S.S.S. CURES ECZEMA, ACNE, TETTER ETC.

The skin is an index to the quality of the blood. Eczema, Acne, Tetter, pimples, rashes, eruptions, etc., show that some unhealthy humor or acid impurity is diseasing and corrupting the circulation, so that instead of supplying nourishment and strength to the fine, delicate tissues of the skin, it is continually pouring out its acrid and unhealthy accumulations. External applications of salves, washes, lotions, etc., may relieve some of the itching and other discomfort caused by skin troubles, and for this reason should be used, but such treatment cannot reach the humor-laden blood, and therefore cannot cure. A thorough cleansing of the blood is the only cure for skin diseases. S. S. S., a purely vegetable preparation, is the best and quickest remedy. It goes down into the circulation and neutralizes and removes the acids, impurities and humors, thoroughly purifies the circulation and permanently cures skin diseases of every kind. When S. S. S. has driven the humors and impurities from the blood, and cooled and cleansed the acid-heated circulation, every symptom passes away, the skin is again nourished with rich, healthful blood and the trouble cured, as the cause has been removed. Book on skin diseases and any medical advice free to all who write. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

BILL HAYWARD ALMOST SWALLOWS DEADLY POISON

Veteran Trainer Drinks Wrong Solution Left Near His Cough Medicine

Death from swallowing iodine was narrowly averted by Trainer Hayward yesterday afternoon when he took a mouthful of the poison thinking that it was his cough medicine. The liquid burned his mouth before he spit it out, the little that got into his stomach being vomited by the internal application of a solution of mustard.

The iodine had been set beside his medicine, which has a similar color, by one of the football men who had been using the poison for external application. Hayward, being very busy, did not take time to investigate the strange mixture, and filled his mouth with what he thought to be his usual preparation.

Outside of making the trainer sick and the nervous shock, there were no ill effects, the immediate filling of his mouth with sweet oil making the burns of his tongue and mouth less severe.

A HINT TO MAYOR LANE

(Dr. W. W. Oglesby in Cottage Grove Western Oregon.)

The corrupt public sentiment that allows and even santions in men what it will not tolerate in women, that will make an outcast of woman and sink her to the lowest depths, and excuse man, guilty of the same sin, thus placing the garland of respectability over man and the penalty of shame and disgrace over woman, is a relic of the dark ages. It was born in the age of evil propensity, before the dawn of the Christian era. After the march of civilization for many centuries it still casts its shadow of darkness over our social system. Its gloom may be seen in every realm of socley, deflecting the rays of Christianity and obscuring the light of intelligence by the clouds of prejudice. In our Christian land a young man may go astray and sow his wild oats, associate with the vile, dissipate his manhood and sink to the lowest depths of sin, and when tired of his life of shame the prodigal may return, repent and join the temperance siclety, and the doors of society, of the lodges and the churches are thrown open to him. Their altars are spread before him, the arms of society are thrown around him, the white hand of innocence is extended to welcome him, the tears and cheers of society greet him. He can even lead to the altar as his bride the purest girl in the land, and the church and state will combine to unite the red and vile heart of the sinner with the white hand and pure heart of the saint. If the leniency shown men was truly an expression of charity or Christ spirit it would be equally extended to women. But unfortunately, this is not true, for if the prodigal son, that society has so generously forgiven, has a sister who, under the most seductive temptation, makes a single missten, the lines of society are suddenly drawn so as to leave the unfortunate one outside the circle. The doors of churches and lodges are quickly closed and—

For their saintly altars no insense rise
To awaken sweet pity in the skies:
While public sentiment is much disturbed.
No voice of forgiveness is ever heard,
Doors that swung open to brother's return
Are closed against sister, her tears to spurn.
Voices that extolled the brother's good name,
Secretly whisper the sister's dark shame,
Hearts that make long prayers to heaven,
To her turn cold and unforgiving.
For the prodigal son the lamb is slain,
But the prodigal daughter is left in shame.
Thus man, by men and women, is quickly forgiven,
While woman, poor soul, must look to heaven.

Woman thus becomes an outcast and soon sinks to the lowest depths, with no hand to uplift, no eye to pity, no heart to forgive. This is not right, and until the standard by which woman is judged is made equally binding upon man, society will never be able to free itself from this disgraceful evil. We can never have the perfect home, the enjoyment of sacred bliss or give progeny a noble birth until the church, the lodges and the better element of society array themselves in pronounced opposition to this evil, so that the lines of justice will fall upon all alike, and extend the arms of protection, words of encouragement, altars of true worship and prayers of forgiveness to unfortunate women as well as men. They cannot serve the purpose for which they were founded or establish Christ's kingdom in the heart of man until they do this.
