VERY GOOD HOME MADE CATARRH CURE

Here is a prescription which should be valued by all who are subject to rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles and especially catarrh. While the latter is considered by most sufferers an incurable disease, there are few men or women who will fail to experience great relief from the following simple home prescription, and if taken in time it should prevent an attack of catarrh during the entire season.

Anyone can mix the following: Fluid Extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime. Get these ingredients from any pharmacist whom you know handles only pure drugs.

This prescription acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys to make them filter and strain from the blood, the poisons that produce all forms of catarrhal affections. Relief is often felt even after the first few doses and it is seldom that the sufferer ever experiences a return attack within the year.

This prescription makes a splendid remedy for all forms of blood disorders and such symptoms as lame back, bladder weaknesses and rheumatism pains are entirely dispelled. As this valuable, though simple, recipe comes from a thoroughly reliable source, it should be heeded by every reader who suffers from catarrh.

MR. AND MRS. LITTLEFIELD ARE HEARD FROM

THEY WRITE THAT THEY WILL BE HOME ABOUT NOVEMBER 1—TAKING IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Oct. 8, 1908. Editor of The Guard:—We have reached Chicago on our trip and have worn out our shoes leather over rock and brick pavements, and our necks are crooked from looking at the sky-scraper. This has been all right, Mr. and Mrs. Green joined us at Minneapolis, and they are in the same fix that we are, but nevertheless we are having a fine time.

Have been here for a week, and will leave in a few days for home by way of California, visiting relatives on the way. Will be home about the first of November, as we want to get to Oregon before it gets too cold here. The first of September the mercury was 110 in the shade, and the last day of September it snowed, so Oregon is all right yet, especially Eugene, for we haven't seen a small or large city that is going ahead with the improvements that Eugene is.

Yours truly,
MR. AND MRS. C. F. LITTLEFIELD.

Notice to Delinquent Taxpayers

Delinquent taxpayers will take notice that delinquent taxes will not be advertised as heretofore; under a law passed by the last legislature of this state taxes that are delinquent after the expiration of six months from the first date of such delinquency may be paid by any one demanding to pay same, and a certificate of delinquency will be issued to such party.

Section 37 of said law, in part, reads: "Any day after the expiration of six months after taxes charged against real property are delinquent the tax collector shall have the right, and it shall be his duty, upon demand and payment of the taxes, penalty and interest, to make out and issue a certificate or certificates of delinquency against such property," and section 38 in part reads: "Certificates of delinquency shall bear interest from the date of issuance until redeemed at the rate of 15 per cent per annum."

Delinquent taxpayers are therefore advised that if they have not paid at least one-half of their taxes on or before the first Monday in April that the same are delinquent and have been delinquent since said first Monday in April, and those who have paid one-half of their taxes as above the remaining one-half will become delinquent after the first Monday in October, and six months from such dates a certificate of delinquency bearing fifteen per cent interest per annum may be issued against your property.

To save further costs, penalties and interest you are earnestly requested to settle the same at once.

H. L. BOWN,
Sheriff and Tax Collector.

BOY FALLS FROM S. P. TRAIN AND IS KILLED

The body of an unknown boy, his neck broken and the base of his skull fractured, was picked up early Sunday morning beneath the railroad trestle three-fourths of a mile north of Oakland, says yesterday's Roseburg Review. Circumstances show that the boy, while stealing a ride on the southbound overland train, No. 15, was either thrown or fell off at the trestle, and the latter is the more probable. The body was discovered by Charles Neal, a Southern Pacific section foreman. Coroner N. T. Jewett is holding an inquest at Oakland today before a jury comprised of the following: J. E. Medley, A. E. Smith, A. G. Young, E. H. Pinkston, A. A. Smith and E. M. Brooks.

Nothing was found in the boy's clothing to identify him, but that he probably lived in Portland is indicated by the stamp of "Olds, Wortman & King" on the inside of his shoes. Apparently he was about 14 years of age. He wore a cap of dark color, a dark gray coat, blue sweater and corduroy trousers. His two upper front teeth are a trifle prominent and the tooth immediately to the left is missing.

Two boys, giving their names as Tom Jackson and George Murray, and about the same age as the one who was killed, are the principal witnesses at the inquest. While beating their way they fell in with the third boy at Salem, "blind" as far as Eugene, the third boy proceeding southward on No. 15, while the other two waited and rode south on the "flyer," No. 13. Arriving at Oakland and learning that a boy had been picked up dead, Jackson and Murray immediately viewed the body and identified it as that of their companion of a few hours before. They say they did not learn his name or where his home was.

The authorities are inclined to doubt the story of Jackson and Murray. They lean toward the belief that the three boys ran away from home together, but whether this will be revealed at the inquest is a question. At the conclusion of the inquest Jackson and Murray will be taken to Roseburg and then either sent to their homes, if their locations can be learned, or committed to the state reform school.

In looks the dead boy bears the stamp of educator and gentle breeding. His hands are soft and regular in shape, showing that he had not been obliged to do any manual labor.

OPENING OF RINK.

A SIMPLE QUESTION.

Eugene People Are Requested to Honestly Answer This.

Is not the word of a representative citizen of Eugene more convincing than the doubtful utterances of people everywhere else in the Union? Read this:

Charles Beadle, of 323 Eighth St., Eugene, Ore., says: "I am fully as ready to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today as I was in 1903, just after using the remedy. As I said in my testimony at that time, I had suffered from kidney complaint nearly always since the war. I never knew when to expect an attack. A cold would bring it on or any over exertion. On several occasions I was helpless. The last severe attack I had was about six months ago, when something like lumbago set in and brought on a heavy bearing down pain as if there was a weight over each kidney. I was bent over and could not straighten up to save me. There was such a weakness in the action of the kidneys that I could not control the action of the secretions, and it caused much annoyance. Having used several remedies with little if any benefit, I finally began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. From the start almost I could feel the benefit. The action of the kidneys and bladder was soon corrected and then the pains and aches disappeared. I was benefited in every way and what I told in my former testimony about the relief I obtained is true in every respect. Three years have now elapsed since I testified in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills and I have been continually free from kidney complaint. I consider them a wonderful remedy and have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills again and again."
