PURPOSE.

The uses of sorrow I comprehend. Better and better at each year's end.

Deeper and deeper I seem to see Why and wherefore it has to be.

Only after the dark wet days Do we fully rejoice in the sun's bright rays.

Sweeter the crust tastes after the fast Than the sated gourmand's finest repast.

The faintest cheer sounds never amiss To the actor who once has heard a hiss.

And one who has dwelt with his grief alone Hears all the music in friendship's tone.

So better and better I comprehend How sorrow ever would be our friend.

ELLA WHEELER WILCOX.

SPENDING MONEY AT HOME

One of our exchanges has discovered ten good reasons why it is the best policy to patronize the local businessmen, and these reasons will apply to Eugene as well as any other town.

Because—You can examine your purchase and are assured of satisfaction before investing your money.

Because—Your home merchant is always ready and willing to make right any error or any defective article purchased of him.

Because—When you are sick or for any reason it is necessary for you to ask for credit, you can go to the local merchant.

Because—If a merchant is willing to extend you credit, you should give him the benefit of your cash trade.

Because—Your home merchant pays local taxes and exerts every effort to build and better your market, thus increasing the values of both city and country property.

Because—The mail order merchant does not lighten your tax or in any way help the value of your property.

Because—The mail order merchant does nothing for the benefit of markets or real estate values.

Because—"If your town is good enough to live in it is good enough to spend your money in."—Governor Folk, of Missouri.

Because—The best citizens in your community patronize home industry. Why not be one of the best citizens?

Because—If you will give your home merchant an opportunity to compete, by bringing your order to him in quantities you buy out of town, he will demonstrate that, quality considered, he will save you money.

And while on this subject The Guard might, if space permitted, give ten reasons just as good why the businessman should, in turn, buy everything he can get at home, his printing, for instance. Too many bankers, hotel keepers, and even merchants, order their stationery and supplies from the East, when they can save a few cents a thousand on a big order, notwithstanding that the local printing office is an industry that employs labor and adds its share to the prosperity of the community. This patronizing of home institutions should apply to all lines of business and industry.

It would seem that the decision of the supreme court in the Medford local option case has knocked a big hole in the law as applied to counties. Quite likely there will be a rush of towns in the "dry" belt next winter to get their charters amended so that they will conform to the Medford idea, and after that the real fight over prohibition will take place in the towns, since voting the county dry will not close up the saloons if only the town goes wet. It appears as if the supreme court had delivered a solar plexus blow to the anti-saloon league.

The Southern Pacific demonstration train which will pass through the Willamette Valley next month will be in Eugene November 10th. This is a new idea here and it seems to be a good one along the line of arousing interest in progressive methods of agriculture, and it is to be hoped that the farmers will show their appreciation by turning out in large numbers to listen to the lectures. The idea is certainly worthy of a thorough trial.

There is to be a farmers' institute, conducted by the Lane county grange next Friday and Saturday at Springfield. A splendid program has been arranged and there is also to be an award of prizes for exhibits in the domestic department. The Guard hopes that the institute will be a success.

New Jersey is putting on a lot of side because it has a gander that can say "yes" and "no." There isn't a neighborhood in this town which hasn't a good that can do as much, but we aren't proud of 'em—not so you can notice it.

Married women are slandered by a newspaper Solomon who says they worry the price of a new bonnet out of hubby. It isn't true. Why should they, when the accommodating milliner is glad to relieve them of the job?

The late W. K. Vanderbilt once complained that he had a son-in-law who was more kinds of a fool than any man he had ever seen. Wonder if the complaint has been recalled by any one of prominence of late?

After all, it's a good thing for the politicians that the people get so busy after the returns are in speculating on what the winners are going to do that they forget to call them to account for their false predictions.

Hobson has been outclassed as a kisser. Four hundred girls kissed the groom at a recent California wedding. How the germ sharps would have enjoyed examining his mouth at the close of the kiss-fest.

Some times we go so far as to suspect that there are men engaged in the business of printing out straw ballots to order, especially after comparing those printed by two opposing papers.

A little philosophic investigation is apt to convince that the objective point of the "simple life" and the "sybarite life" is the same—advertising.

Japan hasn't gone "dry," if we may judge from the reports of the entertainment of the officers and men of our battleship fleet.

To numerous gentlemen who are beginning to worry about their chance for getting a cabinet job—first catch your hare.

THIS IS MY 39TH BIRTHDAY

Joseph W. Folk, Joseph W. Folk, governor of Missouri and a candidate for United States senator, was born October 28, 1869, in Brownsville, Tenn. His education was received at Vanderbilt University, from which institution he was graduated in 1890. He studied law, was admitted to the bar and practiced for a year in his native town. He then removed to St. Louis, where he soon became prominent in his chosen profession. He took an active interest in Democratic politics and before long became prominent in public affairs. In 1900 he was instrumental in bringing about a peaceful settlement of the great street railway strike in St. Louis. The prominence which he obtained through the arbitration of the street railway strike led to his nomination later in the same year as the Democratic candidate for district attorney. He was elected and during his term of office he won national fame by his prosecution of those guilty of election frauds, bribery and municipal corruption. Nearly a score of legislative bribes were sent to prison through the efforts of Mr. Folk, and among them several millionaire political bosses. In 1904 he was elected to the governorship, receiving 50,000 more votes than the other candidate on his ticket. As governor he continued his work of purging the state of political corruption.

