He says he does not enjoy the morning and evening strolls between Springfield and the carline going to and from his work.
 The resignation of Nate Hill, one of the city councilmen, leaves a vacancy among our fathers, but as there yet remains but one regular meeting of that honorable body before the December election, there will be no one appointed to fill the place. At the regular election there will be two councilmen, treasurer and recorder to be elected. At the present time there seems to be no interest whatever in the municipal election and but very little shown in the national.

"NEAR-BEER" ORDINANCE WAS NOT IN EFFECT

JUDGE HARRIS, OF CIRCUIT COURT, DISCHARGES KUTHE CASE BECAUSE HE WAS CONVICTED BEFORE ORDINANCE HAD BECOME EFFECTIVE.

Judge Harris, of the circuit court, today handed down a decision in the case of Chas. Kuthe, the cigar dealer who was arrested for violating the "near beer" ordinance and who pleaded guilty and was fined $25, the case being taken to the circuit court on a writ of habeas corpus. Judge Harris dismissed the case on the ground that the emergency section of the ordinance is not sufficient to make the ordinance effective immediately after the approval of the mayor and the ordinance was not in effect at the time Kuthe was arrested. The court's decision is as follows:
 "It is considered, ordered and adjudged that the ordinance upon which plaintiff was convicted was not in effect at the time of the said conviction, because the emergency section of said ordinance was not sufficient and so the ordinance of the ordinance by the mayor and that the said plaintiff be discharged from further custody and restraint."

MINNESOTA FAMILY COMES TO EUGENE

Red Wing, Minn., Republican, Oct. 9: A pleasant surprise was given last Tuesday evening to Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Drum at their home in Wacouta which they are soon to leave for their new home in Eugene, Oregon. About forty friends and neighbors walked in, bearing much good will and substantial materials for a fine dining feast. There was music and games causing much merriment, and there were some warm tears on the cheeks of the imprudent hostess, when she was presented with a dozen tea spoons and a berry spoon of solid silver. Masters Harold and Paul Drum, who are attending school in Red Wing, will have an excellent opportunity to complete their education in the University of Oregon. Mr. Drum visited Eugene some time ago and purchased a house ready furnished. The best wishes of Minnesota friends will follow this family of Minnesota pioneers who after long residence here are turning their faces toward the setting sun.

FOR SALE, EXCHANGE OR LEASE

Having concluded to retire from the lumber business I offer for sale, lease or will exchange for Eugene or Portland income property, my sawmill, sawmill site, booms, lumber sheds, office, planer, dry kiln and all tools connected with the business. Mill located at river bridge in the centre of Eugene city, east and west, and only three blocks from the S. P. R. R.
 This is a fine opportunity for some one to go into the lumber business, as there is always a big local demand for all slabwood, sawdust, slavings, cut lumber, as well as the better grades of lumber. Logs are cheap, labor cheap, lumber high.
 A good millman can make this property pay for itself in two years, and if he will operate day and night in one year. Greatest opportunity in this part of Oregon for a mill man, best located mill in the state. Capacity, 20,000 feet in ten hours.
 When you have this mill you are at the market. Planer and dry kiln—everything needed to make lots of lumber and lots of money. Give your early attention if interested in a lumber proposition. I am sure you cannot beat it in the state. The quicker you act the surer you are of making your fortune, for this is a chance in a lifetime.

