Oregon and Washington—Showers tonight and Tuesday; fair in eastern portion; cooler.

Idaho—Rain tonight; cooler in north and southwest; Tuesday probably fair.

BURGLAR ENTERS HULL'S STORES AND TAKES GOIN

Burglars again piled their nefarious trade in Eugene last night, Hull's stores being the places visited by them. Entrance was effected by the rear door of the candy factory from Park street. The door was simply pulled open, the lock not being solidly fastened. As near as can be ascertained, $20 in coin was stolen from four cash tills, those in the drug store, the confectionery department, Smith's jewelry store and the post card shop. None of the goods were disturbed. It is thought that the work was that of a person somewhat acquainted with the premises. The police are investigating.

The O. A. C. Alumni and 1915 year's team played a scoreless game at Corvallis Saturday afternoon.

LONDON THINKS WAR WILL BE AVERTED IN NEAR EAST

London, Oct. 12.—The Cretan parliament this morning voted for union of the island with Greece.

London, Oct. 12.—News from the near East this morning confirms the belief that the powers will find some friendly solution of the crisis which agitated Europe for more than a week. Serbia, it is now thought, has fallen into line with the other states directly interested and is taking a more quiet view of the situation. The Serbian National assembly, which today practically voted confidence in the government, has taken the matter out of hands that easily swayed that body and placed it with the cabinet, who will doubtless heed the warnings of the powers.

ENGLAND RECEDES FROM POSITION

London, Oct. 12.—Great Britain has receded from her previously expressed determination to confine the questions to be discussed by the proposed international conference regarding the Balkans to recent events

GANTENBEIN RULES SUNDAY LAW NOT VALID

PORTLAND CIRCUIT JUDGE SAYS STATUTE CONFLICTS WITH FEDERAL CONSTITUTION IN SEVERAL RESPECTS—BUSINESS MEN'S TEMPORARY INJUNCTION IS MADE PERMANENT.

Portland, Or., Oct. 12.—Judge Gantenbein, in the equity department of the state circuit court, today decided that the statute prohibiting business on Sunday is unconstitutional and District Attorney Cameron says he has not yet decided whether to carry the case to the supreme court.

Judge Gantenbein assigns five reasons why the law conflicts with the federal constitution. He decides that it restricts religious freedom in that it was passed for the purpose of compelling the observance of the Sabbath; that it was not passed as a matter of police power; that it is discriminatory in exempting theatres and finally that the law is both unreasonable and arbitrary. The opinion states that if the Sunday closing law is desired by the legislature, the court recommends for its study as a model the Idaho statute.

HAD FIGHT WITH MOTHER BEAR

Henry Carson, who resides in the Spencer Creek neighborhood, southwest of the city, killed three bears this morning in an orchard near Thos. Szukal's farm which lies on the west slope of Spencer's Butte and about six miles from Eugene.

The man who was attending the orchard had been complaining for some time that some person had been stealing his apples. Mr. Carson, knowing the habits of bears and hearing that several had been seen in that vicinity, took his gun and dog this morning and made a trip to the orchard, thinking perhaps it was a bear instead of a man that had been stealing the fruit. His suspicions were confirmed when, upon his arrival in the orchard he came upon a big female bear and two cubs perhaps six months old. He opened fire, and killed the two cubs, whereupon the mother showed fight and charged upon Mr. Carson. He held his ground and finished the bear but not before she had advanced to within a yard of the gun barrel.

FOREIGN MISSIONS UNDER DISCUSSION

New Orleans, Oct. 12.—The Foreign Missions today received almost the undivided attention of the Missionary Conference of the churches of Christ. A. E. McLean of Cincinnati, president of the society, prefaced his reading of reports with a short address. Following McLean's remarks, the annual report of the secretary was presented.

WATERS-PIERCE WILL BE HEARD IN COURT AGAIN

Washington, D. C., Oct. 12.—The state of Texas is prepared to put up a vigorous opposition to the plan of counsel for the Waters-Pierce Oil Company for a consolidation of the two cases pending against the company in the supreme court of the United States. Both cases, the main, or ouster, and penalty case, and that for receiver, however, are set for submission to the court tomorrow. Before they are reached on the docket, however, the attorneys for the company purpose to move to consolidate the cases and at the same time petition the court that both cases be heard together. Both motions will be opposed by the legal representatives of the state of Texas.
