

SUPREME COURT HOLDS EUGENE BOND ISSUE VALID

(Special Service.)
Oct. 27.—In affirming the decree of Judge L. T. Harcourt circuit court of Lane county, in the case of the City of Eugene, vs. The Willamette Valley Company, the supreme court today upheld the validity of the amendment to the city of Eugene, authorizing the issuance of $300,000 of bonds for the purchase of the city waterworks system. The decision was unanimous, Judge Moore delivering the opinion in a friendly suit to determine the legality of the issue.

The guard understands the situation now, the Willamette Valley Company will be required to turn the plant and real estate to the city, as the suit decided in favor of the city. The specific performance of a contract. KERN CHARGES THAT BIG CORRUPTION FUND HAS BEEN RAISED

Tipton, Ind., Oct. 27.—"I am reliably informed, and make the specific charge that $100,000 in money, largely contributed by the combins and trusts, was brought into Indiana last Sunday and passed through the hands of Hon. Fred Sims, secretary of state."

John W. Kern, Democratic vice presidential nominee, made the above charge before a good-sized audience here today, in advocating the publication of campaign contributions before election, and declared that every sensible man knows that when a contribution is made to the campaign fund by one of these lawless and plundering combinations, it expects to have value received in the form of special favors.

Kern said that if the people knew the names of the donors of that $100,000 fund Bryan would carry the state by 100,000. He said Sims was a personal friend of his, but that the man who has the power to raise and lower the taxes of corporations as has Sims has no right to handle campaign contributions from corporations.

BRYAN HOBSONIZED BY NEW YORK WOMEN LAST NIGHT

Madison Square Garden, N. Y., Oct. 26.—At the close of a trying day—a day of out-door speaking in a drenching rain, of fast-flying trips by automobile and special trains, of receptions and formal dinners, and of three big evening meetings in different sections of the city, Colonel Bryan addressed in Madison Square Garden tonight the most notable gathering of his three campaigns.

The candidate began his long day with a dash through mud and rain to Paterson, N. J., in an automobile. He spoke in a downpour for twenty minutes and like thousands of the audience was drenched to the skin. Returning to the city he was the guest at a reception at the Women's Democratic Club at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, where two impulsive ladies threw their arms about Bryan and kissed him. He next made a flying trip through the Westchester county, returning to New York, Bryan was the guest of honor at a reception and dinner at the Democratic Club. Then began the evening tour, which took him to the Hamilton Fish Park, Cooper Union, Palm Garden, and thence to Madison Square Garden.

UPHAM SAYS CHARGE IS UNTRUE

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Fred W. Upham, assistant secretary of the Republican campaign fund, when shown Kern's charge that $100,000, collected largely from the trusts, had been sent into Indiana, said:

"Not a single dollar of anybody's money has been sent out of my office into Indiana. If there had been I would know it, and Kern's statement is untrue."

SIMS ALSO DENIES

Indianapolis, Oct. 27.—Fred Sims said:

"This is absolutely false. I know nothing of a $100,000 campaign fund for Indiana. It is about time for these stories to be circulated, as the Democrats hope to help their cause in this way."
