely are a DEAD ONE.

And on the question of electing senators by direct vote of the people, Mr. Taft said in a public lecture at Yale University some time ago that "no law should be passed unless it had a majority of the people, and any law enacted without popular assent behind it would be a nullity." And as senators cannot be so elected by the people without the United States senate first submits the necessary law, it follows that all efforts to select United States senators as under our direct primary law are, according to Mr. Taft, useless nullities.

On these two great questions, the most important of all those at issue in the present campaign, Mr. Bryan, the Democratic candidate, is directly opposed to Mr. Taft, and stands solidly with the people, and has publicly everywhere advocated legislation and popular election of United States senators for the last twenty years. On these two great issues, so vital to the rights and liberties of every freeman, every old Populist should make his choice. The two great questions so overtop and overshadow all others that it would only belittle the importance of the present campaign to refer to the tariff, currency or other hackneyed subjects.

It is to the honor and glory of our state that it was the first of all the states of our Union to carry the Star-Spangled Banner of the people's rights to the front, and to triumphant victory in constitutional enactment, forever securing to the people the right to make their own laws and choose their own senators by direct legislation and the direct primary. And it is to the honor and glory of the old Populists that they led the battle for the rights of the people. And now half the states of the Union, and more than 50 cities of our country are following where Oregon led the procession. We cannot now afford to take any backward step.

And now for these considerations and at this crisis in public affairs, we appeal to our fellow-citizens the battle-scarred veterans of the old Populist party, and respectfully and candidly submit the question, "Ought we not to vote for William J. Bryan rather than for William H. Taft?"

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. NELSON, Chairman.

ERNEST BARTON, Secretary.

DR. GARFIELD IS PRESIDENT OF WILLIAMS

Williamsport, Mass., October 8.—Yesterday, with simple ceremony but before a great and enthusiastic company, Dr. Harry A. Garfield was formally installed as president of Williams College. The event was chiefly notable for the general feeling of satisfaction with the man who is to guide the destinies of one of New England's most famous institutions of learning.

The inauguration exercises took place in the Congregational church. In addition to President Garfield the speakers included Rev. John S. Zelie, of Plainfield, N. J., representing the alumni; Rev. Dr. W. Adams, of Fall River, speaking for the trustees; Professor John H. Hewitt, for the faculty, and Ernest H. Wood, '09, of New York City, for the undergraduates.

Among some of the distinguished educators and other visitors in attendance were President Arthur T. Hadley, of Yale University; President George Harris, of Amherst College; President W. H. P. Faunce, of Brown University; President Carroll D. Wright, of Clark College; President John H. Finley, of the College of the City of New York; President Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia University; President Charles W. Eliot, of Harvard University; President E. D. Warfield, of Lafayette College; President Mary E. Woolley, of Mount Holyoke College; President Abram W. Harris, of Northwestern University; President Woodrow Wilson, of Princeton University; President Geo. E. MacLean, of the University of Iowa; President Harry Pratt Judson, of the University of Chicago; President E. A. Alderman, of the University of Virginia; President Van Hise, of the University of Wisconsin, and Professor A. S. Root, of Oberlin College.

Dr. Harry A. Garfield, whose election to the presidency of Williams College placed him in the front rank among American educators, is the eldest son of James A. Garfield, twentieth president of the United States. He was born in Portage county, Ohio, in 1873. He was graduated from Williams College in 1885, studied law at the Columbia law school and went abroad and spent a year at Oxford and the Inns of Court in London. In 1888 he began to practice law in Cleveland. He rapidly became prominent in the commercial and railroad business of that city, and was also prominently identified with civil service reform and municipal improvement work. In 1903 he abandoned the practice of law to accept the chair of politics at Princeton, which position he held until his election as president of Williams College.