JAPANESE READY TO WELCOME SPERRY'S SHIPS

Yokohama, Oct. 16.—Sixteen Japanese battleships, stern and forbidding, are at anchor off this harbor, surrounded by a fleet of steamers, yachts and other craft awaiting the sighting of the American fleet of battleships under the command of Admiral Sperry, coming to Japan in response to an invitation extended by the Japanese government. The visit of the American fleet promises to be a great event of historical significance and the Japanese, in preparing for the visitors, have duly recognized the importance of the event. For weeks there has been great excitement in official and social circles over the prospect of the visit and the most elaborate preparations have been made for the reception and entertainment of the nation's guests. The Japanese are great sticklers for etiquette and it is probable that they would not let an opportunity pass without making special efforts to do honor to the Americans, whom they have always considered their friends, notwithstanding the local anti-Japanese agitation in San Francisco and elsewhere in the West.
 Thoroughness is one of the most striking characteristics of the Japanese and never have they given a better illustration of this fact than in the weeks just passed, when they made and completed the arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the American fleet. Every minute detail has been properly arranged and it may be expected that the program prepared for the occasion will be carried out with the same attention to details which has characterized the work of the Japanese army during the late war in Manchuria.
 The sighting of the American fleet will be the signal for the beginning of the reception of the reception. According to the program the Japanese battleships will weigh anchor and steam out to meet the American fleet, as soon as the latter is in sight. Each one of the battleships has been assigned to escort to the harbor one of the visiting American warships. Together they will steam into the harbor after having exchanged salutes with the visitors. An enormous fleet of steamers and other craft, loaded with Japanese officials and mere sightseers, will meet the battleships and give them an enthusiastic welcome.
 The program for the week of the American fleet's visit is so extensive and elaborate that there will not be a minute's rest for the American officers and men from the moment of their arrival in Yokohama to their departure a week or so hence. It has been arranged that Yokohama and Tokio shall divide the honor of entertaining the visitors. The Americans will spend two days in Yokohama before the scene of hospitality is changed to Tokio, where the most extensive preparations for the occasion have been made. From Tokio the visitors will return to Yokohama, where they will enjoy a few more days of Japanese hospitality before they sail for their home country.
 Every house in this city will exhibit during the visit of the Americans, by day as well as by night, lanterns bearing the American flag. The Japanese are famous for their skill in artistic decorating and on this occasion they have surpassed themselves in their efforts to do honor to the guests of the nation. The program of reception and entertainment provides both for the officers and the men of the American fleet. The officers will be entertained on the day of their arrival at a dinner given in their honor by the Japanese command-in-chief of the district and at a reception by Governor Sufukuhel of the city of Kanagawa. On the following day they will be guests at a dinner arranged by the Mayor of Yokohama and at a reception given by the municipality of this city. These are only the principal features of the first two days. In addition there will be exchanges of formal visits by the admirals and rear admirals of the fleets, receptions by various officials and a great many private entertainments, which will practically fill every spare moment to the time of departure of the visitors for Tokio, where the principal official part of the program will be carried out. The officers will be guests of the Emperor at one of his palaces in Tokio and there will be numerous dinners, receptions, garden parties and excursions. On Tuesday the officers will be received in audience by the Emperor. The only strictly American function of the week will be the garden party at the American embassy. The sailors will also be well taken care of and every day will be free for them while they are ashore. All theatres and other places of amusement will be open to them free of charge and ample provision has been made for entertaining the jacksies. Even souvenirs have been provided for the men, so that they will have no opportunity to spend any part of their money.

Best quality tents—all sizes.
CHAMBERS HARDWARE CO.
 United States postal inspector was in Roseburg yesterday looking at the matter of the establishment of a free mail delivery system in that city. He reports conditions there fully justify such a system, so far as postal receipts are concerned. The annual business has exceeded the minimum figure of $10,000 required for a free delivery office, and is now considered above that sum. It is announced that as soon as the numbering of the houses and the placing of sign boards on the street corners are completed the inspector will recommend that the delivery service be established.

S.S.S. CONTAINS NO MERCURY

Medicines containing Mercury are often given to persons suffering with Contagious Blood Poison and so powerful is the action of this drug that it frequently removes the symptoms in a short while, and shuts the disease up in the system to do greater damage to the delicate internal members. When, however, the treatment is left off, the disease always returns, and the patient finds that his health has been injured by this powerful mineral, and he is often left with weak stomach, disturbed digestion, mercurial rheumatism, etc. The action of S. S. S. is entirely different. It contains no Mercury, nor any other harmful drug, but is made entirely of healing, cleansing roots and herbs. It cures Contagious Blood Poison by removing the virus from the blood. It searches out every particle of the poison and does not leave the least trace for future outbreak. S. S. S., in addition to curing the disease, builds up and strengthens every part of the body. Its fine tonic effect on the stomach and digestion, improve the appetite and regulate the entire system. Home treatment book containing valuable information about the different stages of the disease and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.
