SULLIVAN IS WISER THAN IN YOUTHFUL DAYS

Boston, Mass., Oct. 15.—Fifty years ago today there was born in Boston, a boy who was destined to become the pugilistic champion and who was to hold the center of king over the sporting world for a longer period than any other American before or since his time. It was given the name of John Lawrence Sullivan and as "John L." the name became familiar in all parts of the world. Sullivan's old-time friends in Boston are expecting him here at an early date and when he comes they have arranged to hold a monster public reception and testimonial in honor of his fiftieth birthday. Sullivan's return to Boston has always been welcomed by cheering crowds. And his receptions have been almost as enthusiastic in recent years as when he was the undisputed holder of the world's championship.

When the ex-champion returned home last winter after an absence of several years on the road, it was noticed that a great change had come over him. In many respects he was the same "John L." as of old, glad to shake hands with his old friends and willing to give his opinion at great length and with oratorical flourish on any subject whatsoever. But before he was many hours in town it was noticed that he was not the spendthrift Sullivan of old. In fact, it was whispered about town that John was becoming somewhat "near" in his old age.

The fact of the matter is that Sullivan, after squandering fortune after fortune, has become strongly imbued with the spirit of New England thrift. Ever since he parted friendship with "John Barleycorn" Sullivan has been making money and some say that he has been making a great deal of it. Some estimate his present fortune as well along in five figures. However this may be, it appears unlikely that he will be in need of any of the old time benefits if he continues to follow his present course.

Sullivan's career, so far as money-making enters into it, has been a marvelous one. There are few men who have had more opportunities to accumulate a fortune. All kinds of estimates have been made of his winnings while in the fighting game, and the most conservative of these agree that from the time he met Joe Gans in 1880 until he lost the championship to Corbett he had received and spent not less than a million dollars. His earnings ranged from a $25,000 purse to $100 or $1,000 for the simplest use of his name, either for advertising purposes or to boom some theatrical combination. One tour of the country netted him $100,000 in a few months' time.

All of his enormous winnings of those days was recklessly squandered and only a few years ago Sullivan returned to Boston with hardly enough money in his pocket to pay for a week's lodging. But with him wisdom appears to have come with age and now, though his earning capacity is much less than when he was in the prime, it is safe to say that he is far better off financially at the end of each year.

BULGARIA'S INDEPENDENCE WILL BE RECOGNIZED

London, Oct. 15.—All men of the home fleet absent from the ships on liberty, have suddenly been recalled. As there was no explanation of the order it caused considerable excitement. Cetinje, Montenegro, Oct. 15.—Six Australian warships anchored today off Spuzina in Dalmatia, a crown land of Austria-Hungary. They are not more than ten miles from the sole seaport of Montenegro.

London, Oct. 15.—Great Britain and Russia have reached an agreement and their programme will be submitted to the other powers, as a basis of discussion upon the proposed European conference to settle the Balkan question. The proposals are eight in number.

It is proposed to recognize the independence of Bulgaria as at present constituted and determine the financial obligations of Bulgaria toward Turkey. A new clause will probably settle the question of the Oriental railway. Also the powers shall take note of the annexation by Austria-Hungary of Bosnia and Herzegovina; recognize the annexation of Greece and determining financial obligations in respect to Crete, toward Turkey. It is also proposed that arrangements similar to the above shall apply to the Armenian provinces of Turkey; it is proposed to sweep away all restrictions imposed on Montenegro under art. 29 of the Berlin treaty, and that the Servian and Herzogovinan frontiers adjoining Novipazar shall be determined. It is proposed to revise the regulations governing Danube traffic and give larger rights to the states bordering the river. The draft of the programme makes no mention of the straits between the Black Sea and Mediterranean, which means the Bosphorus as well as Dardanelles. Russia does not desire this to be submitted to the conference but want Great Britain and France to help Russia negotiate with Turkey for the opening of these straits to Russia.

BULGARIA DESERVES PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT.

Paris, Oct. 15.—M. Stanleoff, diplomatic agent of Bulgaria in Paris, in receipt of official advices from Sofia which deny the alarmist rumors of Bulgaria's purposes. Bogalaha has no intention of sending an ultimatum to Turkey or of ordering further mobilization of its forces. On the contrary a peaceful adjustment with Turkey and the powers is regarded in Sofia as practically assured through an international conference.

R. A. Davis, of Grants Pass, has been convicted of violating the local option law. His defense was that it was not beer. Expert testimony of Earl Engles showed that the beer contained four per cent of alcohol instead of only one, as claimed. It was one of the so-called Knocking brews near beer, which is operating in many of the towns, undoubtedly merely a pretense for getting around the local option law.
