

For the College Girl and Her High-School Sister

The style in these suits is Paris style. It is put into the suits by skilful needlework. It is sewn into every garment, stitch by stitch. Day after day, month after month, you may wear a Wooltex suit, and until the very last it will retain that touch of fashion that wins the heart and delights the eye of every appreciative woman.

Part of the style secret of these suits lies in the material of which they are made—special super-quality material with every thread pure wool—no cotton, no adulteration.

This quality of piece goods can be obtained only in Wooltex garments. Besides the two styles shown here, you will find an almost endless variety, not only for school girls, but for matrons and older people, including

- Walking suits in hard finish, fancy suitings, diagonals and broadcloths—some with sheath skirts—many with big buttons.
- Housecoat suits, modified Directoire style—high waist line in back—slashed sides—bias back, a new and pleasing effect.
- Artistic evening wraps of broadcloth in pastel colors, with novel effects in trimmings—some with cretonne trimmings, hand-tinted in water color.
- Long coat suits—high waist lines—trimming cleverly arranged to add to height and increase slenderness—novel sleeve effects and enormous self-covered buttons.
- Marchioness and Belmore coats—the standard coats, but made better than the standard way. In material, in style, in workmanship, these coats can not be improved.
- Separate skirts which button down to the hem—skirts with side plackets—skirts with front plackets—skirts with habit backs—many in modified Directoire style, opening at one side over pleats.
- Suits, coats and skirts in almost endless variety, all snappy Wooltex Styles—all durable Wooltex materials—garments that delight the eye and hold their attractiveness till the very end.

Every Wooltex Garment is guaranteed by the makers for two full seasons of satisfactory wear.

Please ask for the Wooltex Style Book. From it you will get the newest and best exclusive fashion pointers. Better still, come in and see the suits themselves, see the styles, see the materials, see the art in designing, see the workmanship. Surely you will want to get the benefit of the best Paris styles when they are lastingly sewn into such serviceable suits as these, and placed within your easy reach at such moderate prices.

Hampton Bros.

For the high-school girl—a double-breasted, half-fitted suit in two shades of gray with red or blue inlays. There is style in every line of this suit and dashing beauty in every curve.

A quiet monotone effect in blue for college girls—a suit with jaunty lines, set off with brass buttons. In fancy worsteds and all shades of plain broadcloth, too.

COACH FORBES IS HOPEFUL OF FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Varsity Men are Being Taught Offense — Willamette Here Tomorrow

"The varsity team is fast rounding into shape," said Coach Forbes after practice last night. From statements given out by the head master of the gridiron here at the University, the outlook is growing in hopefulness each night.

The game that now looms up the biggest is the one with the Idaho team next week, and while Middleton sends out reports that his team is not doing well, little credence is given the reports here. However, the Oregon squad is learning the finer points of the game and tomorrow's experience against Willamette will be a fair way for the fight for the honors of the Northwest.

The men are in good condition, thanks to the care of the trainer, although the practices this week have been very strenuous. Clark's kicking is improving, and the other men are getting in better form for handling themselves.

McKinley, the clever backfield man, is improving from his injury, and "Sam" Latourette is able to move around with a smile though his hurts still keep him out of the scrimmages. Hawkins, a Portland boy, is having a show with the first squad. He is speedy, and promises to develop into a man of power.

Hawley Captain
Earl Hawley was elected captain of the second team last night. He plays half on his squad, and one year got a chance in the Multnomah game at Portland in "Weary Chandler's" position at end. His team goes to Chemawa tomorrow.

The line-up will be as follows: Half backs, Hawley and Erskine; full back, Sullivan; quarter, Stine; center, Wiedland; guards, Harding and Kilpatrick; tackles, McDaniel and Lackey; ends, Kestley and Lewis; substitutes, Hawkins, Nell and Rhinehart. Assistant Manager Whittney and Assistant Coach Arnsperger accompany the delegation.

Willamette Tomorrow
The game with Willamette tomorrow begins at 2:30. Oregon expects to win, though the performances of the Methodists are puzzling to the local aggregation.

RAINIER YOUTHS EMULATE YELLOWBACK HEROES

Rainier, Or., Oct. 22.—George Sandall and Walter Weber, two young boys of this town, ran away from home Monday and have not been seen since. Their parents are nearly distracted. Every effort is being made to ascertain their whereabouts. They were seen on a freight train at Goble, bound for Portland, Tuesday, October 14. That is the last trace.

Both boys were close readers of detective stories, "Diamond Dick," "Nick Carter" and others.

George Sandall is a large boy, 14 years of age. He would easily pass for 16 years. He is fair and has light brown hair and light blue eyes.

Walter Weber would be very easily identified, as his right leg has been amputated above the knee. He is 16 years of age, has dark hair, dark skin and brown eyes.

The address of the Weber boy's mother is Mrs. E. Weber, Rainier. She is a widow. The other boy's father is N. E. Sandall, Rainier.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION

Be it known that the business conducted at 65 East Ninth street, and heretofore known as Moon & Tingley's feed, seed and implement store, is hereby dissolved, by mutual consent, Mr. Tingley retiring from the business. All bills owing by the firm will be settled at the old stand. All accounts and notes due the firm of Moon & Tingley must be settled at the store at once, either by cash or note. Accounts not so settled will be placed with a collection agency, with instructions to make immediate settlements.

Mr. N. J. Blais, of Eugene, a young man well and favorably known, will succeed Mr. Tingley, and the business will be known in the future as the Moon-Blais Implement Company, and will consist of a full and complete line of feeds, implements, fencing, and almost every other thing that a farmer will need in his business. We take this opportunity of thanking our many friends and patrons, and present, for their generous appreciation and patronage, and hope and predict their continued relations with the new firm, who will make every effort to live up to the old firm's motto, "Satisfied Customer."

W. S. MOON,
F. S. TINGLEY.

WHERE BULLETS FLEW.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the Civil War, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done me more good than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. Then I tried Electric Bitters and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic and they keep me strong and well." 50c at W. A. Kneeland's drug store.