OLD GUARD OFFICE BUILDING LEASED

Wm. Renshaw Will Put in Up-to-date Cigar Store Soon

After more than twenty-five years of continuous use as an office for the Guard, the former home of the paper is being painted and newly lined and papered, making it one of the neatest and most desirable rooms in the city.

The building has been leased to Wm. Renshaw for a term of years. It is understood that he will put in an up-to-date wholesale and retail cigar store. The lounging room will be commodious and with its excellent light cannot but become a popular resort under his liberal and enterprising management.

The unpretentious structure is very substantially built. The walls are three inches thick, consisting of three sections of inch lumber, with broken joints very solidly nailed together. The tearing off of the old lining with its three coats of wall paper showed a wall as tight and straight as the day it was finished. Then the floor is a double one with building paper between with an air space, the upper floor being held from the lower by rows of lath to which it is nailed.

There is twenty by ninety-six feet of floor space in the structure, and it probably has the distinction of being the best lit room in Eugene, there being four skylights in it besides the glass front. These skylights have a combined area of one hundred and twenty feet of glass equal to a space ten by twelve feet. To better appreciate this amount of glass you may figure it out that the glass would fill eleven, twelve by sixteen inch eight light windows and still have glass left over.

RESUME WORK ON SPRINGFIELD LINE IN TWO WEEKS

A. Welch Says Work on Trolley Road Will Begin Again Soon

A. Welch, of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway, was in the city today on business. He stated to a reporter this morning that his company would resume construction work on the Eugene-Springfield electric line in about two weeks if the weather will permit. The company has plenty of rails in Portland, having received a large shipment from the East some time ago. The rails are laid at present to a point opposite Judkins' Point, but the trestle along the river bottom beyond that is completed to the river at Springfield and a part of the trestle on the Springfield side of the river has been built.

Mr. Welch stated that work on the company's street car line at Albany was begun today. Some of the tools used in the construction of the Eugene line are being shipped there, but these are some that are not needed in the work here.

BOOTH-KELLY COMPANY BUILDING LUMBER SHEDS

Will Maintain Yards in This City for Local Trade—Buildings at Depot

The Booth-Kelly Lumber Co. has begun the work of erecting a large lumber shed on the Southern Pacific depot grounds in this city and will maintain lumber yards there. The shed will be 100x22 feet in dimensions and will be located on the north side of the tracks, just east of the Moore & Tingley warehouse. The frame work was raised today. The yards will be located on ground adjoining the shed. The Booth-Kelly company is doing a big local retail business and to better handle the orders, decided to establish yards here instead of hauling from the mill at Springfield for each order.

CURE IT IN ONE DAY.

Coughs and Colds Disappear Like Magic When Hy-o-mel is Used.

If the thousands of people who suffer from hacking coughs and agonizing colds would arouse themselves sufficiently to follow this advice, they would cease to complain within twenty-four hours.

Here is the advice, if you take it and you are afterwards sorry that you did, it won't cost you a penny. Go to the Hull Drug Co. and purchase from them a Hyomel (pronounced High-o-mel) outfit. It will only cost you $1.00. Take it home; use it according to direction, and if it does not cure your cough or cold, take it back and Hull's will refund the purchase price.

When you use Hyomel you don't swallow nauseating drugs. You simply breathe in the soothing, pleasant and antiseptic Hyomel air through the little pocket inhaler that comes with each outfit. As this medicated air passes over the inflamed parts, relief comes almost at once, and cure follows.

Mary E. Bonnett, Peru, Ind., writes: "I cannot speak too much in praise of your Hyomel treatment for catarrh. I have been using your remedy for about two weeks, and I have found more relief in that than anything that I have ever tried. I have spent dollar after dollar getting medicine of the doctor for a troublesome cough which I had, and have tried all kinds of cough syrups and cough tablets, and Hyomel is the only remedy that reached the spot. I had given up in despair, but I feel so much better now that I feel as though I have a new lease on my life."

Hyomel is also guaranteed by Hull Drug Co. to cure catarrh, croup, grip and asthma, and all diseases of the nose and throat.

Albany Apple Fair, Nov. 10 to 12. For the above occasion the Southern Pacific Company will sell round trip tickets to Albany and return at one and one-third fare, on November 10th, 11th and 12th. All tickets limited to November 13th.

SENATOR FULTON ADDRESSED VOTERS OF EUGENE

Senator Chas. W. Fulton addressed a large audience at the courthouse last night in the interests of the candidacy of Wm. H. Taft for president.

The senator was introduced by Attorney Helmus Thompson, president of the Lincoln Republican Club. The address was characteristic of the senator. It was a careful, analytical and complete comparison of the records of the Republican and Democratic candidates for president. The meeting was enthusiastic and the Republican and Democratic candidates for president. The meeting was enthusiastic and the Republicans present felt much encouraged after hearing the address. There were a number of women in the audience and many men from different parts of the county.
